Hopeville.

24 Sept, '06. Sad news came here from the N. West of the suffering and death of several of the Goheen family, who moved from here some months ago.

Mr Robert Goheen, one of our most prosperous farmers, sold his farm and moved away there with his wife and family, where he had a brother unmarried, living in the far west.

About two months ago this brother, John Alexander, took the fever that is now prevalent there and died.

Worse was to follow, for news reached here of the death of Mr Robert Goheen and one of his daughters in the one day, with some other of the family sick, thus leaving Mrs Goheen with two sick children alone in the wild west plains. Friends here are going to their assistance.

There is quite a stir just now among our church people. It appears if there are any persons here not members of some church they will be strongly invited for enrollment as members. The Latter Day Saints are holding nightly meetings on the 8th con.

The ministers have been adding to the church by baptising some 7 or 8 in the Saugeen River.

The McLeach or Hopeville church, called the Independent by a Mr Baird, who was here preaching some time ago, is holding meetings and has a large number of speakers here.

Mr McLeach was the first to arrive last week and take up his boarding place, others are coming in.

The Epilin Presbyterian people commenced nightly meetings on Monday the 23rd and we hear Cedarville will have nightly meetings next week.

The bush fires have been dampened by the recent rains; they were getting a little wild-like.

Mrs Scarlett, Sr., and her grand-son Fred McEachnie, from Sault Ste Marie, are visiting here, among others at Messrs Thos McLaughlin's and Adam Scarlett's.

Priceville.

Heavy rain on Saturday last the best for some time. Threshing is getting pretty well wound up, a couple of weeks will finish. The majority of the farming community haven't taken up their potatoes yet, those that took them up say there are quite a few rotten ones. Not much ploughing done yet.

Railroad is progressing fine, a couple of months more will finish from H McDonald, S D Road, Glenelg, up to the big swamp above Priceville.

The rain on Saturday was a special welcome visitor to our mill man as he can turn out now any quantity of stuff.

Our business men are preparing to meet winter demands by laying in already some goods that will soon be required.

Our blacksmiths are kept busier than usual on account of so much work going on at present railroad.

Our annual exhibition will be held next Friday Oct 5th in this town as usual. A good turnout is expected, good accommodation. A grand supper will be prepared by the ladies of the Presbyterian church from 5 to 8 in the evening in the basement of the church. No one need go home hungry for there will be an abundance of all the good kinds of food prepared to satisfy the wants of those in need, so all are invited for there will be plenty of room and food for all. He that giveth for a good cause shall be doubly rewarded.

Mr Thos Atkinson, son of Mrs Butter of the British Hotel here, arrived home one day last week. It ten years since he was home before and no doubt gave his mother a surprise at his arrival.

Mr Alex McEachern arrived home after spending a couple of months in the West.

Mr and Mrs Duncan McAuley, of the Soo, spent a couple of weeks visiting Mr McAuley's mother and other friends in the vicinity.

Inspector Campbell visited our school here one day last week and Top Clark same day. Attendance was small at the latter place on account of so many taking up their potatoes.

Pleased to notice amongst those that passed for teachers at the late examination the name of John L. McKinnon, son of John McKinnon, south Glenelg.

Mr Neil McLean, of the American Soo, visited friends for a few days around Priceville some time ago. He is still in the hotel business. He always looks for Priceville news in the Review.

Mrs Teare, of Michigan, is at the old home south line at present. She was attending her father's funeral whose notice will be seen further on.

Mr Geo Grier, of Dundalk, visited old friends in Priceville a week ago.

Mr Malcolm McInnes, Durham Road, rented his farm to John McMeekin, of the south line. We heard Malcolm and family are to become residents of our town.

Pleased to hear that Mrs Jehn Campbell, of the north line, is improving after her severe accidents during summer.

We saw the editor and Mrs Ramage on their way to Flesherston Exhibition on Friday last. Also saw Chronicle's editor and daughter returning on Saturday after spending a day with old friends at Flesherston.

Gaelic communion next Sunday at the usual hour and English the following Sunday in the Presbyterian church in this town.

A branch of the Standard Bank is opened in Mrs Butter's brick store, next the Post Office Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays; two obliging young men in attendance.

Died at his residence, south line Glenelg, on Tuesday morning the 25th Sept, after a long illness, Mr Arch McKinnon, native of Argyleshire, Scotland, at the age of 70 years. Mr McKinnon was at one time one of the pioneers of the Township of Proton, then coming to the south line, Glenelg 24 years ago. His first wife died about 27 years ago. In religion he was a Presbyterian. He leaves to mourn his loss a widow, four sons and two daughters. Three of the sons are away in far off lands, consequently they could not attend the funeral. The funeral on Thursday the 27th Sept to Priceville cemetery, was pretty well attended considering the busy time. The Rev Mr Matheson conducted the funeral obsequies at the house and grave. Thus ended the earthly career of another fellow mortal.

Mr and Mrs Thos Stinson met with a great grief in the death of their youngest girl on the 17th. The funeral two days later was largely attended and much sympathy is extended to them. Mr Jas Stinson has also been very ill but is now improving.

Mr Deschairs' sale under auctioneer Clark's hammer came off well, good prices being realized.

Ab Meek and Alex McIntosh who left last March for the West came home last week. They look as if the West agreed with them.

John Sachs is having a raising on Monday to replace the barn burned by lightning. We notice many barns becoming decorated with lightning rods as a preventive measure.

Mr Alex McDonald on the 9th intends to farm in comfort having recently got a sulky plough.

Mrs Douzall McDougall who has been ill for some time is not improving as her friends would wish.

Rev Mr Pineo we understand is leaving on Monday for Nova Scotia. During his four years in Mulock he has made many friends and will be missed round here. Warm wishes for his welfare will follow him and his family.

Hopeville.

Meetings are held every day and night in the Hopeville Church conducted by Mr Gibson the new Pastor and five or six other preachers, have been coming and going this last week. Mr George McLeach well known here was the first to arrive over a week ago. Mr Gibson, it is said has been ordained a minister. Mr McLeach has a twin brother here assisting in the preaching.
