The present system was wrong. Every sounty should have a police officewith regular police (mounted preferred) under a chief appointed by the government. The constables should bepaid by salary, not by fees, a system which seemed "like trying to make a gambler of a man." County constables and high constables now have to depend on other occupations or a livelihood. Often at big gatherngs, when he should be the servant of the public, he is hired by the directors of the fair, or race meeting, or the body under whose auspices the gathering is held, and only looks after his employers' interests. The constables should be under the direction of a commission, consisting of the county judge, county crown attorney and warden. A resolution was passed instructing the Executive to formulate an emphatic recommendation to the Government of each Province for the reorganization of

Constable Harrison, of Westmount, Chief Constable Randell, of Guelph, Chief Constable Trudel, of Quebec city, Chief Constable McRae, of Winnipeg. A commit tee, consisting of Col. Sherwood, Chief Detective Carpenter, of Montreal, Dep-Harrison and Trudel, was appointed to review the criminal code and suggest re-
