The Late Rev. Wm. Forrest.

An appreciation by one who, years ago, sat under his ministrations.

The death of the Rev Wm Forrest, which took place on Tuesday, July 17th, at the age of 78, is to me the removal not only of a link that connects with the past, but of a light which, in that plastic period of life beginning with the early teens, did more to direct my course and to inspire with noble thoughts than words can adequately express.

His stay in Tilbury however, if it did not dim the far off vision was the occasion of the opening of his eyes to some of the joys that sweeten earth's journey. There he met Mrs Nichol, then a young widow, and his earlier ideal of a life of Pauline single blessedness melted away in the presence of her personal charms and Christian graces.

One of my recollections connected with the event was a touch of humor by the late Honorable Arch McKellar, M. P., at a tea meeting at Buxton. Mr McK. was a host at such gatherings, and though such a contrast to the quiet retiring minister, was his fast and bosom friend.

Such an incident naturally fastened itself on my boyish fancy and again and again it has come back as a breath from the days that are gone, bringing up memories both glad and sad.

PLUMBING AND HEATING

text "Kadesh Barnes," another on "The Uplifted Serpent" and many incidental sayings in the Bible class stick in the mind through all the intervening years.

Lacking the buoyancy of mind that is seldom possessed without a vigorous body, and capable only in a limited degree of understanding the feelings and temper of those who differed from him, he was to be an ecclesiastical leader, but as an inspirer to what is noblest in life and as an expounder of Eternal principles he will be loved and honored by all whose hearts were touched, or whose minds were awakened by his ministry.

A RECORD-BREAKING FAIR--The buildings on the exhibition grounds at Toronto are valued at between $1,200,000 and $1,500,000. No other annual exhibition in America possesses the same accommodation.

Principal Cooper will not resume his position as chief of the staff of the public school, having placed his resignation with the secretary of the school Board. Mr. Cooper has accepted a position on the staff of the Collegiate Institute at St. Catharines. His record here has been first class.—Chatsworth Banner.

Bless the man who is to a reasonable amount uneasy as long as he owes a dollar. If you are at some time compelled by unavoidable circumstances to request your merchant to extend you credit for a time, in making your application to him for it, don't tell him you will pay the first of the month when, in your opinion, it will be the tenth of the month before you will meet the obligation.

MARRIED.

BEHNCKE — FITZGIBBON.—On Wednesday, July 18, 1906, at the residence of M. E. Denton, Farmingdale, New Jersey, by the Rev Wm. Adams, John C. Behncke, of New York City, and Janet Robena Fitzgibbon, of Farmingdale, New Jersey.

HARDWARE!

Beware of the Olley-Tongued Agents who are going round the country announcing other people's business for the purpose of selling their own Binder Twine. Let them take their medicine without falsifying. We are always doing what we can for our customers and are now selling the same distance and the same quality Twine at the same price we did last year—that is lower than any other dealer. Examine our Twine, or ask your neighbor about it, and be convinced.

Do not allow the grain horse jerk your arms out when you can get a horse muzzle so cheap.

We still sell good home-made Grain Cradles which no person can find fault with.

We are now supplied with a good stock of Binder Whips.

The ladies are invited to inspect our assortment of charcoal and Boston Irons, very suitable for warm weather, as they retain the heat much longer than ordinary Irons and do not heat the hands.

In Preserving kettles our stock is complete.
