TO RENT.

Store next Standard Bank, Durham, the best business stand in town for general store; will be arranged to suit tenant. Heated by steam, electric lights. Apply to N. McIntyre.

North East Normanby.

Mrs. David Marshall had a quilting bee Friday, also a party in the evening. A very pleasant time was spent in games etc. until the small hours of the morning.

The Rev D. L. Campbell preached his farewell sermon on Sunday. The church was crowded, showing the high esteem in which Mr Campbell has been held here. The Rev. J. Little of Holstein will preach in Knox church next Sabbath.

Mr Wm Johnston, Sr. has been seriously ill for the past week, but is improving slowly.

A large number of the friends and neighbors of Mr and Mrs John Aldred gathered at their home on Wednesday evening to spend another social evening with them before they leave for the West. During the evening they were presented with a dinner set, a curving set and a Bible, and we hope they may be long spared to use them.

Mrs D. Leith and Miss Janet Johnston were guests of the Rev Mr and Mrs Campbell, of Dromore, on Friday.

The W. F. M. meeting was held on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs John Marshall.

Mr Wm Johnston, of your town, visited his father, Mr Wm Johnston, Sr. on Sunday.

Mrs Leeson spent Friday afternoon with Mrs Wallace.

Rev D. L. Campbell preached his farewell sermon—always an important event in any congregation—to the largest audience yet seen in the building since the opening day of the church over 22 years ago. The strong personality and extreme popularity of the pastor being chiefly responsible for the large turnout. He chose for his text the words "My God shall supply all your needs" and referred to the many sources of supply, from which could be drawn spiritual nourishment, that they may gain strength and righteousness, such as, having good homes and good friends, the reading of a chapter, the choosing of a text, the attendance on divine things and the approaching of the mercy seat in prayer, as Elijah, Daniel, Christ and others had done and listened these various sources to the different coaling stations held by the leading nations of the world.

At the close of the service he referred gratefully to the appreciation shown and the many tokens of kindness given to his home and to himself, during the pleasant 8 years and 3 months ministry amongst us and while they may have been the best 8 years of his life, physically, he hoped that in the next 8 years, he might be able to gather still more souls into the Lord's service. The choir of the church gave an appropriate voluntary "Only remembered by what we have done," Miss Kate Dixon presiding at the organ, in the unavoidable absence of the organist, Miss Agnes Kenwick, who had been detained in Dundalk. The hymn "God be with you till we meet again" was sung at the close by the whole congregation with sincere feeling.

Mr and Mrs Frank Adams were made the happy recipients of a bouncing baby boy on Thursday last, both mother and babe we are pleased to say are doing well.

Messrs Geo Reid and Jas Renwick after filling positions acceptably in Toronto as clerks, arrived home lately and intend leaving for the great West in a few days.

In the Hall appointment, Misses Hattie E. Watt and Bella Lothian sang very acceptably in duet form "Take Thou my hand dear Father" on Sunday evening last.

Mr and Mrs D. P. Coleridge left on Tuesday of this week for Holstein, having bought a property in the town, where they will lead a less strenuous life than here on the farm.

Miss Agnes Renwick visited at her cousins in Dundalk during the last of the week, and failed to get home as intended, through the failure of her uncle Sam to make connections as promised.

Miss Maggie Moody is at present staying with her sister, Mrs Colin McMillan.

Miss Agnes Henry arrived over a week ago from Niagara Falls, N. Y., and is staying with her father and mother, the latter being, we are pleased to say, sufficiently recovered to be able to attend the farewell services on Sunday last.

Mr and Mrs Gilmour, Hampden, Mr and Mrs Alex Pettis, Yeovil were in attendance at church, the two ladies being old time members, gave assistance in the choir.

Mr and Mrs Brander, Priceville, visited at the Rev D. L. Campbell's during the week end.

Mr Kilgour, of the firm of C. W. Kelly, music dealer, Guelph, visited at Mr Wm Ramage's last week. He is booming their fine piano and has made some sales lately.

Rocky Saugeen.

Miss Agnes Vessie is home from Toronto.

Mr Will Dice, of Louise, visited his sister, Mrs Wm Leggette for a few days last week.

Mr and Mrs Jas Bartley and family left for the West on Tuesday.

Mr Angus McKinnon's sale took place Wednesday, the 28th of March. Almost everything was sold except the two farms.

Mr Walter Middleton is now employed at the Cement Works in Durham.

Miss Tena Newell spent a few days last week with her sister, Mrs Allan McKinnon of your town.

Mr Will Newell has quit working in the Furniture Factory and is now engaged with C. Smith and sons.

Mr Herbie Dunsmoor had the misfortune to fall off a horse and cut his head one day last week. As the cuts are not very serious, Herbie will be alright in a few days.

Swinton Park

Messrs Ferris, of Glamis, Bruce Co., is visiting at Mrs James Ferris's at present.

La grippe seems to be the order of the day around the park some in nearly every place being laid up with it.

Quite a number of the farmers in the vicinity of the park, have tapped their trees, so I expect there will be some taffy pulls in the near future.

Miss Lizzie Alderson and Miss Maggie Knox visited at their parental home last Sunday.

We notice the McCormack agency has taken the bell of the tame martin and is using it in the agency at present.

I wonder who the young couple is, who likes to drive to Priceville instead of going to the court house.

The assessor passed through here this week and by the talk there will be a lively time at the Court of Revision this year.

Miss Alice Wilson visited Miss Jennie Knox one day last week.

Miss Jennie Knox visited at Mrs R Heard's one day last week.

We notice a couple of young ladies occupied the chair and took advantage of the lantern.

Mr Duncan and Miss Mary McLellan visited at Mr D. MacMillan's on Sunday last.

Mr Stanley Haw is engaged with Mr Jas Patton for the spring work.

Rob Roy.

Miss Violet Britton has returned after a three days' visit in Durham at Mr T. McComb's.

Mr Gray Wilson, who has been stopping at Mr Gray's, left for the West on Monday.

Mrs Leslie, of Mr Forest, visited at her home on Sunday.

Owing to the indisposition of Rev Mr Newton, Mr Brown, of Durham, had charge of the service in the Centre church on Sunday.

The sugar season has opened with a good run of sap. Among those farmers making syrup are Mr N. Edwards and Mr Geo Binnie.

Mrs McGillivray has returned to his daughter's, Mrs Ford.

Mrs McCormack is getting better from her siege of La Grippe.

The prayer meeting held at Mr McKinnon's on Sunday evening was largely attended. Mr McGillivray will hold a meeting at Mr McFarlane's next Sunday evening, when it will be settled as to when a collection for the poor of Japan will be taken.

Mr and Mrs Sutherland, who married in Owen Sound on Wednesday last, visited with the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs Chas McArthur.

Staff Capt. McGillivray is away to Halifax this week.

Welbeck.

Married at the Manse, by the Rev Mr Newton, Durham, Mr. George Montgomery of Welbeck to Miss Bertha Shakerton of Manchester, England. We wish them a long, prosperous and happy life.

Quite a number left our burg for the West this week.

Master John Horsburg is engaged with Mr H Bidd for the summer.

Mr Ed Welsh is busy taking out timber for the extension of his barn.

The sawmill is on the hum these days. They are working overtime, filling in the rushing orders. The chopper will be shut down from April 9th to May 1st owing to the rush of other work.

Mr Geo Montgomery has rented the Riddell's southerly residence, and Mr. Riddell has offered a free house to the next couple to wed. Come boys, look sharp.

Mr D Watson is engaged drawing in logs at mill for Mr Geo Sparling of your town.

Mr Walter Horsburg is not going to the West this spring. We are glad for we would lose a good neighbor. Success where you are Walter. Wedding Bells will be ringing again this Wednesday we hear. Particulars next week.

Boothville.

We think it about time again to give some account of the happenings of this busy little burg.

The fine weather of the past week has induced some of our progressive farmers to tap a few trees. They report a good run of sap, but will have to keep a sharp lookout for midnight fires.

Owing to some trouble over school affairs our three trustees resigned and a largely attended meeting was held on Saturday to elect others in their place. When the following efficient staff was elected, Dougald McCannell, Geo Witters and John Calder.

Mr George Wilson has been on the sick list the last few days. Too long a drive Sunday night, George.

Since the high water on the river has subsided, we think Will will be able to find a shell nearer home than Swinton Park.

Mrs Geo Lawrence is visiting her parents here, Mr and Mrs Noble Wilson, before leaving for the West.

Miss Alice Wilson visited friends in Boothville lately.

Mr Dan McCaul paid a flying visit to the South Line one evening recently.

We are sorry the bit which was lost coming from the party has not been restored to the loser yet.

Regret to hear Miss Ella Wilson intends going back to the West soon.

Miss Bella McDonald intends going to the Queen City soon.

A quiet wedding took place at the home of W. J. Wilson, of this place, on Wednesday, the 21st of March, Rev Mr Roach, of Priceville, performing the ceremony, when his fourth daughter, Martha, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr Walter Broughton, of Swinton Park. The bride was beautifully attired in white and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was assisted by her sister Bertha, of Eugenia, while Mr Geo. Ferguson ably supported the groom. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and practical gifts. They will reside near Shrigley. We join their many friends in wishing them a long and prosperous journey through life.

HAD SWALLOWED A SNAKE—A story comes from Mitchell of a girl who for some months had been in poor health and who believed there was some living creature in her stomach. She often had the extremely disagreeable sensation of feeling something crawling up her throat and would have to take food to send it back. Relief came one day lately. When visiting in the country she drank a glass of cream which did not agree with her, and induced a fit of coughing and vomiting when up came a milk snake 14 inches in length and still alive. Judging from the size of the reptile it must have been in the girl's stomach two years and is supposed to have been swallowed while drinking from a pool of water.

Mr Geo. Klempf of Holstein and Reeve Hastie of Egremont were here last week to get the commission of County Commissioner Schlenk to take one of their indigents, a Mr. George Dale to the poor house at Markdale. The commission was granted and next day Mr Chas. Drumm of Holstein was hired to take him there. The poor fellow put up a vigorous but futile kick at being branded a pauper, however there was no alternative and Charlie set off with his man next morning, making the distance about 28 miles, in three hours. He was in feeble health and upon arrival at his new home was assisted up the flight of stairs, at the top of which he reeled and fell into his assistant's arms. He was quickly conveyed to a couch and Dr Sproule in the absence of the home doctor, hastily summoned. His services were not required. The proud spirit that revolted at being fed from the public board, had fled from the institution and the body of George Dale that had worked its way for 70 years through this cold world, through various and trying vicissitudes of fortune, lay limp and cold on the couch. He was dead, as he no doubt hoped, without being indebted to Grey's House of Refuge for one night's shelter or for one single meal.—Aytou Advance.
