PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Davey a former teacher in Durham School spent Thanksgiving as a guest of Miss Margaret Gun. Mrs Dr Gun spent Thanksgiving with her mother in Galt. Miss Maggie Gadd came home from Toronto to spend Thanksgiving with her mother. Mr C. McKinnon left for Port Arthur on Monday and will return shortly to ship more horses. Mr and Mrs Munro Sutherland of Toronto spent the holidays here with Mr and Mrs W. B. Vollett. Miss Olive Thompson spent a few days with her aunt Mrs Gadd last week. Miss Allie Blackburn, at present a student in London Normal School was home for Thanksgiving. Mr Wm Mountain left a few days ago for London where his brother-in-law, Mr Jno Watson is said to be seriously ill. We hope to hear better news. Mr Herbert Ball left on Monday to resume work at Stratford, having gained in health rapidly in the bracing air of Durham. Mrs J. Jenkins daughter of Mr and Mrs Samuel Lawrence left Monday for her home in Kamloops, B. C., after a four months visit with her parents. Mr Will Davis son of License-Inspector Davis was home on a Thanksgiving visit, and has returned to his duties at Midhurst where he has a railway position. Mrs Anderson, Portage La prairie, sister of Mrs C. McArthur, with her two children returned Tuesday after a few months visit among her many relatives. Mr J. A. McDonald, of Branchton, was in town for a few days last week. Forty years ago he was a blacksmith at Tobemore and no doubt some of the old timers will remember him. Teachers home for the holidays were Misses Edith and Maggie Grant, Rosalie Brooker, May and Susie Mc. Clocklin. Students with the same object were Peter Ramage, Arch Davidson, Joe Reid. Miss Mary Gordon, Ferguson and her brother Roy, at present a medical student in London, spent Thanksgiving holidays here and at their aunt Mrs Henry Seeley, Glenelg. Miss McLeod, of Harrington, sister of Mrs Seeley, accompanied them. Messrs Geo Binnie and Thos McFadden, both Directors of the Canadian Cooperative concern in Hamilton, attended a meeting there on Monday. Mr John Whelan is President and Manager of this institution which is very successful, doing a business of $100,000 a month. Mrs Dean, of Toronto, visited her sister, Mrs John Wright, over the holiday.

The Women's Institute will hold the last meeting of this year on Nov. 1st at the home of Mrs C. Gray, Topic "Making of Christmas gifts."

The Harvest Home Services in Trinity Church on Friday were very successful. There was a full church and pretty emblematic decorations of fruit, grain, &c., gave character to the assemblage. Rev. Mr. Carlisle, B. A., is a worthy exponent of gospel truth and took his text from the Book of Psalms, a book which had inspired men in all ages and climes, which led up to Jesus Christ, from which the Divine sufferer had drawn comfort in his agony. It was a book of the inner life which every one could read, a marble staircase, unworn, though millions had trodden on it. "Gift and return" was the law of the book it gave before it took and the same principle should be observed in our social or spiritual nature. He rehearsed the spiritual gifts God had bestowed, reviewed the blessings of the year, showing how much more we have to be thankful for than David, and urged all to give the sacrifice of thanksgiving. Appropriate music was rendered by a fine choir and the solos of Messrs Mitford and Coleman were much enjoyed.
