Life in Muskoka.

Rev. Mr Matheson gives interesting glimpses of his beautiful summer resort.

Kaigashene Pt., Ont. Dear Mr Ramage,—

I am somewhat slow in fulfilling my promise to send you paper a letter regarding these parts, but I have been very busy building a summer cottage for a yearly rendezvous for brain rest and toning of nerves to take full advantage of the holiday, thoughtfully given to me by my congregation, and then I only said "I might," which leaves my conscience clear. We are all glad to get the Review, as our weekly visitor. Priceworthy notes, are always interesting and to the point and so are others.

Where is Kaigashene? Go to your map and see if you can find out. You will probably come back disappointed for I have not seen the name in print yet, except on the labels of our papers. Still some day it will be better known and already it is attracting attention as one of the finest holiday resorts in the whole Dominion. Four years ago it was only a bleak series of rocks occupied by nobody. Now I see a dozen summer homes and several tents and scores of people coming and going all the time. Nearly every lot here is bought up by prospective builders. I am told the founder of the shore ferreted 40 acres along the shore for $40.00. Now a lot consisting of 150 or 300 feet of sea front will cost you that or more. So that, Mr Editor, if you wish to have a location before prices advance still further, it is not wise to procrastinate and editors, I feel satisfied, need a holiday as well as other people who have to work hard in this world.

But where is this magnificent resort called Kaigashene? Where you can count twenty islands from your verandah, where you can catch bass and mud-cats as you need them and where the air is always fresh and clear? To tell you the truth I hardly know myself for I am not fully acquainted with the geography of the district. All that I can say is that it is in the shore of the Georgian Bay in the district of Muskoka, in the township of Baxter, about half way between Midland and Parry Sound. You can come here three times a week from either Midland or Penetang by steamer. The Parry Sound steamer, the city of Toronto, one of the longest and longest on the lakes passes along side of us to and fro every day except Sunday. This is their harvest time as well as that of the summer hotels, several of which are in this neighborhood. Both afford every convenience and prices range accordingly in very liberal manner. The far-famed Minnicog Hotel I see as I am writing. It is on an island six miles away near Penetang. It looks like a huge castle in the horizon. At present there are there 204 guests and some of them are paying as high as $24.00 a week. The owner, Colonel Catley, has several other houses on the same island.

We have been told long ago that there are 30,000 islands in this group, still if you want to buy one, you are not to expect a snap. Opposite us is one for sale at $40.00, a quarter of an acre in size, all rock plus six trees of very ill-bred dimensions and there is another quite near of fifteen acres or so held at $2000.00. Very little grows on it, but blueberries and poison ivy. Nothing can live there are all the year round but snakes, frogs, rats and mice and I think they must have a hard time of it to make ends meet, still the owner will get his price for it some day for it has excellent locations for summer homes, which will be built on all these places in a very short time.

Up till lately there was a dispute between the Dominion and Ontario Government as to the rightful ownership of these lands, only certain portions could be bought and deeds could not be given till the matter was settled. Now I understand that it has been decided that the Dominion is owner of the islands still unappropriated and the Province of the Mainland. This unfortunate dispute has barred occupation till now.

Go Home Bay, so well known in University circles, is five miles farther north. I have been there once and was delighted with my visit. I was glad to meet there Mr Firth, a Science graduate of Toronto University, whose home is near Durham. He and other students are there in the interest of the University and of the Government. I understand their duties are varied, but among other things they go out with the fishermen to see the different species of fish caught and to find out what those fish live on. I was delighted to meet a young man from our neighborhood and to find him occupying a good position. At Go Home is a large number of cottages, but they belong to a select party, professors and graduates of the University. For my part I prefer Kaigashene for we are in a point where we get the full benefit of the sea breezes. They are in a bay closely hemmed in except on one side, and similarly we get the advantage over all the places in Inland Muskoka.

Being a good Presbyterian, you would like to know what we do on the Sabbath away from our churches. Do we forget their lessons and our own higher needs or do we go fishing and pleasure seeking as do some others? I should hope not. A man's religion is not worth very much if he only carries it within the sight of the church spire, and it is not worth very much if he has no yearning for a place of worship, wherever he may be. I am glad to tell you we have religious services every Sunday and they are most interesting and are well attended. Ministers take their turn to conduct them. I have taken mine. At Go Home I attended an outdoor service conducted by Prof Wallace, of Victoria University. Mrs Prof Ballantyne presided at the organ and her daughter and two sons accompanied with violins. The sermon was good, the singing hearty, and the audience most attentive and appreciative. I counted eighteen boats going away from that meeting, sail boats gasoline launches and row boats. Last Sunday evening we had a service of song on the water off this point, boats being all lashed together. We had a very good congregation and splendid singing. One wants to be on the water in the rays of the setting sun to hear the Glory Song aright. Some of our singers were from leading city church choirs. All who knew of the service came to it, and one Irishman present, remarked within the hearing of us all, that if more people will come the preachers will be thinking about the taking up of a collection. Hoping Mr Editor I haven't written too much.

Yours sincerely, J. A. MATHESON.

Holstein.

Miss Alma Rogers of Toronto who visited at the Parsonage over Sunday last Friday from their Western trip and sang a couple of solos last Sunday morning, left on Tuesday.

Miss Hartley is visiting her sister Mrs. Holmes. Mr. and Mrs. David Allan returned last Friday from their Western trip and are well pleased with the country but believe there are many advantages here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roberston who have been the guests of the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. Allan, returned to Toronto last week.

Mr. John Smith and family are back from the west for a visit. Mr. Smith returns in a few days but Mrs. Smith whose father Robt Brown, is very sick, will remain for some time.

Rev. Mr. Matheson occupied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday and preached a splendid sermon. Mr. Matheson has been attending Manitoba College and has been doing Mission work on the prairie. On Sunday evening he gave a very fine address on the Student volunteer movement, in line with the regular topic he himself being pledged to the foreign field.

Misses Mary and Jennie Little returned from Guelph on Monday where they have been spending their holidays and on Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Little and Miss Myrtle left on a driving trip to Owen Sound in which vicinity Mr. Little will spend his holidays for a few weeks. Dr. Brown is expected to take the service next Sabbath morning.

The contract for building the cement walks was let on Monday to Mr. Moore of Durham at ten and nine tenths cents per foot. There were several tenders for the work but the local man is well recommended and we look for a first class job. Work will commence in a very few days and will be completed by Sept. 15th. James Brown arrived on Sunday from Lunenburg and will spend a week or two with his father Mr. Thos. Brown. He is looking and feeling well.

Beware of the Oily-Tongued Agents who are going round the country announcing other people's business for the purpose of selling their own Binder Twin. Let them take their medicine without falsifying. We are always doing what we can for our customers and are now selling the same distance and the same quality Twine at the same price we did last year—that is lower than any other dealer. Examine our Twine, or ask your neighbor about it, and be convinced.

Do not allow the grain horse jerk your arms out when you can get a horse muzzle so cheap.

We still sell good home-made Grain Cradles which no person can find fault with.

We are now supplied with a good stock of Binder Whips.

The ladies are invited to inspect our assortment of charcoal and Boston Irons, very suitable for warm weather, as they retain the heat much longer than ordinary Irons and do not heat the heat the hands.

In Preserving kettles our stock is complete.

Edge Hill.

Received too late for last week

This week it is our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of our old pioneers in the person of the late Robt Estor, who departed this life on Thursday, July 19th. Since last fall he had been afflicted with a kidney disease, which, with varying intensity, has caused him great suffering. He had reached the ripe age of 78 years, and was always a kind and obliging neighbor. He leaves to mourn his untimely end a widow, six daughters and two sons, all were close at hand to follow the remains to their last resting place, except one daughter, Mrs I Petch, of Edmonton, and one son, Archie, who went West a couple of months ago. The funeral which took place on Monday to the Saugreen cemetery was one of the largest seen for some time. The Rev Mr Farquharson preached a very appropriate sermon at house and grave. The sympathy of the whole neighborhood goes to the bereaved widow and family.

Mrs Robt Edge is at present visiting friends at King.

Mr and Mrs Jno Allan returned to their home at Long Beach, California, last Wednesday after spending a month with his aged mother and other friends in this burg.

Mr Geo. A. Staples, of Cranbrook, B. C., arrived home last Tuesday, after an absence of two years, looking as if Western life agreed with him.

Mr Wm McFayden visited friends in Owen Sound for a couple of days last week.

Mrs Dr Hutton, of town, visited friends on the avenue one day recently.
