The Rev Mr Duncan, from Toronto Presbytery, preached last Sunday at Amos Church to a large congregation. His text was from Habakkuk on God's abiding presence in times of adversity as well as prosperily. The Rev gentleman has just received a call from a charge in Maitland Action was taken to request the CPR authorities, through the clerk, to devise some way of crossing Garafraxa St., other than by level crossing. It was thought an alternative plan would be to cross higher up and send the road traffic overhead. The Mayor had the promise that if the level crossing were adopted, an electric bell would be installed which would ring long before the train reached the crossing.
