LOCAL OPTION QUASHED.-Judge Mabee last week rendered a decision overturning the local option law in Owen Sound for a number of reasons chiefly irregularities in the manner of its submission. The hotel people hoisted flags or rejoicing, there was handshaking by the sympathizers. and a hurried meeting of the council, which, by 7 to 1 decided to appeal the decision and sent a deputation to interview the minister at Toronto. Meanwhile Prov. Secretary Hanna has decided that no licenses are to be issued while the appeal is pending and that will be till Sept. next. The temperance people are confident of winning out in the end. It wasn't a Missouri editor but a printer's devil who was going through his first experience on "making up" forms. The paper was late and the boy got the galleys mixed. The first part of the obituary notice of a precocious citizen had been dumped in the forms, and the next handful of type came off the galley, describing a recent fire. It read like this: "The pall bearers lowered the body to the only $6 per month, another having one between Protestants and Catholics grave and it was consigned to the 9 rooms, furnace, bathroom, &c., $9 for in England with 95 per cent of the flames there were few if any regrets per month.
