Taylor & Co., Dromore

Priceville.

Intended for last week
Is there anything from Priceville in the Review this week? Not much for we are thankful that nothing serious occurred last week. However, Alex Murchison fell from the scaffold of his barn and received quite a shaking up but we are pleased to hear he is better than first reported. Dr. Dixon is attending to him and we hope to see him around in a short while again.

Rev. St. Matheson and Roach exchanged pulpits last night. Mr. Roach as every hearer knows is a fluent speaker and preached a powerful sermon from the words, "Cast your bread upon the waters" and made the church ring with his melodious voice for about an hour.

The Presbyterian church can say now that they have one of the best choirs to be found in any church. Last night's singing was grand and those beautiful anthems that are sung extra adds greatly to the service. Beautiful voices and beautiful faces are a combination that is greatly admired.

The Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian church on the 3rd of June and on the following Monday night a grand entertainment will be given in the usual manner.

The Rev. Mr. McPhail of Horning's Mills is to preach on Sunday morning and evening and the Rev. Dr. McKeen of Shelburne will be at the entertainment on Monday evening besides lots of other talent.

The Rev. Trov, a young man, preached in the Baptist church last Sabbath and is a fluent speaker and a good singer. He will be there every four weeks as assistant to Rev. Mr. Harburt, the pastor, who has other charges to attend to.

John McArthur is studying dentistry with Dr. Atkinson. Two nice young gentlemen who will extract teeth with ease.

Miss M E McArthur is teaching the rudiments of music to a few young ladies. (Instrumental music.)

We heard Otto Konold's hired man was sent down or up to Owen Sound for misdeeds of some kind.

This Week's Budget.

The 24th May was celebrated here by some going to fish, others washing sheep, some planting potatoes, some taking a drive with gay drivers and their fair ones of the other sex, and some stayed at home attending to other business that might be neglected if everybody was of the same frame of mind. We hope his Royal Majesty, the King will never hear of how we celebrated his good mother's birthday.

Mrs McLean and her sister Miss Christina McPhail are visiting at the old home, S Glenelg, with their father, Mr John McPhail at present.

Some spent the holiday on the 24th beautifying the resting place of the remains of friends in the family plot in the graveyard in this town. It would be a good act if many more would join in and make the whole yard appear respectful looking as it greatly needs attention for head stones are slanting in all directions and graves hardly recognizable in some instances. Underneath the sods are lying those that were once near and dear to our hearts and the least that should be done is to adorn the spot where rests their sacred dust.

Died on Thursday morning, the 24th of May, at his home on the S. Lane, Artemesia, after a brief illness from paralysis, Dugald Currie, native of the Isle of Islay, Argyshire, Scotland at the age of about 80 years.

Mr Currie was one of the pioneers of Durham Road, Glenelg, settling on Lot 50, on the south side of the gravel road, 54 years ago when conveniences were out of question for they were few and far between. Mr Currie was one of the first to introduce the open cylinder threshing machine in this neighborhood 50 years ago, driven by oxen; later he secured one team of horses which was considered to be a great improvement. Along with three yoke of oxen, 45 years ago, the Currie family moved to the South Lane, Artemesia but still the old residence on the Durham Road goes by the title of Currie's. The funeral on Friday was largely attended. He was buried in the family plot in this town, Rev Mr Matheson, of whose church the deceased was a member, preaching the funeral sermon at the house and grave.

The many friends of Neil McPhail, son of Mr Robert McPhail, near Walkerton, will regret to hear of his death a couple of weeks ago from spinal and brain trouble or spinal meningitis. The young man was only 27 years of age and was the only son his father was depending on to run the business in connection with the farm. The young man was a grandson of the late Neil McDonald near Crawford, and has many friends in this place and surrounding country. All extend their sincere sympathy to the bereaved parents in the sore and sad bereavement.

Rob Roy.

Mr and Mrs Donald Graham of Priceville spent Sunday at Mr Dan McCormick's.

Mrs Kennedy is spending some time with her son in Toronto.

A number of the people of this section spent May 24th at the Cement Lake, all reporting a good time.

Let King and Queen Come.

Hansard is to hand containing the speeches made in support of the motion made by the French-Canadian Belcourt that Parliament extend a warm invitation to the King and Queen to visit Canada. There was of course not a dissenting voice but each seemed anxious to surpass the other in saying nice things of our noble King and Queen. We reproduce the remarks of our own H. H. Miller, M. P.:

If I may be excused for saying a word at such a time; I am sure every member of the House will be heartily in accord with the invitation extended to His Majesty the King. We all love and respect him, not only because he is a most kingly king, but because he is a most manly man. I am sure, however, we will not forget that we have in England a Queen, who, as one of the most trusted and beloved friends of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, has been a helpmate indeed to His Majesty. She has proven herself to be a friend indeed and a friend in need to the poor of Britain and to all of the poor who have come within the range of her wide-spread charity. I trust that when His Gracious Majesty may choose to visit this portion of his empire he will not come alone, but will bring with him Her Majesty the Queen, who will be most enthusiastically received as being the most loved and most highly respected woman of the empire.

Mr Robt. Britton visited his brother on Monday.

Mr Grant McComb of Durham spent the 24th at his old home.

A. B. McArthur and R. McMeekin were captains at Jno. Grey's barn raising, the former being the winning captain. Mr John Bell who was injured during the evening is recovering.

Mrs Kerney and son Lorne, Waudby, spent Sunday with the former's sister Mrs Britton.

Mr Thos. Binnie of O. A. C. Guelph is home for vacation.

Mr James Beaton of Vancouver B. C. is visiting at his old home here.

Next Sunday evening a Prayer Meeting will be held at Mr James McGillivray's.

Edge Hill.

The Edge Hill beef ring held their annual meeting one evening last week and now have things in shape for another season. Mr T Turnbull, butcher

The 24th passed off very quietly in this burg. A number of the neighborhood took a picnic out to Cement Lake and spent a most enjoyable time with boat riding and singing.

Rev Mr Farquharson held a prayer meeting in the Grange Hall last Tuesday evening which was very well attended.

The new road grader has been doing some fine work along the Avenue last week. Mr Calder from Burford was up to see that it worked satisfactorily. Mr Jas. Atkinson has the job for the township.

Mr Arch McLeod, Farwell, Mich., visited at Mr D. McFayden's a couple of days last week.

Mr John Allan, of California is expected home this week to visit his aged mother and other friends in this burg.

Rev Thos Farr of Gorrie, visited his aged father here last week, who has been quite ill but is now happily improving nicely.

Hopeville.

Received too late for last week

We have not much news this week as it was a busy time finishing up the spring work.

We have had frost here but hope for no harm as the result.

Mr Joseph McArdle has returned home, after four weeks stay in north Toronto, where he went to recuperate his health. He is not yet well, but improved and thinks he will be bright in a short time. He said he was going to fit up his office in first class style with the latest conveyancing blanks and all forms, which he will be able to procure from the Law Society and the Parliament, and be in it about three days in a week.

This week's budget.

We have had some rain showers which have done good, and wind storms which caused damage. One of the wind storms last week visited the farm of Thomas Willshire about 4 miles east of here and a large frame barn that he had raised up and sitting high on a timber that he might put a stone wall under it for a stable, was blown over. We are told that all the timber is broken up—a big loss.

The next night a thunder storm struck another barn of his on the next lot and destroyed considerable roof.

Mr J. H. Scott has moved the Post Office into a vacant shop of W. Burnett's formerly used as a shoe shop.

Mr Wm Dezell is busy finishing his new house. What will be the next move, William?
