BUSY MARKING SPRING GOODS

Taylor & Co., Dromore

Mr Dugald A. Clark is engaged with Mr C. Smith of your town working in the sawmill.

We would like to know who the young fellow was who when returning from Mulock church Sunday evening got so many girls in the cutter that the pony came to a stand still on the hill.

Mrs Jno McDonald, we are glad to hear, is able to be around again after a severe attack of lagrippe

Mr J. W. Smith had the misfortune recently to lose a valuable cow.

Mr Thos Morton has been laid off work with a sore hand for some time but we hope will soon be able to work again.

Miss Ida Davis of town, spent Sunday visiting her aunt, Mrs Wm Scarr.

Mr Jno Burns purchased a fine Clyde mare from Mr Hooper, of Glenelg, for the handsome sum of $175. Jno believes in keeping good horses.

Rob Roy.

Quite a number attended the prayer-meeting held at the home of Mr Thos McComb on Sunday evening. Owing to the absence of Mr McGillivray, Mr W. Young took charge of the meeting.

Our post master Mr G. ay is complaining of LaGrippe.

Mr Britton, who owing to poor health has had to give up the active farming, has disposed of two of his horses, one to Mr McComb and another to Mr Jackson.

Mr Chas Watson has rented Mr William Ryan's farm the latter and family having moved to Durham.

Miss Kate McArthur, of Niagara Falls, is holidaying with her parents here.

Mrs D. Brown has recovered from her recent illness.

Mr and Mrs Chas McArthur are attending the marriage of their daughter (Miss Lizzie) in Owen Sound. We extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

Mrs McGillivray who has been ill at her daughter's, Mrs Ford's, has gone to visit Mrs McTargart, another daughter living in Pomona.

The signs of the weather are that the snow will soon leave us. This last sleighing came as quite a boon to some of the farmers, enabling them to get out their logs.

Staff Capt. McGillivray holds a prayer-meeting at Mr McKinnon's next Sunday evening. He intends holding such meetings for some time at the different homes.

Mrs John Gray is busily engaged in preparing to build a new barn this summer.

Mrs McCormick is on the sick list. Hope to see her around again soon.

Mr John Kennedy, of Toronto, is spending some weeks at his home here.

Rocky Saugeen.

Miss Carrie McKechnie is improving.

Miss Ada Middleton is home from Chicago.

Mr Alex McGillivray and bride spent a few days at her fathers in Williamsford, and on their return gave the young people a dance.

One of the good old time dances came off on Wednesday night at Mr Walter Middleton's which was kept up until 6 o'clock in the morning. Everybody enjoyed themselves.

Mr Fred McIntosh and Miss Lizzie McKay, also Mr Alfred Wellwood all of Williamsford, spent a pleasant time at Mr Neil McGillivray's from Sunday night to the end of the week.

Sorry to hear Mrs Dunsmoor being ill: hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Hopeville.

Ham Allen and his chum has returned from Cobalt. Mr Allen has a bad knee and he had to quit work it was sore before he left here, but he thought it would get better, instead it grew worse so he came home.

Mr Beard, the pastor of the Hopeville church, preached his farewell sermon on Su day, the 25th. He has an opening in Oshawa. At the close of Mr Beard's service, a little unpleasant breeze sprang between him and one of the members, who ranked by the name of the big chief, who is opposed to Mr Beard. He was and is well liked by all the members of other churches here.

J. McArdle is complaining of La Grippe.

The Holstein Supply Company has an agent here canvassing.

A large number of people from this neighborhood, went to Dandalk last Saturday. It appears that the sale of lands drew them there.

There was a lot of land belonging to the estate of the late Thomas Campbell up for sale, also a lot belonging to Peter McMurdo and his sister, left them by their father, the late James McMurdo and it was supposed considerable money of it would be paid out to legatees.

By the latest reports we hear the McArthur fire affair is supposed to be settled. That McArthur made an assignment to his creditors by paying sixty cents on the dollar, they to take all the insurance and property. It is also said he, McArthur, is going west if he cannot rent a store here.

Angus Ferguson has rented his blacksmith shop and house to John McMurdo, the blacksmith.

Priceville.

During the most of the past week, we had severe weather with an abundance of snow, last Friday, being the coldest day we had all winter, whether it was because it was our birthday day was so severe, or somebody else's, we cannot tell but however the day was celebrated by giving us a cool reception. Lots of teasing done during the last couple of weeks. Our saw mill is pretty well stocked with logs. This weather put some of our (no we'll not say old) bachelors a thinking that it was not good for a fellow to be alone and some of them went to work and got married, a very wise idea indeed for some of them are old enough now to be placed on the care of a good housekeeper of their own, so we will mention some names further on.

Mr and Mrs Arch McLean, who spent a month at their home, near here, left for their home in Montana ten days ago, accompanied by their nephew H H McDonald, who intends to stay there for some time.

John McLean moved to the McCannel farm a week ago, and while he was sorry leaving the home of his childhood, he thought it would not do for everyone to be of the same mood of mind and by considerable forethought on his part he secured the promise of one of the fair damsels of the Durham Road, Glenelg, and as her word was as good as her promise she made John the happiest man on the South Line, while she was happy leaving her old home when she remembered that she was making another home pleasant. So the happy couple made for the Presbyterian manse, Priceville, where the Rev Mr Matheson proclaimed them man and wife, on Tuesday, the 20th March, and Miss Mary Jane Smellie, daughter of Wm Smellie, Esq., was made Mrs John McLean. John was supported by his nephew, Arch. J. McDonald, son of J A McDonald and the bride by her sister, Miss Christina Smellie. A pleasant time was spent at the home of the bride till near 12, only a few of the nearest friends being present. Mr Smellie, Sr, is a good entertainer, so he kept the party in good cheer by singing old Scotch songs, assisted by Arch McDonald, who also gave some good songs. All went home about 12, wishing the young couple long life and prosperity on their journey of life.

W. G. Watson, Jr, was away as a substitute for the postmaster, Arch McKinnon, who was kept from going on account of his father's illness, to the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W, held in Toronto last week.

Word has just arrived that Lizzie second eldest daughter, of Mrs John McLeod, of Stayner, died of brain fever, aged 15 years, grandchild of Mr Wm McLeod, of Top Cliff, South line Glenelg.

The sick people are getting better and we hope to see them all around in their usual health.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper was dispensed in the Presbyterian church here, on Sabbath last the 25th inst and in Gaelic next Sunday being the 1st Sabbath in April.

Some on the Glenelg side of the Town Line, are thinking the Assessor is going to miss them this year, but wait a little he will be on hand soon and no danger of a miss, lots of ground between Top Cliff and Markdale to go over yet but then the 1st of May is a good ways off yet.

We are sorry to hear of Miss Tena McCnald, (Hugh's) being in the hospital, Toronto, for some ailment of a painful nature, we hope to hear of her being better soon.

Miss Meadie Hinecks left for Toronto a while ago to spend a while there when she will return home again in summer.

Mr Alex McLean, (elder), got a bad fall in his barn, while putting down feed for his cattle. He is laid up for the last couple of weeks, but we hear the venerable gentleman is on the mend and we hope to see him around again in his usual activity and health.

Mr and Mrs Lomes, who spent a month with friends here, left for their home in West again a few days ago. Mrs Lomes is a daughter of the late Allan McLean and sister of Dan McLean, of this village.

Dr and Mrs Hutton, of Durham, attended Mr Reilly's funeral here on Sunday, 18th inst.

Malcolm McInnes and his sister, Mrs D. Graham, of this town, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs Mabee, of Albion.

During the service at Mr Reilly's funeral, a lady from Boothville fainted. Dr Hutton, of Durham, happened to be sitting right close to her, rendered his service at once, so it is good to have Doctors even in church in case of emergencies.

Rev Mr Thom, of Flesherton, preached preparatory services on Friday last in the Presbyterian Church here.

A number of young men united with the Presbyterian church here on Sabbath last, by taking the sacrament for the first time, a good act for any young person to join some church or other in their youthful days.

Commissioner McArthur was in Toronto one day lately.

Mr Dugald Mc Cormick, of this place, was away for a couple of days, attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs Simon Mabee, of the Township of Albion.

Mrs Mabee suffered long with an ailment of cancerous nature, an ailment that is very common nowadays. She, in her younger days, spent some time in this place and was considered
