Kind Words from our Neighbors

We take the following notices from a few of our exchanges, in reference to the increase in size of the Review from a 48 column to a 56 column paper. Thanks brothers—may your shadow never grow less:

The Durham Review came out bright and smiling last week increasing in size to a 7 column paper. Congratulations Brer. Ramage. More power to your editorial quill and long life and prosperity for your journal!—Hanover Post.

The Durham Review has become a seven-column eight-page paper. It is one of our most welcome exchanges and we are glad to note this evidence of prosperity.—Dundalk Herald.

The Durham Review has been enlarged to a 7-col, 8-page paper. Bro. Ramage has of late largely improved the paper from a news stand point also.—Flesherton Advance.

The Review came out last week as a 7-column quarto instead of a six column as formerly. This additional space will give our esteemed cotem a little more liberty to swing himself, but it will not be long till he finds himself as crowded as ever. The change is an improvement and we offer our congratulations to Mr Ramage on his evidence of prosperity.—Chronicle.

The Durham Review came out last week enlarged to seven column size. We congratulate Bro. Ramage on this evidence of journalistic prosperity.—Mt Forest Confed.

The Durham Review has enlarged to a 7-column eight page paper. The enlargement has greatly improved the appearance of the Review. Brother Ramage deserves credit for his enterprising spirit.—Bruce Times.

Boothville.

As there seems to be no regular correspondent from this burg, we think it is our turn.

Seeding is again a thing of the past and it has gone in under such favorable conditions that we are looking for a bountiful harvest.

Mr Dan McCannel was through seeding first this spring. No grass grows under Dan's feet.

Mr and Mrs Sam McLean visited at Mr Sam McMurdo's last Sunday. Mrs Jas. Gardiner visited her parents one day last week.

Mr Alex Ferguson has returned home from London, where he has been on the police force for some time.

Mrs McQueen has purchased a new Cream Separator from McQueen and Morice. Massey Harris Agents.

Mr Wm. Kinsman has rented his farm to Mr Noble Wilson and intends going west soon.

Our teacher and scholars held last Friday as arbor day. A tidy yard and fancy flower beds testify their industry.

We notice some of the young people of the park are somewhat stuck up since the taffy party.

A couple of young ladies of this vicinity, upon emerging from their room one morning, were horrified to find at their door what they thought to be a tramp, but after they recovered from their fright, they recognized him as some of their own handy work.

We hear the McCormick, Bell and Shell & Co have organized a base ball team at Swinton Park.

Mr Jno McQueen, Massey Harris agent, was in our burg last week on business, and sold a binder and mower on his trip.

Mr. and Mrs Jas Gardiner were in town on Saturday, Mrs. Gardiner being quite unwell. We wish her prompt recovery.

Mr. Herman Haw was in Durham Saturday on business.

Swinton Park.

The weather of this last week has just been what the farmers wanted to make the grain and grass grow. The fields and woods around here all have a beautiful green shade over them now.

Mr W. Heard has been teaming some lumber to Dundalk this last week.

Mr. Alex Ferguson who has been away for sometime is visiting his parents at present.

Mr Hugh McLean and Alex Ferguson were the guests of Mr. Thos. Huston on Sunday last.

We notice a young gentleman taking a flying visit up last Sunday.

Mr. Herb Campbell paid a visit to his parents on Saturday last.

Quite a number of the young folks spent a very enjoyable evening at the home of Mr John McNally's of Swamp College last Friday.

Mr. Fanson of Cedarville attended church at the Park in the afternoon and Salem in the evening last Sunday.

The Rev Mr Matheson preached an able sermon in Salem church on Sunday evening, May 20.

Quite a number from the Park and Boothville intend taking in a picnic at Eugenia Falls on the 24th of May. Particulars later on.

We notice Dick taking a sly trip over to the river. Wonder what has happened him this last while.
