EXPLOSION.

ubway Scene of the isaster.

and Others Buried in Debris.

and Man Blown Into e Air.

et. 8 .- A terrific explong gas in the subway of Rapid Transic Co., unat Sixth and Market sulted in the death of d property damage of irs. Ecsides the several , it is said that at least buried under tons of cked subway. Extraore being made to clear at it will be late in the in be accomplished.

securred shortly before onsequence of the early et in the subway, and at a workman with a explosion wrecked the a block, and all the and other structural blew up a double team g driven directly across of the subway that with dire burst into reef near the subway

INGHAM ATTACKS EN CHAINS.

the Gentry

his words being der natural friends and the profession-

rare to find an ar-ted the clergy with ought to quit the ong the poor.

OM WANTED.

ed Over Attempt to It Cut.

There is war here elose a poolroom, Wigle, the only one figure his applicathen he started to it a license, and he

BAD WRECK.

End Collision Near

8.—In a rear-end train of Pullman e fifteenth United Fort Ethan Allen. e Boston and Maine Troy, late to-day. dentified are: Mrs. W. E. Shaw, vens, Charleston, S. v. Arlington, Mass. The cavalry were

ITS SUPERIORIT

Over Japan Teas is so pronounced that hoped you and Kenneth would mak' it hoped you and kenneth would It on a teapot infusion.

CEYLON GREEN TEA Every leaf is uncolored, undoctored and of virgin purity

LEAD PACKETS ONLY. 40c, 50c and 60c Per Lb. AT ALL GROCERS

Won at Last

as General Fielden asked Mona if the I sent for another cup, and we sat down ing. But I see the boy coming wi' the the more rapidly, because he seemed perservant would whistle a cab for him, as cozily together. get back to my work—that I do not staccato that he made me jump. to see how the election at Clachenbrig ing!" it was time for him to go. "I must soon mind; but Mona has been quite a month | "'I dare say I am," said I, 'It is fa- has gane—I'm fearin' it will be against He said quietly: "This is a most unexhere, and I must let her go, and there's tiguing at first. In another week I shall the Liberals." the shoe that pinches!"

"You will kill yourself."

If I could only keep this girl with me, I deep was our conviction! 'Still,' said he, should be ready to face anything." "Any why won't she stay?"

"Oh, she belongs to her uncle, and I would not interfere with her, though I suspect she prefers her own 'Deb.'" Mona laughed and blew madame a "That's because you have a good

"Ay, that's just it. It's the want of a legal right that plays the deuce!" and hastily bidding the ladies good-bye, he

When Lisle perseveringly called a third time, he was partially rewarded. The tea table was spread, and the presence of General Fielden procured him a tetea-tete, for the general, finding Mme, Debrisav played chess, decided in his own mind that a little tranquil amusement of that kind was the very thing for her, had set out the pieces, and was delightfully engaged in capturing her bishops and checking her queen.

chance."

threading her needle. "Of speaking to you alone."

whole world might not hear." "How hideously cold and unkind you | are, Mona, Well, I have something to whisper in your ear alone, though, if you will listen favorably. I do not care how soon it may be proclaimed upon the

He leaned toward her, seeking to meet Mona's color rose, and then faeded quickly, while she looked steadily at her

"Then do not say it," she replied "Do you mean what you say?"

CHAPTER XXIII.

Back again at Craigdarroch, under the murky December clouds, black with the sobbing among the solemn pine trees and a good soul and a real gentleman. He Mona. driving rain, and the wild wind weirdly leafless oaks.

Winter on the west coast, though less shed almost summer brightness on the taken a fancy to the gruff, good-hearted John Lisle ?"

It was a dreary time for Mona. home. The smallness of the little group, and not want me. What a selfish idea. "May be to see you, cousin Mona."

ment exceedingly trying to the spirits. Mona was quite ashamed of her own depression a little before Christmas. She Here that gentleman's stick was heard and keep up a good fire therein. invitation to visit her at her home in Cumberland, when Mona was with Mme. Debrisay, which, under any circumstances, she would have refused, and since she had given no sign, neither had Lisle. And even Mme. Debrisay had not written for a fortnight. Mona had suggested a few weeks in Edinburgh to help them over the depth of the winter, but somehow Uncle Sandy did "not see it."

There was nothing for it but to endure the inevitable routine. Breakfast at nine, and a consultation with the cook-for "supplies" was a question of some difficulty; then a long spell of reading to her uncle; an escape which Mr. Craig slumbered for a couple it wiser and more respectable to be mar- his belongings, a pride which caused of hours, and Mona was free, if the weather did not permit of going out; a wark to the farm-yard or round the garden if it did: tea and the newspaper; more work or music on Mona's part, more sleep on Mr. Craig's; a little talk with like o' them to support."

live through another winter. At last the post brought excitementsurprise an entirely new set of ideas-

"My Dearest Mona,—I suppose you not think she has laid by anything, and side of her bodice, were her only ornathink me one of the most worthless and the time will come when she can work ments. ungrateful women in the world! Well, no more."

"It is all too pleasant to last," sighed work, and was refreshing myself with a be all the better for my work. It would Mona therefore, had to res- extended mechanically. "Go back to work!" cried the general. do me small good to sit here alone.'

You will kill yourself."

Mona therefore, had to restrain her ardor, and wade through long columns of local politics, before long columns of local politics, local politics, long columns of loca "Then it is a choice of deaths, Mon- felt the truth in the bottom of his heart; she could poor out her warm congratulasieur le General," she returned, laugh- 'that's just what I think,' and we each tions to her beloved Deb. ing. "But I am good for some years yet. drained a gobiet-no, I mean a cup-so as if out of his thoughts, 'I don't like to see you killing yourself." "Indeed I do not want to do anything of the kind; life is still worth living for heart!" he cried, fortissimo. "'Don't flatter,' said I. "'I do not-I never did,' said he. 'Now, I am rather lonely-so are you; suppose you come abroad with me and take care of me? It's not much of an offer to a handsome woman still in her prime, said stay. he, very civilly. "'My dear general,' said I, 'what would the world say?'

to go through a little ceremony!" "'Good gracious, general,' I cried, 'do you want to marry me?'

your mind, and I will come to-morrow Saturday. "But I do not want to speak to you for an answer. If you say yes, we might alone. I have nothing to say that the get things arranged, and start in ten days or so for Nice.'

> We are to be married at the registry of- which was most depressing to Mona. tic age when we might want to make a mise for a fine day. Already a breath a warm cloak. He is strong in wraps, and from that potentate-"Will bring a genis quite cheerful about being married. tleman with me. Best bedroom. Well, Mona, I'll do my very best to "Who can it be?" said Kenneth. make him happy and comfortable. He is "The lawyer, most likely," returned night on January 2, 1880. sends his love to you, and says he is i "I don't think he would give Mr. Cochquite ready and willing to adopt you at ran the best bedroom."

had been stolen from April and thrown age and experience would keep him up much of you, Mona. I daresay it will to the tempest-tossed earth to comfort to a proper pitch of amiability, but, and be Lisle." Debrisay anticipated. "She and the gen- not be! What would bring him up here Mary Black had been recalled to her eral will grow quite fond of each other at this season ?"

Lady Finistoun had written a pressing ition to the poultry-yard with Ken- do-something to anticipate. Even came in and threw himself, in his us- broken spell of monotony. ual style into his particular chair, "I brisay. She is going to be married."

he exclaimed, with severe contempt. "You are wrong, uncle; she is going Mona retired to dress. to marry General Fielden-who must be fifteen or twenty years older than she a fright," she thought; "if it is a strangis-a nice old gentleman, who wants er, my uncle will be pleased to see me some one to take care of him and make at my best." his last days comfortable; so they think "That sounds mair reasonable. Has the tween the love of a good appearance and general ony siller. These soldier men the love of pelf. scatter mair than they gather. It's just So she put up her rich golden hair in

"He is not rich," returned Mona, leav- creamy muslin over her black satin day alike. Mona did not think she could ing her uncle's abstract observation un- skirt, and tied an old-fashioned enamel answered, "but fairly well off-at least locket with black velvet round the for all they will want. I am very, very snowy throat which her open corsage glad of this news; for though dear Mad- permitted to be seen. This, and a large ame Debrisay has worked so hard, I do spray of red geranium and fern on one

dear, imagine me writing behind a big young lassie would think o't, an' it mak's hour at which the travelers were exfan to hide my blushes. About a week ago I had come in very tired from one of by first attempts to do my usual day's mair. I'll go doon to Glasga the week also got himself up with care.

after next, and see Mr. Cochran-that's fit by my bits o' property-but that's

"Dear uncle, you must think of Ken- following Kenneth into the hall, where neth first; then, if you like to remember at the open door stood "Wallace," a fine to muscles and tendons, as well as to me, I shall be very grateful."

"I'll not forget ye. But you mauna anger me; ye do sometimes. You are a braw lassie-that I am not denyin'but ye think too much o' yoursel' -ye think nae mon good enough for ye. There's you baronet-Sir St. John Lisle -he'd ask you to-morrow if you'd let him. I am auld and cauld, but I'm no sae dottled that I canna read what's in a mon's een-and he is a gran' gentleman, I'd like the folk to see Sandy

Craig's niece 'her leddyship." "But uncle, I though you despised and wouldna care for a tocher wi' his wife, son under my roof. This is my niece-I ing or chafed surfaces, sore feet, blisher mon."

going to write to madame-what shall but still unmistakably Leslie Waring.

bag; he'll hae the 'Scotsman,' sae ye feetly unmoved—while she could only "You are looking very ill,' he said, so must read a bittie first. I'm varra keen exclaim in an afitated voice—"Mr. War-

A brief interchange of letters ensued -extremely brief on Mme. Debrisay's side. Then came a pause, and the announcement in the "Times,"-"On the 29th, at the Registry Office, Paddington, General Fielden-to Geraldine, widow of the late Arthur Debrisay, formerly Cap- due to the judicious use of Baby's Own tain in the Kaiserin Marie Theresa Hus- Tablets. And there are many mothers it, there is a terrace, where the band plays urements, and the Department likes to sars-No cards."

It gave Mona a little additional sense of lonelieness to think that sea and land stretched so widely between "Deb" and herself, for, after all, Deb was her main-

Glasgow was postponed because he had suffered terribly. After the first day I caught a very severe cold and was ob- saw a marked change, and in less than dame Debrisay, if you have no objection liged to keen his bed. This was a very a week the trouble was entirely removed, trying time to the household, as the old and he has since enjoyed the best of man thought he was going to die, and health." You can get Baby's Own Tabdemanded endless attention. It was lets from your druggist or by mail at 25 "'I do,' said he, very stoutly. 'I therefore in the last week of January cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medyou again," said Lisle, in a low voice, haven't much to offer you, but I can that, encouraged by a favorable charge icine Co., Brockville, Ont. drawing near Mona, who sat at work by leave you enough for independence. We of weather, he set out on his traveis. "You are so heartless and have both borne the burden of the day, He only intended to be away two clear cruel. You never give a fellow the least so let us spend a peaceful evening toge- days, but on the morning of the second ther. I am a gruff sort of fellow, but Mona received a few almost illegible The Question, "When is a Man Twenty-"Chance of what?" asked Mona, not bad at heart, and I'll not growl more lines from him saying that he did not than I can help. Just turn it over in expect to get away till the following visit to his Mary-leaving only one work and never with correct result: "Well, my dear, I have said 'Yes,' morning and returning late the followand I think that I have done well ing night-an interval of utter loneliness fice as neither of us is at the roman- Saturday broke brightly, full of pro-an ancient veteran, an old comrade of Before Kenneth and Mona had risen enough. When he has completed his General Fielden's, is to be his. I think from the breakfast table, where they 21st anniversary'; 'at the beginning of the dear old fellow is quite fond of me. had sat longer than usual talking of He brings me presents every day; one Mary, and discussing how and when the the precise hour of his birth,' are other time a pair of gloves lined with fur, then subject of Kenneth's marriage with her a watch (it belonged to his wife, I im- could best be broached to Uncle Sandy, agine, but it is good and pretty), then a telegram was put into Mona's hands any time: so dear, you have not lost "If 'the coming man' is to have the There was something grand if oppressive in the stormy, threatening aspect of sky and sea seen through breaks in the swirds

There was something grand if oppressive in the stormy, threatening aspect of sky and sea seen through breaks in the swirds

The hotels and a much more potent friend. I shall see Phemie at once. The idea to reach his majority, we do not begin the oppressive with the moment of his birth, but with the moment of his birth, but with the moment of the day of his tariff. No one is expected to dine at his hotel the commencement of the day of his birth.

The hotels and a partments are fairly cheap, if calculated on the ordinary water-placing the commencement of the day of his tariff. No one is expected to dine at his hotel the outward actions, but the outward actions the outward actions the outward actions the outward actions the outward actions. of gray mist driven hither and thither Sandy must spare you to us when we er; if you would take the nets, Kenneth by fierce blasts from the broad Atlantic. | come back from Paris in the spring. Al- and get some fish, I think I could man-Now and then the sun broke through ways your loving friend., G. Debrisay." age a respectable dinner-yes, dinner it cloud and vapor ,and, dispersing the Mona read this important communi- shall be. Oh, Kenneth!" with a sudden fleeck wrack that tried to shut him out, cation with sincerest pleasure. She had look of dismay, "suppose it is Sir St.

wintry scene; while in the lull of the old soldier, and she thought it very pro- "And what for should it not be Liste" storm, one might imagine that a day bable that her dear Deb, with her cour- He is a very nice man, and thinks ferry her amid the glom and stress of winter she gave a little sigh, she doubted that "I hope not. He is frightfully particushe herself would gain as much as Mme. lar, and rather an epicure. But it can isolated as it were on that rugged hill- I ought to be ashamed of myself," she "He would not take that trouble," side, and the feeling that it was a work | thought. "I will go and write a letter she said, more to herself than to her of time, nay, almost of danger, to escape of congratulation, and I will send her companion, as she left the room to hold to the comfort and companionship of a poor grannie's cat's eye and diamond high council with the cook-to see to great city, created a sense of imprison- bracelet for a wedding present; it is the the rubbing up of what silver her uncle prettiest thing I have. I wonder will possessed—to interview the gardenermy uncle think of giving her anything." to set Jessie to prepare the best room, felt as if she was forgetten by everyone. tpping as he approached after an exped- It was reviving to have something to the nameless visitor proved to be Lisle, "Oh, Uncle Sandy," she cried, as he he would be welcome after such an un-

The rest of the day was busily cmhave just had a letter from Madame De- ployed till the shades of evening began to close-then, having seen the table set "Married. Aweel, there's nae fule like and duly decorated with flowers; the reached the age of 21 years."-Prof. an auld fule. I'll be bound she's goin' claret placed in the temperature where Wurts in New York Sun. to tak' some lad that might be her son," it was to be drunk; the drawing-room made pretty, and good fires everywhere,

"If it is Captain Lisle I need not look

She well knew Uncle Sandy's pride in a misfortun' to the country to have the becoming coils and short wavy braids, arrayed herself in a polonaise of soft

"That's true, Mona, but it's no every fied with herself, some time before the

"They are late, are they not ?" said BAD KNEE CURED BY ZAM-BU my man o' business-aboot puttin, a Mona, and as she spoke the sound of my man o' business—aboot puttin, a mona, and as she sport leard.

codicil to my will. Ye see, I hoped and approaching wheels made itself heard.

"No," he returned; "the train must A Footballer's Valuable Experience."

be solved!" cried Mona, rising

Uncle Sandy descended in a very dislocated fashion from the phaeton, with Kenneth's help, and advanced to meet Mona, who kissed him kindly. "I'm awfu' weary," he said; "I hope meeting the travelling cap pulled over Zam-Buk a blessing to humanity. his eyes, effectually concealed his face. Such it has proved on many occa-

took off his cap. As he bowed, the strong jes, it is a veritable boon. For house-For a moment or two Mona felt blind

'Eh, my best respects, an' I hope a and dizzy, so great, so sudden was the madame, one gusty, cheerless afternoon, cup of tea, when in walked my general. blessing will licht on her new undertak- surprise. Then she recovered herself all pected pleasure," and took the hand she

(To be continued.)

enjoyed by their little ones is entirely vieve, Que., says: I feel sure Baby's Own Tablets saved my baby's life. When Mr. Craig's intention of journeying to could only be moved by injection, and he

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY.

one Years Old?"

"The question appears ridiculous to some and makes them laugh, while neth took advantage to pay a flying others set their alleged common sense at

"One student says: 'On his 21st birthday,' but of course he does not mean it. for he is about a year out of the way. Another ventures: 'On the 21st anniverreligious festival of it. Herr and Frau of spring came with the sea breeze to sary of his birthday.' This sounds beters by saying that they are all wrong.

"In computing time it is a general rule that the law disregards part of a day. In applying this rule, suppose a man was born one minute before mid-

"At midnight he had lived but one minute, yet the day on which he was born was ended, and the law considered him one day old. So in computing the 21 years which a man must live in order how this was. He said that they could not first moment of January 2, 1880, it is as a separate concern. Every one pays in not seek to have the work at cheapest fur look, the impure imagination. Perperhaps natural to say that this man cash for what he consumes there. This is did not become 21 years old until the close of January 1, 1901. Mathematics a bore. A tip is expected by the head waiter, ally speaking, this is true.

"Twenty-one years in that sense requires that the last moment of January . 1901, should have arrived in order to make the man of age, and, obviously, he was of age at that point of time.

But here again the rule is applied "As the man was of age the last moment of January 1, the law disregards the entire part of the day intervening between the first moment and the last. and consequently he became in law 21 years old on the first moment of January 1, 1901, the day preceding the 21st anniversary of his birthday.

"This rule is a part of what is known as the common law, and is applied in this country in all States where the common law of England has been adopted, and remains unchanged by statute. A man may vote or make a valid will on the day preceding the 21st anniversary of his firthday, though the right in the one case and the capacity in the other is given only to persons who have

Good Fellows to be Found. (Philadelphia Record.)

The girl who marries a fellow to reform him seems to lose sight of the fact that there are lots who don't need re-

THE PARTY OF THE P

"Now then the mystery will soon. As an example of the value of Zam-Buk in cases of abrasions and injuries black colly, barking an uproarious wel- the skin, the recent experience of Mr. clothing to a science, have tabulated E. Leslie, of Harriet street, Winnipeg, statistics of the sizes of clohing worn by may eb mentioned. He says: "Wnite the inhabitants of every State and Terplaying football I received a kick on the knee. I had had previous trouble enabled readily to supply clothing for with that knee, and expected that I the popeld r mw bk za mbfao bmbzaza would be laid off, unable to walk, next the people of any section, and not only day. I rubbed on some Zam-Buk how- of the particular kinds required best in darting a curious look beyond him at a ever, and, to my surprise and pleasure, just the required sizes. By the courtesy gentleman who was in the act of cross- it prevented all serious consequences. of manufacturers who have gathered ing the threshold—a man not much Before I had used the second box the such statistics the naval clothing factory above middle height, wrapped in a loose knee was quite cured! Now, I always has access to information that would ulster, the high collar of which almost carry a box when travelling, for I think quite naturally be denied to other peo-"Eh, they are just senseless toys, but He came forward under the lamp, and sions. Made entirely from herbal es-I canna pit them oot o' the world, and turning to him, Mr. Craig said with sences, it is a purely natural balm. Ec-

me and mine. Then a fine rich man "I'm varra glad to see your mother's back or loins, piles, scaling sores, itchzema, ulcers, abscesses, sores on the and so I'd hae mair for Kenneth — was near saying my daughter—Miss tered or chapped hands, sore nipples— articles of clothing are not made in bruises, scalds and everyday skin injurber mon."

was near saying my daughter—Miss tered or chapped hands, sore nipples— articles of clothing are not made in bruises, scalds and everyday skin injurber made in sizes enough to fill all normal took off his cap. As he bowed, the strong took off his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took off his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. As he bowed, the strong took of his cap. her mon."

took off his cap. As he bowed, the strong ies, it is a veritable boon. For houselight fell upon him, and Mona found hold use, nurses, doctors and mothers so that from the clothing regularly ough to talk about refusing Sir St. herself face to face with Leslie Waring, everywhere give it a good word. Of its made and carried in stock the factory John Lisle when he asks me. Now I am greatly changed and looking years older, value to athletes the above case is but can supply 95 per cent. of all deone example. Sherring, the winner of mands. the Marathon race, used Zam-Buk while Some clothing, of extraordinary sizes training, and uses it for bruises, sore or of very unusual proportions, is made feet, and as an embrocation. The lead- for the individual users. If such should ing athletes of the world have expressed be required after a vessel has started on their appreciation of its value. All her cruise, it can be made abroad, by druggists, at 50e per box, or post free the ship's tailors, enlisted men who are from the Zam-Buk Company, Toronto, permitted, outside of their regular duty upon receipt of price: 6 boxes for $2.50. hours, to do such work, for which they Send one cent stamp and full name and receive pay from the sailor. All ships address, and free sample box will be mail- carry, besides their ciothing stock, sup-

LIFE AT MARIENBAD.

tumn by Austrians and Poles. posing edifice, nor is the colonade where get the collar of a jacket a little too tation in saying that the good health that contains the main spring is not an impeople walk when it rains. Before this narrow or too wide, or in some other colonnade, and stretching comewhat beyond garment depart from the standard measwho do not hesitate to say that at critiin fine weather, and the water-drinkers promhave its sailors' apparel uniform in apcal periods the Tablets have saved a of square, where the Hotel Weimar is sitbaby's life. Mrs. Wm. Fortin, St. Gene- uated, and there the King resides during his clothing factory. stay. It used to be a somwhat second rate Among the odd things turned out by hotel. But it has been improved, and a large the factory are baseball suits and prison suite of apartments has been arranged for I first began giving them to him he the King. The newspapers say that his Maj- suits. The Navy Department gives an was so badly constipated that the bowels esty was mobbed on his arrival when taking athletic equipment to every ship. There hang about Buckingham Palace on the chance | the various insignia of rank worn on sailthe waters. In London a crowd collects are made here also the rating badges, of seeing him. The people in Marienbad and jors' uniforms. from the neighboring villages are equally The naval clothing factory is modern > plaints with which they imagined that they with certainty and despatch, no fashionable tollettes, no dinner giving, and working up and down like a sewing evil and for all good-to pluck eareless and no amusements, with the exception of machine needle, but much faster, making or the member of the family of an ex-Sov- in any direction. has always been due to their thinning pro-perties, but this, I take it, is rather due to from which working trousers and jackse regime, and if adopted by a fat person ets, or jumpers are made, or eighty anywhere would have the same result. The thicknesses of white duck; and the knife literature in the booksellers' shop windows consists largely of pamphlets dealing with adipose matter on the human frame. I have read some of them. They are all based upon | trousers cloth, or twenty thicknesses of the fat man, it appears, may eat fat as butter, diminish their bulk. I asked a local doctor ant, although attached to an hotel, is run the garments there. The factory does themselves in the obscene jest, the lustconvenient; but there is one custom connected with the system which is somewhat of by the waiter who serves, and by the lad who small, but this division of tipping is a nuisance. For some reason best known to the subjects of the Emperor of Austria and King is probable that the number of persons of the town there are many, and gardens these clothes is about 400. slight refreshment is permitted after a walk between dinner and supper. There is one in a large hall in an evening. Prizes are value, which are selected by the winners s wonderful. I recomend this game to those who cater for the amusement of visitors tance in safety. at English watering-places. There is a good! The bales are all compressed somewhat seems to be gaining ground that the best each bale is wrapped in a waterproof combined wisdom and comfort of the motor for a tour is one of comparatively covering, over which is sewed on a cov- nursery has produced. small horse-power and very lightly made its long chassis, is apt to develop sea-sick- Paymaster J. R. Sanford, under the dirness, and is far more dangerous where there ection of the General Storekeeper of on one side. The King does a good deal to make the rest cure what it is intended year averaged 30,000 garments a month, encouraging motto, "Never mind, it will real or imaginary. I once tried one out of W. Sun.

curlosity. The patient is introduced inco obtained from a neighboring morass; in the this color does not suit their come. and are very simply dressed. They are

The clothing dealers in New York city who have reduced the manufacturing of ple in the trade, and it is now a quar-ter of a century's experience of its own.

plies of all sorts of cloths and materials, which can be issued as required.

It used to be that many sailors made their own clothes, and there are still Frequented in Summer and Early Au- some sailors who do this, but the De- by partment discourages this as far as it There are thousands of mothers The town of Barlanbad is chiefly composed throughout Canada who have no hesi- of hotels and lodging-houses. The building the sailor making his own clothes may the sailor making his own clothes may come to us and strengthen our wills, con-goodness grow and the glory shall be Thine eternally. Amen.

in its equipment. It has all the various Marienbad has or long beeen frequented the inspection and testing of cloths and in summer and early autumn by Austrains other materials used, and the cutting Holiness is God's power to man, and and Poles, but there used to be few of the of all garments is done with an electric man's power with God. Thus they betook the waters, some of various com- knife, an implement that does its work come co-workers. Every man who dwellwere afflicted, most because they were fat. The electric knife has a thin, slender and wanted to become thin. They got up blade, set vertically in the implement early and went to bed early. There were blade, set vertically in the implement a pretty little theatre where operas and 2,000 sarokes a minute. There is a handle of wrath, lifting them up into the sweet the performance was always over by about at the back, which can be2grasped as eashalf-past nine. Occasionally a foreign roy- ily as a pair of shears could be held, alty, generally rather a secondhand royalty, and by it the knife blade can be guided than a bruised reed; with it, we are like the slightest attention to them, The neigh- They lay down on a cutting table a which will stand unharmed the hottest boring watering-place of Carlsbad was far large number of thicknesses of cloth, siege; at the same time, raining like a grander and far more fashionable. The one upon another, with the pattern in hailstorm red-hot balls from the magawaters of the two places are, I believe which they are all to be cut marked on gine of the Gospel on an armed world bad they are hot and at Marienbad they are the top layer, and then the cutter goes against Christ.—Rev. W. H. Wilson. cold. Of course, the waters are said to work at them with the electric cutting knife, wonders in regard to many maladies. They cutting all at once, and exactly alike. may, or they may not. Their chief repute They cut eighty thicknesses of deninm, > overshirt, flannel, forty thicknesses of When the garments have been cut out they are done up in bundles of uniform numbers, according to the kind of garment or the thickness of the material, together with the buttons and buckles and thread and silk and whatever othby good workers. It gives the work as far as possible to may be that the more subtile sins of temthe families of veterans. There are on per and disposition are as hateful in the the pay-roll of the factory-about 100 sight of God as these. But certainty operatives, many of whom engage in the there is no class of sin whose destructwork other members of their families. It live character is more clearly marked

When the finished clothing comes it is inspected and then packed in boxes |er to be uttered for shipment, the number of garments plication, is that of the Paulmist, "Crefamiliar in British nurseries, is played to a bale depending again on their char- ate in me a clean heart, O God."-Robacter and the thickness of their mater- ert Haddow. ial, while some bales are packed with from a long table in which they are dis- solid sizes of whatever the article may played. A game lasts about an hour, and is be and some are packed assorted; but shared in by several hundred players, and the bales are all made small, and so the excitement amongst them for the prizes packed that they will go to any disering of burlap. The naval clothing factory is managed by Paymaster William J. Littell and the navy yard. Pay Director John N. Speel. Its output for the last fiscal a total of 360,000 garments for the year, be all the same a hundred years from with a cost valuation of $717,366.75 .- N. now," but for all that it contains a germ

Two Great Cricket Records of 1906.

has never been seen to better advantage than day in all probability will have ceased to gregate than has even before been obtain-

> A Lack of the Age. (Guelph Mercury.)

Rock, Church, Kingdom.

(Matt. xvi. 16-19; 1 Cor. xv. 24-28.) Our grateful hearts rejoice to know That He who suffered here below Will always guard His flock; Him as the Christ we love to own; He is the Son of God alone; This only is "the Rock."

Those who comply with what He said, By Him into all truth are led; His Word they love to search. And such in every single place Become one body by His grace; And such He calls "My Church."

And in His church, wherever found, He makes these souls in love abound Who choose the path He trod: His love inspires their work and aim, While they at His command proclaim "The Kingdom" of their God.

Thus Rock and Church, and Kingdom In unity sublime and grand, While ages rise and fall;

Soon shall the Kingdom here begun

Pass to the Father from the Son,

And God be all in all. -T. Watson.

Thou living and eternal Spirit, who dost come to us fallen men for our defence and help, we pray that Thy power may be manifested in us mightily. Thou knowest the weakness and vileness of our hearts, Thou knowest the strength of evil thought and habit too long harbored and indulged. Unless Thou succor us, unless Thou uphold us and fight strongly for us, we shall be overcome sin and lost eternally. But Thou art merciful and omnipotent; it is Thy deadversaries and help us to lay hold of Thy strength and cling to Thee continually. Let the seeds of evil perish in our hearts and let the flowers and fruits of Holiness is power. It utilizes ability, fertilizes the soul and energizes the whole city the strength of all the parts of the machinery, so that the greatest amount appliances and apparatus required for of spiritual power may be expended in rolling back a revolted world to God. eth in Ged, and Ged in him, is an accommodated sense is God's man, which makes him apositive power against all souls from the incoming flood and storm serenity and protection of the Rock of Ages. Without holiness, we are weaker an impregnable and well-garrisoned fort,

What Holiness,

Sense of War With Soul.

certain indications which tell us how will cut all at once sixty thicknesses of the battle is going on at the time, When the flesh has the upper hand its dominance is manifested in the conduct. Its appropriate "works" appear. The catalogue of sins which the apostle sets and destructive forms of conduct into er trimmings may be required in the of the flesh are of four classes; sins of making of them, and then given out to sensuality, sins of superstition, sins of possible rate, but to have it well done haps it would not be true to say that these sins are deadlier than others. It actually engaged in the work of making the devil's stamp more deeply on our very frame and features. A prayer for

To-day's Troubles.

desire to grieve over spilt milk, and that deal of motoring at Barlenbad, and the roads in a hydraulic press, to save space, and clear from the number of maxims that

"What can't be cured must be endur-ains out of molehills" is far less easy to practice than to preach Hardly cheerful on the face of it is the of true philosophy. We should be halfway toward equanimity if we could only realize how trivial and how transitory are many of the things which vex us to sic in the Master's words, "Come, yell rienhead in large numbers. The men are dressed in caftans, and have long curls on each side of their cheeks. Many are red-haired, and this color does not suit their neral of John the Baptist, and the trial of their faith, with the sorrow of their rectaurants, where only Kosher food is to be obtained, and they nearly all live in one particular street. Passing through it on Friday evenings, every room is seen lighted up with four candles placed upon the centre table.—Cor. London Truth.

"Rest Awhile."

A Wellandport school teacher has committed the unpardonable offence. He has laid knew how to inspire them afresh; for a few more free sons could be pounded occasionally we might see an improvement in the manners of the rising generation.

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO