ently Got a

9. - Special.) ness on the Chicago, prefeatherweight. a knoekout in he moonlight Detroit River velanders robtory by agreeof the battle. bbling around ind his nerve and declare a their feet at ty-fifth round, en to a finish, ger of 8500 g and the loser eklin held his to the 13th. dy weakened s head almost the Windsor ated clinching round Sprackand to be car-

was as fresh er C. Kelly, of

DENT.

DUIRY INTO

mited From London and ev into the wers of the mins accepted S. The ofid not know mquiry into v. The pro-An eve-witbe called to that he will be rails the to the right. In the opins to indicate either an been proved was greater rounding the illy that the run 115 miles th to London tioned about ineers, said: have done it to scores of

IAY 25. Days Later,

ERIE, PA.,

on Just Reves Running ward Offered. Liebel, sen.,

ear, and the received by ity on May his mind ben lost. A Gallagher a Liebel in getner with up for any o the diswas in no

EAT LENI-OWN.

ed Hearts, to Jail for begged and arrested in c ereating a ellor of the eir boil tothem to heir good mult to un-

mi. They

e Boys.

automobiles of the heart its. Healthy these fine

3 Strong Points of

CEYLON GREEN TEA Unequalled Purity-Strength-Flavor Lead packets only. 40c, 50c and 60c per lb. At all grocers.

Won at Last

"I expect some very distinguished compatriots of yours," resumed M. le Direc- nantly. teur; "the Lord Fitzallan and a companion arrive to-morrow, and Sir William to stay at his mother's house. She was 'Arry-I think he has been lord mayor, very kind to me." a man of high position-he and miladi, "Ay, till you began to earn your own his wife, they come to-morrow. It is living, those are aye worthless folk, well that the tennis lawn looks bright; Stop the waiter, will ye? I cannot eat you energetic English, you love games to this fish; it has seen a deal of the warld

"Fitzallan,' repeated Mr. Craig. "I The offending fish removed, Uncle know!—he is my tenant; he has had my Sandy "glowered," as he would have said etc. That is, if she does not already

'Indeed!" said both hearers. And from that moment Uncle Sandy in the adjoining wood was at hand, so | a good deal of occupation. he beckoned her to him, not a little de- | Everard paid steady attention to his lighted to exercise overtly a father's dinner. Once when about to drink a glass an umbrella, beside his niece; "the direc- gave the shortest possible replies. tor has been telling me there are some grand folk coming to-morrow; then you dy, leaning heavily on the table and his attack. will see how little time and attention walking stick, got on his feet, and taking sieur Delorme if their presence makes termed the Park, where Mona read to agine your performance of duty not have not only restored my health, but you think every one is an angel that also left his seat and came across to What right have you to say that," speaks a kind word. When my leddy intercept their retreat. mayoress arrives, the roses and posies he has been handing you so politely every morning will all go to her leddyship."

I have more penetration than my neight tenses." bors; but I am quite fond of Monsieur le Directeur, so I hope he will not allow

"You are a foolish bairn! Now, Mona, "Glad to see you, sir," said Uncle the middle of the night here."

"You are very good and generous, uncle; but I do not need anything. I had some of my last year's dresses done up before we came away, and I actually do not fear comparison, even with so exalted a personage as a lady mayoress," said Mona, laughing.

proper spirit. We are tauld that we must not allow pride to master our What do you call yourself now, Mona ? and I have always held myself to be at though her cheeks flushed.

hour for table d'hote, the stagnant wat- the lady, once to the crabbed-loking ers of life at Contrexeville were stirred little Scotchman. by the arrival of my Lord Fitzallan, his valet, his friend-a young man-and his might contrive a cousinship out of the valet; a pile of luggage, iechding gun- double relationship?" he said in a soft cases, fishing rods, a couple of dogs, and but weakly voice, and with what he in endless impediments of various kinds, tended for a fascinating simper Every waiter in the place appeared ab- "I am afraid not. The only real relasorbed in the bustle created by this im- tion I have is my uncle." portant arrival; and the visitors, as they | "What a rude speech, Mona. Do you assembled for dinner, talked of nothing repudiate me ?" else. The great men had signified their | "Oh, no! I take you for what you gracious intention of dining with the are worth." general public, and their places were being busily got ready, champagne bottles allan. put into coolers, and extra dainties for | "About a week," returned Mona. dessert being placed at their end of the

"It's just a humeeliating spectacle," said Uncle Sandy, taking his seat and and water-drinking, and massage, and unfolding his napkin, while his very nose | tennis, archery, lotteries and a theatre." seemed to curl up with contemptuous disapprobation, "to see such a like set out over twa laddies that would be better earning their crust." "I faney, from what I have heard, Lord Fitzallan is by no means young." "Why? What do ye ken about him?"

Before she could reply, the door opened and the new guests, conducted by the manager of the hotel, entered. The first was a tall, thin, very thin man, of fortyfive or fifty, whose coloring was extremely neutral. His hair was of light the boredom as best we can." darker; his complexion a pale drab; his eyes a faded blue; a very long pointed nose; and a rather receding chin, did not convey an idea of mental strength, nor did his sloping shoulders, spidery legs, and long neck suggest physical power. smiling blandly at something the host there's room for us a' on the same was kindly enough, but Mona scarcely bench.' took in these details, so surprised was she to see that his friend who followed him

That gentleman's keen eyes detected sic mistress, Mona? It was the funni- but I think the puir lord-body of the 7d.: milk, 108.62 lbs.; butter fat 8.69 lbs.; her instantly, but with his usual immo- est idea, your running away from my town the best o' the twa. He's kind and equivalent butter 10.14 lbs. Owner, Walburn this time that the alleged visit to Aussmiled faintly, and bowed as if he had quite expected to meet his young kinswo- away? What an enterprising young and forefinger. You are an honest girlie, lent butter 9.63 lbs. Owner, J. W. Cohoe, No. 8 had probably the most vivid in the smile of the public. man at the table d'hote. Mona was vex- lady!" said Lord Fitzallan, as the quar- Mona, You stuck to your uncle in face New Durham. ed at herself for coloring as she felt she tet strolled along toward the seat indi- o' these fine gentlemen, but don't you. did when she returned his bow, smiling cated.

"Wha's that?" asked the former, indig-"He is a sort of cousin of mine, or since it left the watter."

house in the Highlands for a conseeder- himself, at the new-comers, till it was know it." replaced by a salmis of pigeons. "Just bones and gravy," he observed. Lord Fitzallan sent away his plate un was raised to the rank of a millionaire. I touched more than once. He spoke lit-The set was now over, and Mona's side | tle, but he looked about with considerhad lost, in spite of her good play. The able interest, fixing a glass in his eye, hours for Uncle Sandy's afternoon walk | which frequently fell out and gave him rights over an elegant-looking girl, who of champagne, he raised the glass with a bore the unmistakable stamp of "the | nod and smile as if he drank it to Mona's Upper Ten"-a class against which he health. This seemed to attract his com-"Ah!" said he, as he toddled (a com- his glass, and directed his glances to her panion's notice; he immediately refixed mon expression, but extremely expres- with little intermission during the resive of Uncle Sandy's peculiar gait) mainder of the repart, evidently asking gait) along, with the help of a stick and | Everard numerous questions, to which he

At length it was all over. Uncle San-"I have been greatly mistaken in Mon- tiring to a particular seat in what was him from the newspaper, which generally being specially profitable to your em-"Weel, you'll see; young things like reached them in the afternoon. Everard ployer."

brings you to this lively health resort? | sidering what it is at present." "Well, perhaps so! I don't suppose I suspect you are here on false pre- "Miss-Miss-" began Lord Fitzallan, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills quickly cured

"So you have turned nurse, Mona?a noble calling, eh?" "It is that, sir," said Uncle Sandy, seriously, "and she makes a kind, considerate one, I can assure you!" "Won't you present me, Bertie ?" said Lord Fitzallan, who had paused beside

"That's a' richt; it's weel to have a | "Oh, certainly. Let me present my cousin Fitzallan to my cousin Miss-"Miss Craig," she returned, quietly,

"Ah! Miss Craig, don't you think we

"Been long here ?" asked Lord Fitz-

"And is there positively nothing to do here ?" said Everard.

"Yes, a good deal. There is bathing "That sounds a good deal, but it's a beggarly entertainment after all." "Tennis ?" put in Lord Fitzallan. "It is amusing for a time. I think I have my racket with me. Do you play, Miss "Nonsense, Fitz," broke in Everard, you must not think of playing. You must not think of playing. You have come here for the cure, and I have come to see you safe through it. We must bear Craig ? Well, are you going out for a stroll? Allow us to join you." "I find a quiet read after meals is an uncommon help to digestion," said Uncle Sandy, clutching Mona's arm; "and there He was clothed with extreme neatness is a varra pleasant seat out yonder, whar and beautiful freshness in gray-stock- my niece just reads to me a bittie of an ings and all; for as he wore knickerbock- evening; and if we don't mak' haste ers, these were seen. A deep red silk there's a black-browed Frenchman that neckerchief, drawn through an antique will be before us. You and my lord here ing the scarf round his throat and folring, the ends hanging loose, was the can have a look at the 'Scotsman' if you lowed by his valet. only bit of color about him. He was like-may be you don't see it every day;

> Everard lifted his evebrows. "Oh! I have some letters to write. How is your friend and partner the mu- per snapper sent by his ain flunky. Not ter 13.40 lbs. Owner, Walter S Schell.

a lassie wi' a proper sense of independ-"Proper sense of independence!" peated Everard; "I fancy you will think it improper when she runs away from

"Eh! but she'll no do that! She can have a good home with me if she chooses, as you know, my lord!" "Who-me?" exclaimed Lord Fitzallan. "My good sir, what do I know about it?" "Then you ought, considering you have rented my house for near on two years! Don't ye mind Craigdarroch?" "Craigdarroch! by Jove! are you Craig of Craigdarroch? I had not the faintest idea I should meet my landlord in this remote region. And you, Miss Craig, are you not some sort of feudal chief? I am quite ready to swear fealty to

"Naw!" exclaimed Uncle Sandy, with the strongest negation. "It's mine, so lang as I have breath! but it's nae a "Bad; it is a lovely, picturesque spot, for a month or two in the shooting season; but, of course it is impossible in winter, and appallingly dull in spring. Miss Craig could not live there." "Well, she can live out o' it if she likes but not wi' me. I am just wearin' to get back, and I have tauld my agent not to accept any offer frae you for fur-

"That is too bad, Mr. Craig. I should like to have a third season there! It is a snug little box, and as I do not like large parties, it just suits me." "Sma'!" repeated Mr. Craig, indignantly. "There are six large sleeping-roms, forbye twa ithers, and servants' accommodation, a drawing-room, and a dining-room, a library, and my museum, and "Oh, yes, a capital house," said Lord Fitzallan, with an indulgent smile to Mona, as if taking her into his confidence, "only not exactly large. Miss

"What a funny notion that Craigdarroch should belong to your uncle, Mona," said Everard. "And why shouldn't it ?" asked Uncle uncle buy what he likes with the money he worked so hard to make ?" "I am sure I have no objection. Only wish you would let Fitzallan have it for another year. I can only be with him for ten days this season, and the young man," said Uncle Sandy, solemn-"Yes, of course L am. So are you; so "I have always tried to do my duty, shooting about there is first rate."

"I dare say: It is much the best he'll be able to spare for such as you and his niece's arm, moved toward the door, plan; it does one no harm if you manintending to follow his usual habit of re- | age properly, and it pays in the end." "Yet,' said Mona, quietly, "I can im-> cried Everard, a little nettled. "It is apmatism, or any other fleshly ill, that be when you are an old woman, con-any ladyship, however grand, to cut me have come with my uncle, Mr. Craig. "Well, I have letters to write, so brings robust health and cheerfulness to out! I shall be deeply wounded if he This is Mr. Everard, uncle, of whom I come along, Fitz. We had better get to pale anaemic sufferers. Dr. Williams' ture—just like ourselves—that's a' puff- Mona was surprised. She thought he shall come in presently It is pleasant nerves and tones and strengthens every aroused tremendous interest. The result down noticeably, and realizing the would have been annoyed at having the and fresh here. I shall stay and have a organ and every part of the body. That was a packed house the opening night. down noticeably, and realizing the

ure with a somewhat puzzled expression. you must get the genuine pills with the | imagination.

"Exactly," said Mona, smiling. The following day, shortly before the Lord Fitxallan bowed twice, once to member about names, And how is it you dressing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., are Everard's cousin and-and this gen- Brockville, Ont. tleman's niece"?

ard's cousin, but my father was Mr. A., Grace Church, Gananoque. Round of advertising. Craig's brother."

"Ah, yes, of course," with an air of profound comprehension. 'You must be his niece. Glad you gave Bertie a setdown; he is an awfully conceited fellow; very good, and clever and all that, but I must say, conceited. You'll not mention I said so?"

"Of course I will not." "It is the fault of young people to be that self-opeenionated that they will not hear reason," said Uncle Sandy. "Yes, that's a-really the fact,' cried

Lord Fitzallan, as if struck by a newly discovered truth. "But, continued Uncle Sandy, "that is mons, New Durham. no excuse for your speaking so harsh to him, Mona. It's no becoming in a young alent butter 18.79 lbs. Owner, W. W. Brown, lassie to rebuke a man wha nae doot Lyn.

knows far mair than herself.' "I do not admit it, uncle. He may have one kind of knowledge and I have an- Brown. other, but I do not feel that Bertie is "Superior. No, no, no! No one is sup-Fitzallan, with an admiring simper. "If you please, my lord," said his lert, Cassel, Ont. French valet, approaching with a large 2m. 15d.; milk 358.1 bls.; butter fat 10.75 lbs.; soft white scarf in his hand, "Mistare equivalent butter 12.54. Owner, Walter S. Everard would be glad to speak to your Schell, Woodstock, Ont. lordship before he closed his letter to my Lord Lynebridge." "Oh certainly, Must go. Horrid bore. Hope to see you to-morrow. Good-evening. You must let me have your charm-really now." He bowed and departed, carefully fold-

"Eh, but the foolishness of it a'!" ex- lent butter 13.93 lbs. Owner, Walter S. Schell. claimed Uncle Sandy. "My lord and your lordship. A wise like leader o' men you butter 13.83 lbs. Owner. W. H. Simmons. wad mak', when he daurna refuse to 12. Calamity Grace (4771), at 2y. 10 m. 27d.; obey the message that bit o' a whip- milk 304 lbs.; fat 11.48 lbs.; equivalent but some management even to make a spare half hour for her weekly letter to Mme. Debrisay, whose epistles described her loneliness very eloquently. Uncle Sandy seemed to have taken complete possession of his niece, and was indeed more amiable and affectionate toward her treating him with gentle respect. The managers who had predicted disaster for The eight press agents of Bernhardt. quiet composure of Mona's exterior hil her "farewell" tour. much fire and sensitiveness-a depth of What whim of the public caused such form a society, to be known as the An-tradictions, though often provoking, was coming. were, in a certain degree, interesting, yet Mona pined for the sympathetic companionship of Mme. Debrisay-the same of rest and comfort in their very homely home. She had ripened rapidly in character and feeling from the time her short spell of brilliancy and pleasure had been so rudely ended. The reality underlying the surface of social life had revealed itself more and more, and she was fast learning how few and simple are the ingredients of true happiness.

At the first moment of recognition, that the former would irritate her uncle, the halcyon days of P. T. Barnum. While the ace successfully so long that the luck son to encounter, and she had always azement at the methods employed, total ning never strikes twice in the same to do a little reasoning with herself be- | ly at variance with the traditions about | place especially in the theorical world." ever cost anything.

(To be continued.)

Sandy, testily. "Why shouldn't Mona's The Condition of Thousands of Pale. Anaemic Girls.

ALMOST HOPELESS.

"Almost hopeiess is the best way to describe the condition I was in about a year ago," says Miss Mamie Mannett, of Athol, N. S. "My health had been grad-"I am afraid you are a self-seeker, dition when I feared I was sinking into chronic invalidism. I was as white as a sheet, my blood apparently having turned to water. I had no appetite, suffered from headaches and dizziness, the least exertion would leave me breathless, and returned Uncle Sandy, startled by this it appeared that I was going into a decline, I had seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills highly recommended by the newspapers, and I decided to give them a trial. It was a fortunate day for me have actually made me stronger than ever I was before. I now have a good appetite, a good color, and new energy, and I am satisfied that I owe all this cheerfully recommend to other pale, fee-whose memory was not rentative Miss Mannett, simply because they make He shook hands with her as he spoke. "Your charming cousin will never be the new, rich, red blood which enables bed early it seems one must get up in Pink Pills cure bloodlessnes just as sure- drinks a glass of milk.'

trip 25 cents.

MORE OFFICIAL TESTS.

Fourteen additional official tests have been accepted in the Canadian Holstein-Friesian Record of Merit. These tests were all made under the supervision of Prof. Dean, of the Ontario Agricultural College, and are for a tributed to him. The story was that period of seven days. The amounts of milk and butter fat reported are actual; the by adding one-sixth. 1. Lizzie Pietje De (2376), at 7y. 11m. 18d.

of age; milk 441 lbs.; butter fat 15.67; equivalent butter 18.28 lbs. Owner W. H. Sim-2. Car Born DeKol (2967), at 6y 6m. 13d.; milk 465.5 lbs.; butter fat 16.11 lbs.; equiv-

3. Inka DeKol Pieterje (5541), at 4y. 6m. 1d.; milk 353.25lbs.; butter fat 11.76 lbs.; equivalent butter 13.72 lbs. Owner W. W.

lbs. Owner, W. H. Simmons. Diotine 2nd's Pauline (6537), at 3y 4m. erior to a charming woman," cried Lord 12d.; milk 397.12 lbs.; butter fat 11.61 lbs., equivalent butter 13.55 lbs. Owner, H. Bol-7. Houwtje Albino Inka (6171), at 3y. 2m. former.

equivalent butter 13.52. Owner, Fred Row, 8. Corinne DeKol Albino (6170), at 3y. 3m. equivalent butter 12.08 lbs. Owner, Fred Row. hardt library of fiction was the aning house for another year, Mr. Craig, 9. Tidy Pauline De Kol 2nd (4973), at 2y. 3m. 7d.; milk 387.43 lbs.; butter fat 12.34 lbs.; equivalent butter 14.39 lbs. Owner, H. Bolmilk 334.3 lbs.; butter fat 11.94 lbs.; equiva-milk 334.3 lbs.; butter fat 11.94 lbs.; equiva-and to be opened next September by 11. Celestia Scott, at 2y. 5m. 22d.; milk Bernhardt. Workmen have not yet be303.68 lbs.; butter fat 11.86 lbs.; equivalent gun to build that theatre. civil; but your cousin thinks he can Rivers, Foldens, Ont.

14. Homestead Jane (4681), at 2y. 2m. 27d.; tralia by Bernhardt and a side trip to

G. W. CLEMONS, Secretary.

Booming Mme. Bernhardt.

than he ever had been before to any which ended last week, was epoch mak- with great detail. ing in some respects. Four years ago The old expedient of having a star's One reason, probably the strongest for Mme. Bernhardt played to theatres al- private car wrecked was refurbished and the trust she inspired in him, was her most empty, yet the results of the past | became almost new again, because of superiority in manner and air, coupled season are described as highly satisfact the allusion to Bernhardt's taking a bath with her complete independence, which tory to her and to her manager-a fact at the time. This suggested humorous yet did not at all prevent her from surprising to experienced theatrical possibilities whith were eagerly,

THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE

nature and power of love, which the a change? There are managers along onias Association, with an annual din-"backbone" inherited with her Scotch Broadway who will tell you that Mme. | ner every first day of April. blood at once intensified, and preserved Bernhardt's success on this tour was due William F. Connor, who undoubtedly entirely to the "circus" methods em- | did a great deal in the way of adver-sign in succession when they found the advertising pace growing too hot or the growing too great.

Eight of the most hustling press she was displeased to find that Everard agents in the business treated Mme. and Lord Fitzallan were to be their Bernhardt exactly as they would have other theatrical attraction," he said, just The victim of the gross failure of justier besides which he was a formidable per- some other theatrical stars gazed in am- would be sure to turn against me. Lightfore she could face him unflinchingly- the dignity of a star, they sadly compara course which always brought its own | ed their own box office receipts with the reward, and in which the first step, only, coffers of the Bernhardt aggregation.

that there are those who believe that onous opiate. Mrs. R. Metlin, Hali morning, but did not arrive until Sun- Keep the Tablets in the house, day. Bernhardt thus missed the train planned for her departure for Chicago, I where she was to open Monday night. bilities of running a special train to Chicago on an eighteen hour schedule, or better, and so the Bernhardt special started out to break the record of the Twentieth Century Limited. Press Agent No. 1 was in Chicago. He got boys of Chicago shouted all day long: "Eleven o'clock - Bernhardt special the record time." entered the dining car." "Twelve twenty-three - Bernhardt | It was during the attempt made to re-

Nonsense. You'll catch your death of aches, sideaches and backaches, kidney, own request was transferred to another but while he was working at the spot trouble, indigestion, neuralgia, rheuma- company. Press Agent No. 2 was in Can- where the most damage had been done returned his lordship, drawing out his troubles from which women and grow- thrown by some drunken students at fractured his leg in two places. fusees. "I'll join you presently, and ing girls suffer in silence. It has been | Mme. Bernhardt's carriage in Quebec. | Notwithstanding the fact that the he went off toward the etablissement. proved in thousands of cases that Dr. The stories which followed about the bone was protruding and that he had There was a moment's pause, Uncle Williams' Pink Pills cure after doctors whole tows's turning out to rotten egg sustained internal injuries in his fall.

"Craig," suddenly exclaimed Lord full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Another yarn he supplied dealt with jured limb bound up he resumed the Fitzallan. "I have it; same name as your Pale ePople," on the wrapper around the French Ambassador at Washington, each box. All medicine dealers sell these who was represented as protesting to hole, pills or you can get them by mail at 50 this Government againt the alleged dis- | The Leyland liner Bostonian and the is being made to mitigate the dastardly "You'll excuse me, I never could re- cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by ad- crimination against Bernhardt by the German steamer Mannheim were close theatrical trust. This story, which at by at the time of the disaster. The taned wide publicity, bought about his former vessel rescued seventeen of the victim, and alleging in extenuation by-Annual excursion to Ogdensburg on resignation, as Mme. Bernhardt objected sailors, while the latter steamer suc-

ment Press Agent No. 3 employed 150 of the situation. They pursued and killmen to stan in line all day before the ed the swimming cattle, which formed sale opened, presumably to buy tickets. | part of the British King's cargo, but it This line of ticket purchasers was duly is not known if any of the sailors were photographed to show the interest in caught.

Bernhardt. This stimulated the legitimate purchasers. The Bernhardt tent story is also at-Bernhardt could not get bookings in Tex- Each Does the Other a Good Turn Now as theatres and that her manager would

It may be explained that no theatrical star of prime importance ever wants to jacked up his automobile to serve in play in Texas. Stars like John Drew, lieu of a broken engine for the shelling Maude Adams, E. H. Sothern, Julia Mar- of corn and cutting of fodder for his live | suffer unjustly in the courts. This aslowe and all the big attractions never stock and horses. The latter, says the think of visiting Texas, where the towns | New York Sun, partook of their share of are too small and far apart to make a the feed without showing any hard feeltour profitable.

such rapidity and had such prominence country says that the horses have acbutter fat 13.95 lbs.; equivalent butter 16.27 that Manager Connor decided he would cepted the automobile more gracefully have to make good, and subsequently than the farmers have. did present Bernhardt in a tent, though | He tells the story of an automobilist | provided for such assassins. she played only one tent performance who met an elderly couple driving a in Texas. This was at Dallas, on March | skittish horse, which decidedly objected 6. Calamity Duchess Posch (4969), at 3y. 20, when people for hundreds of miles to passing the unknown vehicle. The near by crowded into the tent to see driver of the car stopped to offer his tice, to fee shrewd lawyers, to procure Bernhardt exhibited like a circus per- aid, but the man declined it with the

After six weeks press agent No. 4 "If you'll lead my old woman by, gave up because of illness. Some people guess the hoss and I can make it all say he was worked almost to death. His best contribution to the Bernnouncement that a syndicate of financiers would erect in New York, at Broad- that the company could sell it for $1,550. the death of the malefactor, another way and Thirty-ninth street, a new thea- Now I marvel that they could sell it at step will have been taken in the work 10. Verbelle Posch (5316), at 2y. 1m. 24d.; tre, to be called the Bernhardt Theatre any price. Marvelling is the cheapest > Press agent No. 5 handed out some very entertaining fiction about the actress and while most of his exploits took place in the west, they were occasionaldentiall yhired horse."

No. 8 had probably the most vivid imagination of any of the press agents and be too sharp. Noo, read me a bit o' the Mr. John Marsh, who has been jailer wreck of the Bernhardt train, printed in at the same time with irrepressible amusement. The idea of an encounter setween Uncle Sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic in finitely comic in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic in finitely comic in finitely comic.

The idea of an encounter sandy and Bertie Everard in finitely comic in finitely c

 Sarah Bernhardt's tour of America, sequent developments were furnished

The old man's peculiarities and con- ployed to tell the public that Bernhardt tising his star, was formerly a property man with James O'Neill, and until this Never before perhaps with a dignified year never attained much prominence star of the first magnitude have adver- as a manager. After being O'Neill's protising methods been employed in so strik- perty man for some years, he became ney-General Moody that Canadian lawing a way. It is a fact that her tour ex. his business representative and subse- yers are still to be paid $22,500 for serhausted the ingenuity of eight different | quently became connected with Liebler press agents, who were employed one af- & Company. His connection with theater another by her managers, only to re- tricals, however, was entirely as a silent Greene, which cost $100,000. And what partner, until last fall, when he under- did the lawyers get for helping them to took the management of Bernhardt's resist extradition? demands upon their inventive ingenuity tour. He has withdrawn from the firm of Liebler & Company and announces that he is now through with theatricals

SAVE THE BABIES.

Julia Marlowe to an intimate friend re-cently, "then tents and barns should be diarrhoea and cholera infantum carry cup of coffee. But if Sam's work were good enough for the rest of us. If she can off thousands of little ones during the cup of coffee. But if Sam's work were stand for such advertising they can do hot weather months. A box of Baby's digging pipe line trenches or loading hay what they please when advertising me in Own Tablets cost but 25 cents and there from tangled winrows, we fear he would is security and safety in this medicine. backslide ere long. That Miss Marlowe is not alone in thus Give an occasional Tablet to the well expressing the sentiment of the profes- child and you will keep it well. Give sion is shown by the fact that she and them to the child if trouble comes swift-Mr. Sothern have just engaged for next ly and see the ease and comfort this season as their own press representative medicine brings. And you have the and July, 1911, says Prof. Martin. Rusthe first press agent on Mme. Bern- guarantee of a government analyst sia has to repay loans of a total value hardt's recent tour. It should be added that the medicine contains no pois-William F. Connor, Mme. Bernhardt's fax, N. S., says: Baby's Own Tabmanager, proved himself on his tour to lets are a valuable medicine for $46,785,000 on May 14, 1909, and a Gerbe the greatest advertiser of them all. | the stomach and bowel troubles." Sold | man-Dutch loan of $125,000,000. Russia's Luck favored the Bernhardt tour from by all medicine dealers or by mail at national debt is $4,440,000,000, the start. The steamer on which the 25 cents a box from The Dr. Wilcompany come was due on Saturday liams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BRITISH CAPTAIN'S PLUCK.

pluck is told by the survivors of the in October and November. To make matthe publisher of an afternoon paper to during a fierce gale in the Atlantic. | the Imperial Bank of Russia is none too "Well, fair cousin, is it gout or rheupalling to think what your tongue will to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I get out Bernhardt special editions all Twenty-eight lives were lost in the discount of the property of the p day Monday. Consequently the news- aster, which was due to wreckage being washed overboard and thrown back train passes Toledo two minutes ahead of against the hull by the furious waves. The continued battering soon caused the "Twelve o'clock-Bernhardt has just vessel to leak badly, and she eventually

I don't like any poor, meeserable creating the middle of t pair the damage done to the hull of the respect for law and disregard of the This sort of thing, kept up until the vessel that Captain O'Hagan sustained sanctity of life in some of the United hike her to show finer feathers than my brother's daughter, so if you want a brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the Press Agent No. 1 found the Bernhardt present of the body. That the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, and results a brother's daughter brother's daughter, so if you will allow me," bow- is why these pills strike straight at the pressity for quick action the capture brother's daughter, and results a brother's daughter brother's daughter, and results a brother's daughter brother's "Tell Achille to bring me a scarf then," tism, St. Vitus dance, paralysis, and the ada when a couple of rotten eggs were he was struck by a barrel of oil, which dently crazy." Prompt examination by

Sandy looking after the retreating fig- and all other medicines have failed. But Bernhardt reflected great credit upon his Captain O'Hagan refused to be carried him by a query to plead that he was to his cabin, and after having the indirection of the work of plugging the

"I do not know how I am Mr. Ever- Str. America, Thursday noon, of Y. P. to usng her Ambassador as a medum ceeded in saving eleven men from a

For Bernhardt's New York engage- A school of sharks added to the horror be fatal to the principle upon which HORSE AND HORSELESS. and Then.

A farmer in Cadiz, Ind., recently ling toward their deadly rival, the auto. The tent story, however, spread with, One man who has been touring the He did not seek such redress. He comes from a man in Oregon. He says: "When I bought my car I marvelled part of the proposition, I find. for me to drive home with a provi-

Spooning at Close Quarters,

A crank is any person who opposes

When the Czar's soldiers refuse to fire on the peasants, bureaucracy receives a hint to put its house in order,

Winnipeg by a vote of nearly two to one has declared for Sunday cars, and by a vote of nearly seven to one embarks on a $3,500,000 power venture.

It is stated by United States Attorvices in the extradition of Gaynor and

The French Supreme Court is to affirm the innocence of the much-persecutsuffered much, but Nemesis overtook his enemies and meted out the full measure of punishment to them.

Sam Jones, the revivalist, condemns the breakfast-eating habit, Three years "If Bernhardt can play in a tent," said Mother, an investment of 25 cents ago he swore off breakfasts, and be-

Russia is not in a favorable position financially. Between October of this year of $572,000,000. Apart from the $125,000,-000, immediately due, there is a loan of next to that of France, which is $6,000,-000,000. The annual interest payable by Russia is $180,750,000, Now the new loan of $450,000,000 has been negotiated, and Mr. Connor saw the advertising possi- School of Sharks Round a Sinking $150,343,750, and this without any allowance being made for the repayment A thrilling story of a British captain's of the short loan of $125,000,000 payable steamer British King, which foundered | ters worse the confidence of Europe in

> The cold-blooded and cowardly assassination of a man in a roof garden in New York by a dissolute millionaire, and the circumstances attending it, shed light on the causes of the prevailing dis-States cities, Immediately this milthe occasion, officials are found volunteering the assurance that he was "eviexpert alienists, even in the face of those millions, proves the miscreant to be sane, and at once it is cunningly suggested to about to be attacked by his victim! As hundreds might by their testimony destroy even that plea a concerted effort crime by aspersing the character of the gone insults to the assassin's wife Now the admission of that plea would society is organized-destructive of the basis of law and order. It would excuse every crime, no matter how base and cowardly, and enthrone private revenge on the ruins of our Christian civilization, If this millionaire's wife had suffered insult at any man's hands, the law provided a remedy, and it was not as if he lacked the money to invoke the law. In New York no man with millions is likely to see his cause lack partisans or sassin knew that. He was well aware that the legal righting of any wrongs that he suffered was within his reach. plotted murder; and he committed the crime. He should suffer the full penalty

Perhaps he will not. He has millions with which to stifle the demand for justhe defamation of the man he murdered. and to picture himself as an avenging Nemesis instead of the sneaking murderer of a defenceless victim. But if he Another horse and horseless yarn has millions and his allegations of righteous revenge succeed in saving him from of degrading law, defying social order, "My particular mavel out in my barn and making the taking of human life reminds me of the man who built so safe for any villain who chooses to much stone fence in one day that it allege that in doing so he but avenged where he began. My car will take me | a personal wrong. The victim is dead. sometimes-so far from home in two His mouth is closed. But Society, if hours that it takes the rest of the day | true to itself, does not need to consider him. It furnished the means to adjudicate on and right all such wrongs; and the man who in his lust for blood ignores that means and coolly resorts to murder