A Cannington despatch: Last night the barns of John Purvis were discovered to the on fire. The buildings were situated on concession 9, Brock, near Cannington. The neighbors and fami'y, succeeded in saving some of the implements, but the binder and 400 bushels of grain, a number of pigs and a fine young driving horse were burned.

Mr. Purvis, who had been acting strangely for some days, was missed and was not discovered until morning, when his dead body was found in the orchard, Dr. Bingham, of Cannington, Coroner, was summoned, and isued a warrant for an inquest, and, after taking the evidence of H. Baldwin, druggist, who sold the deceased twelve grains of strychnine for the alleged purpose of poisoning rats on Wednesday, also the evidence of Dr. Blanchard, of Sunderland, that death was caused by a dose of poison, the jury ound the decrased had come to his death by his own hand after firing the barn, while suffering from temporary insanity. The insurance is small.

The second volunteer party was successful. The fans were reversed and the smoke forced back out of No. 6 incline. In the slopes, braces were made of canvas and water was let in. The repcuers were let down slowly in cars. They first found the unconscious forms of six of the first rescue party which were hurried to the surface. All were revived but Carey and Bracey.

It is believed that the injured will entirely recover. Farther down the incline six other bodies were found, all beyond hope of restoration to consciousness. Several of the second rescue partyamong them pit boss Haggerty, were overcome during the day, but were restored and Haggerty returned to the work of rescue. It is believed that all bodies have been saved from the mine. The work of fighting the firing is now be-
