eek.

Markets.

moted at 10 3-4c rigerator beef. ; sheep, dressed.

Vheat. bern, 87 1-2c sel-2 northern, sel-

Marketa 901 89 8512 -80 S71 8436 8436 8636 8334 8234 8334 8534 8376 83 804 81 8234

Harket.

ay were moderles of 200 bushper bushel, Oats. elling at 4232 to d at 72e a bush. ith sales of 25 on for timothy, I. Straw steady, a ton. nged, with light , and heavy at

ack. was not as prime lots, of d readily at were paid on onday. from $4.75 toobtained for 275 lbs each. nd two loads sett at $5.20 round $5 per om $3.75 to picked lots

t., but there ads of good wt: medium 84 to 84.25; grass cows, Short-keeps_

84.75; good 84 to $4.25; at $3.90 to $3.60; medmmon stockthese rangone or two at $50.

veal calves

One extra k fed, sold n was light t ewes sold 83.50 to 86 lity at $6.-

ged at $7 .ts and fats.

rate reducs to be exar, but conrong that to assume This attie industrial and winter precedented ducers anmmer shutor curtailby repairs. progress nite reducccept in tuations in s usual at vement of n increase eported for he corresreign comlast week a exports mports as it a year

SECURI-STED.

nnks, said 0,000, were erday, by acting on he Canadunks and ends of the Chiler indictgate $120,m Chicago They re-

hort time

IT IS PURE!

This is the paramount feature of

CEYLON GREEN TEA

Free from dust, dirt and all foreign substances. Lead Packets only-40c, 50c and 60c per lb. AT ALL GROCERS. HIGHEST AWARD, ST. LOUIS, 1904.

Won at Last

like my liberty." "And, Mona, my lassie, your old unces's you. Still, he is not an enlivening comheart is set on seeing you a happy wife." panion."

He opened his mouth to reply, but some wave of thought arrested his had gone." evening, and Mona knew he was not well there's been more wrong with you than to give up the increasing independence life ran its course. Parliament assem- your rejection of that poor fellow." bled. New players and old favorites "Is that not a sufficient catalogue, after a day of continuous teachingenchanted the public. Fresh scandals Deb? What more do you want?" and often irritated and discouraged by care- Dr. Williams' Pink Pills the Best and novelties of toilets, enlivened the Mona sat down to work, but really to less, stupid pupils-but her day's trou pages of society papers. Another batch think of little girls were promoted from the Mme. Debrisay's and Mona's hands were ever done before. Did he love her with

Lady Finistoun's name at drawingroom, dinner, ball, and garden party frequently met Mona's eye as she looked through the papers for the articles most suited for Uncle Sandy's consumption. Yet she made no sign. Kind and pleasant though she was when face to face with her friend, the rush of the season, calculating, cynical men of the world, has the number of attractive engagements, an indurating effect. The emotions and crowded out those who were not constantly with her, from Evelyn's mind. Se did write once, begging Mona to come and have a cup of tea with her at an hour when she could not meet any one, but Mona thought it wiser not

"If you stay late in London, I will happy, had her wounds not been so sore come when the tide of gaiety is ebbing. and recent that they could not endure You would hardly have time to speak to the touch of a new love. She never reme while it is the fleed," she wrote in Debrisay managed to make this invita- him so much pain. The recollection, too, best tackle that first." tion, and the reply, known to Mr. Craig, of his aspect when she had accidentally who seemed a good deal impressed by it. seen him in the street, haunted her. east winds prevailing, and Uncle Sandy for evil? grew discontented with his food, restless at night, feverish by day, dissatis-

"I am no sae sure that Sir Andrew his sitting room before she took off her Coleman gives me that attention he hat. ought, 'sidering a' the guineas he has had | She found him at his evening meal- ily avoiding his niece's eyes at the same from me! Mr. Maclean" (this was the a chop and some dry toast-while Mme. time. minister) "advises me to try that man Debrisay was busy over a cup of cocoa, in Saville Row, Dr. Carmichael; they which she was making with the help of say he is wonderful for liver and diges- a kettle and spirit-lamp.

tion, and I am regular out of sorts." "Well, I would, Mr. Craig," said Mme. Debrisay, to whom Uncle Sandy con- in a bad way. He went so far as to up your mind to wed him? He's awfu' fided his doubts and intentions; "you say that medicine could do me varra fond of you, and ye seemed good friends have not been looking at all well-not little good. He just altered my diet a together. Why canna you mak' it up?"

here? and last year I felt a new man! Lon I will not go, unless you come with fied." How is a puir frail body like me to me, Mona." go wandering about by my ain sel'? "My dear uncle, this is very serious. 'no'?" Why, the curse wad be worse than the Where are you to go?"

Still, my dear sir, it is well worth drinking toun ea'd Conter-x-ville, away while to face some difficulties rather in France. Madame there seems to know than not recover your precious health." about it, as she does about most things." "I know it-I know it," he growled, Mond looked at her. impatiently; "and I am just thinking

"Oh, thank'ee, thank'ee; I'll just wait France. Monsieur Le Duc de Monceau till my niece comes in." his visit to a new doctor, and at length | the cure." expressed a wish that Mme. Debrisay should accompany him to the doctor's house, though he did not wish her to be she cried. "I should have offered to go with you, but seeing you are a particu-"Intrude! Why, no, of course you We will ascertain the rail fares.

nephew, but it is not easy for him to "Do not think of it, my dear sir. I asked Uncle Sandy, looking wistfully at am, you know, quite an experienced Mona, "I canna go without you!" nurse, and when Dr. Carmichael makes "If I can go I will, uncle; but I must an appointment, I will arrange to go hear a little more."

with you. You are not really fit to go Sandy was amiable enough; but, as is varra indifferent." not uncommon, when the immediate "He has just devoured a rackful!"

next day Uncle Sandy was as queruthat's just nervous fancies. I doubt his how much pleasanter it would be to stay you to hope for its completion." dying before he is a hundred, he is so and work, and be free with Mme. Debri-

'It is a serious matter to take anyone, "I think he cares a good deal about for a husband," she said, coloring. "I himself, but he is affectionate, too. He is fond of me; he begins to cling to me, "Liberty is no good for women," he I am almost sorry to say, for in some returned, for Uncle Sandy had by no measure it binds me to him. One can and Mona fancied his tone was rather company' or not, it will all come to the and similar metals, clothing and other quently take jewels and other valuables means a high estimation of the fair sex. not desert a creature that depends on significant.

Thank you, uncle, I should like to "All I hope is he will not prove an un- to him as soon as she returned from her please you, but we must be sure of the grateful old hunks after you have sac- work, which happened to terminate earlrificed your youth to him."

words, and he closed it again. He was, "Ah! what nonsense you talk! Gone, to Kenneth would add to her difficul-Meanwhile the usual round of London er, or the loss of your fortune, or even and companion of so uncertain a person > the same honest, enduring love that the young Highlander bore to his Mary? Hardly. Kenneth and Mary had grown up together, and the power of association was interwoven with the warmth of early passion. Then a simple life of duty and enforced self-denial deepens the channels of the heart, while an existence of mere pleasure, of constant friction with affections spread thinly in a shallow stream over a stony surface, through which no fertilizing drops can percolate to the hollow beneath. Still, the impression remained with her that there were possibilities of true tenderness in Waring, which might have made her life gretted having broken with him, but she grieved to thing that from a wish to pro-By some slip in conversation, Mme. vide for her grandmother she had caused May set in with unusual warmth, dry Could her refusal have influenced him what nervously,

The day that Uncle Sandy went to confied with his liver, and suspicious of his sult the well-known Dr. Carmichael, good, and-and benefit; and so I'll just Mona was rather late, and went up to speak my mind."

"To a queer, out-of-the-way water-

"Yes, dear," cried madame, briskly, as to write and ask for an appointment, cup to the invalid. "The waters are ad-"I am sure, Mr. Craig, my poor pen liver, and indigestion, and all sorts of Mr. Craig was quite nervous about both derived the greatest benefit from "And whereabouts is it?" "Oh, on the German side; in the Department of the Vosges, not very far from Nancy."

"Why did you not say so at once?" This an awiu' lang journey," groaned "Not more than a journey to any other health resort, my dear Mr. Craig. would not. I did think of taking my are not going away all in a minute. We have time enough to look about us."

"It's just awfu' to be alone in this wicked world, and neither chick nor child "You are verra good. I shall be much to fight for you. You ought to think on that, Mona; and get me a little mair sense of obligation wears off, the polite- whispered Mme. Debrisay; "one round ness it engenders also disappears, and more is as much as ought to have."

west day Uncle Sandy was as queta such as ever.

"I believe his digestion is all wrong.

"I believe his digestion is all wrong."

"I believe his digestion is all wrong.

"I believe his digestion is all wrong."

"I believe his digestion is all wrong.

"I believe his digestion is all wrong."

"I believe his digestion is all wrong.

"I believe his digestion is all wrong."

"I believe his digestion is all w poor man, and his eyes are like boiled though she well knew that she would rooseberries, but there is nothing else ned by accompanying him. How could she he matter with him. He is shaky on refuse the poor old man, who seemed to his legs, certainly, though I rather think look to her for held and comfort? Yet his little span of life? It I thought you were serious, I would be quite angry with you."

"I would not do the poor soul the smallest harm, God knows; but he is smallest harm, God knows; but he is wery trying, and I don't think he cares very trying, and I don't think he cares should be done.

Uncle Sandy had finished it, he said he could have a little sleep if he were left quiet, and would make up his mind what he would do next day.

"I am sure I canna tell." He paused and thought for a moment, a change passing over his face. "Yes, but I did wom though," he said. "I tried hard to keep what though what the growth of human will, uncle?"

Mona avowed her reluctance, yet made | frae loving my old master's daughter, up her mind to accompany her uncle. and I could not. Eh! I had a sair heart "I am young, you see, Deb; and after in those days. I daured na speak, for a few months' absence, I might pick up she was a rich heiress, and I but a puir

my pupils again." lad. Yet I think—I always thought she "No doubt you could, dear," cried Mme | cast a kindly look upon me. However, Debrisay; "anyway, I will represent there came a grand gentleman from Engthings to him in a proper light. If he land, and they married her to him. She drags you away from your employment, did not live long after. Maybe she'd he ought to make a settlement upon you. have had a longer and a happier life if What I am afraid of is that he will spoil she had been my wife, and lived in her your prospects, and leave you in the ain country." lurch. I can't get over the notion that | Mona listened with a curious mixture

"Pray do not try to drive a bargain self-conceit that made him quite sure about me, Deb! I must do the best I he had but to ask to be accepted struck ing the working of pawnshops and one really sinister feature of the whole ae of themselves!"

gloomy silence; and when Kenneth Mac- our own devices." his usual custom, no message was sent a fancy for any other mon, or are you tablished in 1834, under the control of large profit. The story is told of a alister came in the evening, contrary to to request the ladies to come and make | pledged to any other?" tea for him. Kenneth remained till Mr. Craig's bed-time, and only looked in on hesitatingly. Mme. Debrisay and Mona for a few moments. He said his uncle was much deneth himself seemed preoccupied, and by good company to each other; but I must, one-half up to two-thirds of their esti- satisfactory has yet been devised. Peono means in good spirits. He said he I must, and I canna go without you." | mated value upon jewels, precious | ple in good circumstances, who are leavwould be up again in an evening or two,

The next day Uncle Sandy had brisked up again. He begged Mona to come lier on that day than on any other.

"My youth, Deb? I feel as if my youth | She guessed what that invitation meant, and only hoped that no allusion however, cross and contradictory all the only to come back again. My dear child, I ties. Yet she felt extremely reluctant the death of your poor dear grandmoth- of her present position-to be the nurse as her uncle. True, she was often weary bles ended with the last lesson, and the Since Kenneth's confession, she had quiet of their home-like lodgings and the nursery to the school room, and both thought more of Waring than she had sympathy of her devoted protectress awaited her.

However, the old man sorely needed her help, and she would not refuse it. As soon as she had changed her dress, for the day was wet and stormy, she went upstairs, and found her uncle seated near the fire, the table drawn up beside his chair, and on it a map, a guidebook, a "Continental Bradshaw," and several scraps of ruled paper covered "Come awa'! come awa'!" he cried his brow clearing, "I'm wearyin' to talk to you. My puir head is just dazed with trying to understand whaur I'm going, and what it will cost me!" "As to where you are going, uncle, may help you to find out; but as to the ost, you must ask Madame Debrisay; she knows all about French railways."

"And when will she be in ?" "Not till six, or half past." "Aweel, I have something quite pri vate to sey to your own self, and I'd He stopped abruptly, and began gather up the papers and books some-"I am all attention, uncle." "It's a delicate matter to speak about but I feel bound to do it, for your ain

This with some hesitation, ending with sudden assumption of resolution, steadments that afflict most growing girls

"Certainly, Uncle Sandy." "There's that lad, Kenneth," he went on, in his thin, high-pitched, querulous Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, "Well, uncle, what did the doctor say?" voice; "a fine young man, steady and "Not much. He evidently thinks I am | weel-disposed; what for canna you mak'

a bit like yourself of late. I have felt bit. I am not to touch tea or coffee, "I thought," returned Mona, gravely rather uneasy about you. Perhaps a only a wee drap whisky in cold water; and calmly, though she felt that the tug my ears are on the alert, I glance right of an instructive and suggestive characters. In the demand this spring considerably new doctor may observe something that and he has ordered me to a foreign place of war had come, "I thought I told Ken- and left, I look over my shoulder. Where has escaped the other. May be change I never heard tell of before. That's the neth that though I liked and valued him, did I learn this habit? May it not be worst. If I'm to dee, let me have one of air might do you good."

Worst. If I'm to dee, let me have one of my ain to close my eyes. Out of Lonfection. He ought to have been satisfaction. He memory disk giving of fits record?

"First or last, my dear uncle, my ans-

"And what hinders you frae liking him is a tightening of the lips, the teeth district? for your husband ?" "Who can tell, uncle? perhaps liking him too well in another way.

"Ah! but I am sorry for the puir lad. He is varra fond o' ve." "Well, yes, I think he likes me, but I do not think he would ever have asked It was to please, you, uncle."

"Ah, ha! Is it a bit jearousy? Don't you think he loves you weel enough?" earnestly. "I am just in a dificulty. Ye found too strong for him, so strong that to what extent? see, I always promised to look after Ken- his nose rejected it at once.-Nineteenth 6. About how many breeding sows were neth before I knew I should ever see my | Century. poor brother's girlie. Aweel, I'd like to leave my bit o' money to both o' you, and ve see, if you were wed, it would be keepit together." "Dear uncle," said Mona, smiling, 'do not let that trouble you. Leave everymoney much more than women, and I dren, who have been made well and are 8. How will the delivery of hogs be-"And will you come with me, dearie?" am young. I think I can earn my own kept well by the use of Baby's Own tween no wand September 1st compare am young. I think I can earn my own bread with Madame Debrisay's help; so Tablets. In many homes parents say with that for market. (a) Summer feeding? Summer feeding is placed at $4.51 per being buried alive, but we were not predo not let any thought of me interfere this medicine saved a precious little ing; (b) Winter feeding? with Kenenth. I have made up my mind life. Dr. A. Danais, L. D. S., Riviere du with Kenenth. I have made up my mind the. Dr. A. Danais, E. D. S., Riviere du to be your escort to Centrexeville, and I Loup, Que., says: "At the age of five the popular breed. In 33 out of the 42 counfigures given are the result of actual extension of Gloucester. England at a months we thought our little girl dving."

"Eh, that will never be, my lassie-- we gave her Baby's Own Tablets, and for first place. Berkshires come next in never! But you have disappointed me; only those who have seen her can realize ter Whites, in the order named. Duroc For the remainder of the day Uncle toast, like a good lassie—my appetite is only I don't give up hope yet. I have what a change this medicine has Jerseys and Poland Chinas receive but just set my heart on a match between wrought in our child. She is now about little mention outside of the counties of you and Kenneth. Eh! we'd a' be happy eighteen months old, eats well, sleeps and Kent.

at Craigdarroch; he'd look to the lands well, and is a lively, laughing child, and Crosses—While many crosses are used, and the beasties, and you would mind weighs 37 pounds. We always keep the the most popular is that between the Mona waited downstairs till the toast the hoose and watch your puir auld Tablets in the house now, for we know Yorkshire and the Berkshire. In the would be in the hands o' my ain kin." box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house than formerly in crossing, while in the

"I dinna like unreasonable contradic- by mail at 25 cents a box by writing entirely in twenty-five per cent. of the most beautiful and largest tigers are under ground while breath is in their tion, and I will not put up with it," said the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock- counties, while grade sires are used to trapped, there is a government bounty bodies, and these statistics will not ten "Why, Deb, you would not cut short When she carried back the toast, and Uncle Sandy, angrily. "What for will ville, Ont.

Proof of Good Judgment. (Somerville, Mass., Journal.) Hicks-Your wife is a mighty sens passing over his face. "Yes, but I did woman, isn't she? though," he said. "I tried hard to keep Wicks-Sure! S Wicks-Sure! She married me.

Royal Pawnshop in Berlin.

All Profits Are Devoted to Charitable Purposes.

(New York Times.)

lad. Yet I think-I always thought she keen hardness of his eyes.

come with me, anyhow?"

(To be continued.)

Tonic for Summer.

cure all blood and nerve diseases like anaemia, nervous exhaustion, headalgia, rheumatism and the special ail-and women of mature years. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from the Ancestral Memory.

As I walk along a dark lonely road,

KEEP CHILDREN WELL.

use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They port of municipal hospitals.

The Bureau of Manufacturers of the er pawnbroker is allowed to exist or do young Masalister will come in for every- of sympathy and amusement. There was Department of Commerce and Labor business within the limits of the munitrue pathos in his voice; yet the evident has obtained from several leading cipality. But there is a class of outcan. If poor Uncle Sandy never were to her as too comical when she gazed at his their regulation in those cities. A strict system. These are the brokers or dealleave me a sou, I could not refuse him insignificant, shrunken figure, his short, supervision is maintained by the state ers in pawn tickets, who work more or my company or my help. 'Fais ce que shrewd face, and contemptuously upturn- or municipalities, and in some instances less secretly. It frequently happens ed nose. Had he ever been a man on the state itself maintains pawnships. | that a person who has pawned an arti-"Oh, it's all very fine to do what you whom a lady might have loved to look? Consul General A. M. Thackera, of cle wants more money than he has been ought, come what may! but Heaven Still there was at times a kindly expres. Berlin, in speaking of the pawnbrok- able to obtain at the municipal pawn-> parts of Germany, says: "Aweel, then, I'll just posses my soul interest and deducting all costs of ad- at one time to redeem it.

Uncle Sandy kept silence for a moment great space is required. or two ,and his brow contracted; but Persons who want to borrow money secure their safekeeping with little exthere was something in Mona's indescrib- from the pawnshops have to establish pense. "Weel, weel,' he said at length; "you'll amount loaned, the excess is returned date it has exercised its functions withto the borrower. The rate of inter- out interruption. The legal rate of ined city, state, or government bonds, 6 administration to apply for authorizaper cent. interest is charged.

The surplus in 1888 as $14,764, in per annum for loans less than 5f.

except Dr. Williams' Pink Pills-because strictly. In none of the cities in Ger- is obligatory that one of the three ap they actually make new blood, and thus many can the public pawn institutions praisers must be an expert gold and si strengthen every organ and every tis- compete with the private pawnbroker, ver smith. sue in the body. Every dose fills you notwithstanding that the public insti- Vice-Consul-General Mueller, of with new strength, new energy, new life. tutions, on account of their official Petersburg, reports that there are six Purgative pills only weaken you more. character, afford greater security. A institutions loaning money on chattels Common tonics only stimulate for the private pawnbroker may charge inter- at a rate of interest stipulated by moment. But Dr. Williams' Pink Pil's est of 2 per cent. per month.

actually make new blood, and nothing | Consul-General Mason, of Paris, ally I began using Dr. Williams' Pink all to 8 per cent. on jewellery, articles about $1,000,000.

always takes care of those who take sion about his mouth which belied the ers of that city, and also of other shop, which does not exceed one-third "You have not acted on that prin- | "Yes, uncle,' she said, softly, "it must There are no pawnshops under the with this pawn ticket to the broker, who ciple yourself, Deb; neither can I. Just have been a trying time. That useless management of the municipal authori- lends him 20 per cent, of the face value let me go, and leave the morrow to take struggle ought to teach you how hard it ties in Berlin, but there is a royal of the ticket, but at an extortionate inand are strictly regulated by law. The when due the broker redeems the arti-'Answer me one question. Have you Rayol Prussion pawn office was es- cle, which he sells and thereby reaps a the Royal Bank. All profits from wedding dress on which interest was "Neither, uncle; I can assure you un- the business, or any surplus which re- paid for fifty years by a poor woman mains after charging a moderate rate of who could never command enough money with patience; but it's bad taking you ministration, are devoted to charitable | Various measures have been propos pressed, and in a very bad temper. Ken- awa', just when you and the lad are purposes. The institution lends from ed to counteract this evil, but nothing 'Never mind, uncle; whether we 'keep stones, gold, silver, copper, brass, tin, ing the city for the summer, not infreobjects for the storage of which no to the Monte de Piete, or pawnshop, borrow a nominal sum on them, and thus able superiority-her kindly, gentle, but their identity. If the pledge is not Consul-General Roosevelt, of Brus- ly a larger percentage of the people seek distinct independence—that he dared not redeemed it is sold, and if any greater sels, says that the Brussels Monte de to earn their living as officials. New amount is obtained for it than the Piete was established in 1810, since which York city has 51,614 officials on her payest is 1 per cent. per month, or 12 per terest charged on loans is 6 per cent. 547.62 in salaries. Last year the pay cent. per annum. Upon easily negotiat- per annum. It is the intention of the roll was only about $60,000,000, and in tion to reduce this rate to 2 per cent.

1889 it fell to $10,765, and in 1900, there The administration of the pawnshop $91,870,796 must be raised by taxation. was a loss of $2,860. The profits in 1904 system in Brussels is somewhat similar to that in Paris . During the year 1905, There are 174 private pawnshops in the establishment loaned on 312,794 the city for the year will be $132,968,368 Berlin, so much more cenveniently pledges was $1,258,173. The net profit and $83,000,000 will probably be expend-The long hot summer thins the blood, situated that they take business away for the eyar was $6,401. The Brussels ed for new works. Pay as you go is and leaves you weary, worn and wretch- from the royal office. These private pawnshop is under the management of ed. Nothing can cure that summer fag establishments are regulated very three appraisers and other officers. It their by-laws, as follows: (1) The State Loan Office, (controlbut good, pure rich red blood can brace says that the municipal pawnshop led by the Central Government). The you to stand the summer. That is why system is a distinct bureau of the rate of interest is 6 per cent, per anyou should take Dr. Williams' Pink Municipal Government. There is a num. Only gold, silver, precious stones, Pills now. Mr. W. J. Norfolk, White main office and twenty-one branch of- and valuables are accepted here. Such Horse, Yukon Territory, says: "I am offices. It is organized and administered articles are also taken for safekeeping thirty-nine years of age and have been to fulfil a distinctly philanthropic pur- at a low rate of interest for storage an athlete who scarcely knew the mean- pose. In 1904, 1,449,168 loans on jewel- and insurnace. (2) Society for pawning of illness. Last year, however, my lery, clothing, bicycles, etc., were made ing chattels. (3) St. Petersburg Comhealth gave way. I became nervous, did of the average amount of $6.46 each and pany, for storage and pawning chattels, not sleep well and grew as weak as a the total sum loaned was $9,361,625. Be- and goods. (4) St. Petersburg City kitten. It seemed as though I was sides these there were made during the Loan Office. (5) St. Petersburg Pricompletely worn out. I tried several so- same year 3,610 loans of $200 or more vate Loan Office . (6) St. Petersburg called tonics, but it was only a waste of each, the total sum of which was $1,709, Municipal Loan Office, organized money, for they did me no good. Fin- 832. The rates of interest amounted in 1898. Paid-in capital, 2,000,000 rubles-

Pills, and they put me on my feet again, of clothing, household equipments, etc., In 1904 the loans aggregated $1.753. Every weak and easily tired man and other securities. In 1904 the profit above Goods unclaimed were sold at public woman will find new health, new expenses amounted to $99,417, which auction. The net profit on the traninterest charged is 6 per cent.

I The Swine Industry i of Ontario.

++++++++++++++++++++ A bulletin upon this subject has been

The following questions were sent to several thousand carefully selected cor- siderable caution, however, is observed importer whose goods they decided come respondents, and from the replies re-My savage ancestor learned by long ceived, a report is given in detail by "And wha wad tak' a lassie's first | years of experience to be specially on his | counties, together with a summary for guard in a lonely place, and in the dark, the Province as a whole: When my indignation is thoroughly 1. What breeds, grades or crosses of roused, I find my hands cience, there hogs appear to be most popular in your are more plainly visible, and the whole | 2. Has there been any general tendency attitude is suggestive of making a to change from one breed or type or hog spring. Here is a trait of early man, to another during the last two or tree who gathered himself together and then | years?

sprang upon his enemy to rend him with 3. If there has been any change in the tooth and claw. I have often noticed kind of kogs fed, please describe the nathat when people use the word "offen- ture of the change! sive" it is accompanied by a quiver of 4. Are grade sires used in your disthe nostrils and an involuntary move- trict?

5. What is the general feeling among ment of the nose. The imagination is 'Dinna say it!" cried Uncle Sandy, cestor with a prejudice for raw meat disposition to increase their output and exceed the supply.

> tion in 1904? How many in 1905? How many this season? 7. What is the average number of pigs Canada there are bright, thriving chil- been greater than usual? Breeds-The Yorkshire is the most rangement. I wish I could encourage ments of children and are absolutely the use of the Yorkshire.

in a few sections grade sires are still used almost entirely. The district taking in the northwestern peninsula will be found to be freer from the use of grade sires than any other section of the gr aches and backaches, indigestion, neurare just as favorable. Grade sires appear to be in most use in the more eastern Production - The general tendency alism may soon develop into civil war. throughout the Province is to increase production slightly. In many of the eastern counties it has been the custom for farmers to depend upon breeders in prepared by the Ontario Department of their locality for their supply of young cards, and a man named J. H. Superior Agriculture, which contains information pigs for feeding, and it has been noted has been convicted of importing improexceeds the supply, the breeders who per cards. It seems that the act exusually sell their pigs retaining them on account of the good prices for hogs. Con- toms officials to impose a fine on any among many individual breeders, and feeders, not to go into the business too extensively, for fear that over-produc- Superior was advised by a lawyer to tion might bring prices down to an un- pay the fine and secure secreey, but he

Breeding Sows-The number of breeding sows was decreased considerably in 1905 over 1904, while 1906 shows an in- to pay for counsel to represent him 1905 and 1904. Vomparing 1906 with 1905, thirty-five counties report in creases, while only two counties report the number of sows. Reports indicate | been abuses of laws administered in se that the eastern part of the Province is crecy by men who are not in any sense relatively increasing production much judicially minded or free from influences still haunted by that piece of very of- farmers in your section as to the heg ern Ontario. In all parts of the Province "No, uncle, I would never accept him." fensive carrion which my primitive an- production this year? Do they show a the demand for brood sows appears to does not appear to be any reason why kept by the average farmer of your secwill have its effect upon the fall deliv- sold in many places that are indecent eries. The average number of pigs in |-certainly many are coarse and unedispring litters reaching the weaning age fying-; but it is not necessary to their to reach weaning age in spring litters is estimated as 7.61, as compared with a In thousands of homes throughout this year? Has the percentage of loss normal litter of 7.77 pigs at wearing

Cost of Feeding-The average cost of summer feeding is placed at $4.51 per cwt. In very few cases, however, do correspondents state definitely that the favor, followed by Tamworths and Ches- is considerably below the figures already mentioned. A number of correspondroots the cost of feeding is no greater ling. Here they are: in winter than in summer.

Prices of Wild Animals.

A good Nubian lion is worth $1,000 a "Yes, it would be a very pleasant ar- always. They cure all the minor ail- eastern half the trend is more toward Senegal specimen little more than half Embalmed alive this sum. A fine tiger is also worth Cremated alive safe. Sold by medicine dealers or sent Sires-Pure-bred sires are used almost about $1,000. In Bengal, where the a limited extent in about twenty per paid on each, for the annual mortality to reassure them. The question arises cent., and to a still greater extent in in India through tigers and snakes fifty-five per cent. of the counties; while | chiefly cobras - is something appalling. | are we in too great a hurry to bury the

Dr. Osler has passed the 40-year mark, but in spite of his alleged theory we fancy many Canadians would regard him as a very suitable person for the Presidency of the University of Toronto. And he would be more at home in Toronto

The canned beef scandal is not only hurting the trade of the Chicago packers, but grocers and all those who dea! in such articles are heavy losers by it. is to govern 'unruly wills and affections,' pawnshop office and numerous private terest from 3 per cent to 7 per cent per ferer to the extent that her daily bill-of-The day following Mr. Craig spent in and to leave Kenneth and me to follow pawnbrokers, who have to be licensed month. If this interest is not paid fare is just so much the more limited

Patrick, the New York lawyer-murderer, who has just been granted a new trial after several elaborate previous ones, seems likely to die of old age before his case is disposed of by the courts. That is the sort of thing that undermines respect for the administration of justice, and makes a travesty of the pro-

The cost of governing the great cities is growing at an alarming rate, and yearroll and they receive annually $64,264,-1904 something less than $57,000,000. The city debt amounts to $457,832,745.03, and Nevertheless, the borrowing capacity of

The horrible massacres of Jews at Bialystok as told in the press despatches have all the appearance of being planned and carried out by the Russian officials, perhaps in the hope of creating a diversion, and making it easier for the bureaucracy to effect its designs. The prospects now are for a campaign of terror, and who could blame the longpersecuted Jews if they lent their aid against those who have so inhumanly outraged their rights? It is believed that the Czar will early attemp to dissolve the Douma by force. Such an action will be equivalent to a declaration of war against the newly granted liberties of the subject, and will not fail to cause a revolutionary crisis. Again we shall have an appeal to the bomb and and gave me new health and strength." and 6 1-4 per cent. on stock, bonds, and 550, of which sum $1,569,065 was repaid the dagger. Goremykin's life will not be worth many days' purchase, if the strength and new energy through a fair was turned over to the fund for the sup- sactions of 1904 was about $37,251. The issue is once squared, and the sanctity of Czardom may not be respected. The army is said to be disaffected, and if any considerable number of the military were to side with the people a real revolution might not be far off. The struggle between autocracy and constitution-

In Montreal a campaign is being waged against indecent picture posttends the star-chamber power of the cuswithin the condemnation of the law. refused "on principle," and carried the matter to the courts, although unable that rarely operate in open court. There a custom's officer should be left to deal Litters-The percentage of loss of with such cases: the courts exist for young pigs is greater than usual in a that work. Perhaps there are post cards elimination that one should travesty our system of justice. hope you will return so well as to be months we thought our little girl dying. To others it is a tie with some other breed it is almost invariably noticed that the Nothing we did for her helped her until for first place. Borkshires come next in it is almost invariably noticed that the | the London Society for the Prevention cost of both summer and winter feeding of Premature Burial. We do not know ents, especially in western Ontario, time covered by his figures, but under state that with comfortable quarters and | any circumstances they are rather start-

Narrow escapes from burial alive 219 Dissected alive 10

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO