Confirmation Services

On Sunday evening last the Rev. David Williams, Lord Bishop of Huron Diocese of the Anglican church was in Durham and assisted by the Rev. Mr. Bice, conducted, perhaps, the most successful confirmation services ever held here.

Some 36 took up on themselves the solemn vows in the presence of a congregation filling the pews and aisles in every part, many standing in the doorway and numbers had to leave, it being impossible to accommodate more.

The Bishop has been making the round of his Diocese administering the rite of confirmation at Meaford, Thornbury, O. Sound, Chatsworth, Markdale and other places, but at none of the places named were candidates so numerous as in Durham.

He is a clear, incisive speaker, inclined to be broad and evangelistic in his teaching and seems to be a worthy successor to Bishop Baldwin.

The Bishop took his text from John 18:36 "My Kingdom is not of this world" and preached a lucid, practical sermon therefrom. He warned against a meaning sometimes adopted that "of" meant "in." Christ never said his Kingdom was not in the world, it was in the world, a visible, material Kingdom but whose object differed from earthly Kingdoms.

These last aimed to furnish physical and material security and progress, the spiritual and moral interests of its subjects.

A Kingdom assured furnished two leading thoughts: a "King" and "Subjects." We think of our King (1) as a living King, Confucius, Brahma, Mohammed were great leaders but they were no where looked upon as living in the sense that Christ our King was. (2) We think of our King as purifying us by noble ideals, not interfering with legitimate social pleasures. Christ's presence never made grief, but always joy and uplifted. (3) We think of him as a King who will fulfil all his promises, and God chooses to work through his church in confirming these promises.

Then as "Subjects" we are privileged citizens but have responsibilities even as have the subjects of earthly kings rather "the earthly was a shadow of the heavenly." Our responsibility implied (1) that we bring no disgrace upon the empire, (2) that we support the empire (3) defend it (4) extend it. The King does not do this he puts these duties on the subjects. Our manner of life should be worthy of the name Christian, showing truth and righteousness in every respect. The dangers of certain aspects of commercial and political life were pointed out and an urgent appeal made to sacrifice success if it entailed a departure from truth and righteousness. Not to do so would be disloyalty to Christ.

The burden of the Kingdom rests with us; physical force was not the ultimate power here as in earthly Kingdoms. The defence and extension of the Kingdom was also upon us: we are here to defend it against aspiration: to extend it in the face of opposition. Christ's plan is for his subjects to do this, the command "Go ye into all the world" was not given to apostles alone, it was not given to work it will be done but responsibility will rest upon us.

All can't go, but they can substitute and the preacher uttered a telling piece of sarcastic truth by showing how cheaply some men value themselves by giving perhaps 25 cents as a yearly contribution to missions. "What you give is what you consider yourself worth." Every man has three channels at least for his activity: his own church, his own diocese, the great North West and lastly, the world at large.

He made an impressive summary urging the seeking after the Divine Spirit in the Kingdom of the Lord Jesus, this spirit was granted to his subjects. The importance of daily Bible reading was dwelt upon, read it looking for what it has for you not for its teaching of astronomy, geology etc. Be loyal to your King then you will be loyal to parents, to husband, to wife, to children and to these simple rules remember ever the request of our King. "Do this in remembrance of me." The sacrament was entirely for our good. He knew how easy it is to be "out of sight of mind" and hence the pathetic request.

Hopeville. Mr Isaiah W McArdle, of Markdale, has been down visiting his father.

Mr Gib McArthur and family moved into our village to stay a while before they go to the West.

Mr George McLeach, of Toronto, struck our town some time ago but did not stop as long a time as usual.

A bad accident has happened to Mr R. S. Fraser, of the 9th con. that may prove fatal. Mr Fraser had been finishing a large, new frame barn and he went up on a ladder to spike on a hay fork at the top of the rafter and the ladder slipped and he fell to the ground floor. He was taken up unconscious and is remaining so most of the time.

Mr Thos McLean is in poor health.

Mr Wm J Glenister takes a flying visit to Toronto to see his family. He is now building for Mr Geo H Parslow.

A National Necessity

The growing interdependence of the provinces of this Dominion must be apparent to all. The product of one is a necessity for another. Not alone are the eyes of the Eastern Provinces, but those of every country in the world, directed to the almost phenomenal wheat producing qualities of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Every harvest, concession and side line in Ontario has contributed to the settlement of these fertile western Provinces. The crops, according to the Governmental reports for this season, if safely harvested and garnered, will far surpass previous years in quality and quantity.

It is estimated 20,000 farm laborers will be required from the older provinces in assisting in the harvest of the wheat. The sons of the parental and urgently appealing to the West are now patriotic instincts of the farmers of the East to send every strong, able-bodied man they can to aid them in this work of national importance.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has made the wonderful growth of the West possible. In the saving of the wheat and other crops, the interest of Canada and the Canadian Pacific are identical. The latter is Canada's National Highway. It has announced that on Aug. 14th, 17th, and 22nd, it will transport from different territories in the East farm laborers to the Canadian North-West at the nominal rate of twelve dollars: in fact, this National Highway is offering an inducement to European farm laborers by making an exceptionally low rate over its Atlantic steamship service in connection with its railway lines. It now remains for the Ontario farmer to show his pride in the growth of his nation by co-operating with the Canadian Pacific in sending every available able-bodied man he can to the West.
