The good old summer time has passed away and now we have indications that winter is fast approaching. The leaves are falling off the trees dry and withered by the frosts of a few nights ago. October will soon be ended and then comes the first month of winter, November followed by December and then the year is ended, how time is passing. No wonder we are getting older for the hoary frost of age is telling its tale on a good number of the human family.

This is a busy season in our town. The railroad in course of construction is progressing fine. The big hill on Colin McLeans is getting lower and the dump getting higher but will take a long time yet before its 27 feet high the late rains put a stop to the work on the hill for a few days but is expected to be resumed again in a day or two. The steam shovel is busy doing its powerful work but will be kept busy yet for some time on the dump north of our town. Men and teams are wanted, teams more specially for without the aid of the good old horse the work progresses slowly.

We have 3 blacksmiths now in our town, James Watson a former resident has begun in his old shop in the lower hall (Watsons). A new barber shop has been opened by young Swallow of Durham. The swallow is the smallest bird amongst the tribe but the swiftest on wing. So Mr Swallow is an up to date barber and no doubt will be patronized by all requiring his service.

The Rev Mr Matheson is to preach Anniversary sermons at Corbett next Sunday and the Rev Mr Ross of that place will fill Mr Matheson's pulpit in this town same day.

The new pastor of the Baptist church, the Rev Mr Klipp is a good speaker and his discourses are always appreciated by his hearers. The Rev Mr Roach preached Thanks giving sermon on Thursday last in the Presbyterian church in this town.

Miss Annie McMillan, of the south line, who had her arm broken a couple of weeks ago, is improving fast and will be alright in a few weeks.

Miss Kate McIntyre, of Toronto, visited at her mother's, Mrs McIntyre, south line Glenelg, for a few days last week and returned on Monday of this week.

Arch McKinnon (John's) attended the Woodbridge fair on Thanksgiving day and reports having a good time with friends in that locality.

Mr and Mrs Hugh McLean and son late of Montana, are at present visiting friends in Glenelg and Durham before moving to their farm bought recently in the Township of King, County York. Mr McLean sold his property in Montana for $7700.

Mr Arch McArthur, of near Hamilton, but formerly of the Durham Road, Glenelg, is visiting friends in this part for a few days lately.

Mr David McNicol, Ex-M.P. P., visited his friends, the Nichol family west of this place lately. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss McNicol, daughter of Mr John McNicol, of the Finance department, Ottawa.

Miss Ida Williams, of Toronto, was operated on for appendicitis lately. Miss Williams spent some ten or eleven years with Mrs John Mather near this place when a child, and all who formed her acquaintance are anxious to hear of her speedy recovery from this common and dangerous disease.

The offering on Communion Sunday in the Presbyterian church here for Missions amounted to $80.

It is time some family or another should look after Mrs Jas McDonald Sr., of the south line, Glenelg, as the venerable lady is now nearing her 88th year and getting very feeble, it is a shame to have her living alone in a Christian community. She is not altogether destitute of means to keep her yet for a few years, and it would be well for those business it is to look after her to do so without delay, as she may be found dead some morning by those two young ladies, who made it their duty to look after her during summer.

Some weeks ago the cabin of Wm Seaton, at sideroad 40 NDR, Glenelg, was entered and a bran new suit of clothes besides other things were stolen. This was a mean act as Bill is a harmless fellow and any one committing the deed would do anything by way of theft, and it found out should be placed behind the bars for his or their smartness.

A Few Don'ts.

Don't be reckless, especially in your living.

Don't give to the Lord and then go out and rob the widow.

Don't acquire the borrowing habit, or the day will come when you will run out of friends.

Don't marry an indolent man expecting him to brace up, or you may have to take in washing to pay for the brace.

Don't be so mean minded that you can see no good in a man. He may be the first to loan you money in time of need.

Don't lay up everything for a rainy day and go hungry all through life. Besides, where you are going it may never rain.

Don't spread butter on both sides of your bread just because you have $3 in your pockets. An earthquake may come along and shake the change out of them.

Varney.

The bridge, in lover's lane has been repaired, some ditching is badly needed from the old cheese factory to the creek, evidently the path-master or reeve do not use this highway.

Mr Long is not very well these days but we hope will, soon be O. K. again.

Dayy Allan is assisting Mrs Crawford during the absence of the host.

Proton Agricultural Society's show was in Dundalk on the 11th and 12th but poorly attended from this neighborhood on account of the snowstorm.

Died on Friday evening, Mr John A Cooper, one of the Proton Councilors, at his home near Ventry in the 48th year of age. The funeral was on Sunday to Ventry. Mr Cooper has been ailing for some time with several inward complaints. He leaves a wife and three daughters to mourn his departure.

Hugh McLean and Rich Parslow, of Toronto, are home from the western harvest fields. Being steady young men they did well.

Proton Council held a meeting in Bilton's hotel on Saturday, 20th inst., to accept a number of petitions for taking the vote on local option at the coming January elections. The petitions were granted and the vote will be taken. They also decided to have an election to fill the place of the late Jno A Cooper, a step many think unwise as they might have run the year out with four and save the expense.

Election talk is in evidence once more. Reported that Reeve W Bell is not standing again as it is almost that all who strove to keep McArde out of council was to have a year each as reeve. D McKenzie, of Cedarville, and Jas Corbett of the old survey, near Dundalk, are said to be canvassing. McArde has been asked to stand for reeve again, his chances being supposed to be good as he is outside of ring influence, but cannot say if he will accept. It is felt by many that the disgraceful revelations in connection with the London elections have their counterpart in other places.

Mr Henry Goben of the 15th Con., has gone to the Northwest to see and assist the surviving members of his brother's family.

Mr Geo McLeach has left here for a while and gone to Toronto.

Mr and Mrs Dongal Clark of Durham, spent Thanksgiving with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs John Vessie.

Mr John A. McDonald of Galt, formerly a blacksmith at Tobernory corner passed through here on Friday last.

Wonder why Bill did not go West this fall. The attraction out East of here was too great, I suppose.
