CANADA TO THE FRONT .- W. J Sherring, a Hamilton, Ont., athlete, 27 years old won the 25 mile road race at the Olympic games at Athens, Greece, on the 1st of May. This race is open to the world, and there were about 50 entries. A Swede competition was a close second. The race is a reminder of the Battle of Marathon, 480 years B. C., 2386 years ago. A that famous yictory of the Greeks, a runner started for Athens with the glerious news, and just as he got to the city with his welcome message, he dropped dead. These games were revived in 1896, in which year a Greek won the race which is the great event of the occasion. For every yard of the 25 miles the course was lined with spectators. MRS JOHN A. BLACK.

Very sudden and very sore is the bereavement that has fallen on Mr John A. Black and his three bright little daughters, aged 6, 8 and 10, by the death, in childbirth, of wife and mother, on Sunday evening last at 7 p m. She had been around as usua the night before, and on Sunday morn ing even arged her husband to go to church, which he did, but was sent for during the service. Three physicians strove to save the precious life is presented by such a talented lot of Grant's but death was in the cup and she passed away as above stated.

Deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs. John McKinnon. of Sullivan, dearly beloved as ever daughter was, and adored by sisters and brothers. About 13 years ago she was married to Mr Black and six children have been born unto them, three dying in infancy. Of the deep-seated love and affection between these two only rifle association made application for those intimate could judge. The separation so sudden has cause 1 a wrenching of the heart strings of the devoted busband that is a trial most painful although our columns to-day show that others have been similarly tried : that it is the lot of humanity.

Mrs. Black was a helpmeet in the true sense of the word, a wise and devoted mother, and a warm hearted the crayen qualities of his humiliaris trousers in the kitchen, his collar Queen and Main St on Saddle St., friend.
