W FLEET.

ROUND WILL BE IN CRTH SEA.

s New Pian Due to categical Influence by ill Increase Striking e Navy.

8.-Agitation against

f strategical influ the late war, nemy than any of

it may not satisfy

IN MINE.

PA.

we Been Fired by Bigs - No Damage es of Snaft.

nd other parts of place in heading distance from the was fired by the

AMARALAND.

entation on Wire-

the conference on a discussing the vocates the reprepower shall con which would place

ee. The Morning ly expects Britain

DNSUMPTIVES.

Appropriate $225,nitarium.

9.-The board of for the municipal im at Otisville. ere are now 75 The additional ble the institution

iere were 137.06 New York City

HEALTHFUL, DELICIOUS

AND CLEANLY PREPARED.

is all PURE Tea, and is rapidly taking the place of Japan teas.

Lead packets only. 40c, 50c and 60c per lb. At all grocers.

Won at Last

Kenneth to Mary, who blushed vividly, He had not worried her with any and saying, "If you like," rose and went | expressive looks or words which insinuto find her hat.

room Mona's eyes met those of War- was nearly as well pleased with the ser- duct. She would be a kind, pleasant ing. They both smiled, and she felt vices of Miss Black-nearly, not quite; friend while they were together-and afthat Kenneth had been very confidential and when in a talkative mood, he used ter! Then, indeed, would come anguish to his new friend in their frequent inter- to describe the wild beauty of his Cali- and despair-a brief parting, probably to holding up a book." "With pleasure; What shall it be? The papers?

"No, a book-any book." "Do you deign to read novels?" "I have liked some novels."

"We have nothing very new, but here is a volume of essays - Freemans Es- tween them. Her voice never sounded so says, which are more interesting than many novels. Perhaps you have read or sung to him. But they were rarely ano.

some queen of romance was condescend- the invalid most. ing to comfort her wounded servant!"

He bent his head, and so disarranged on", 'Another, please, another."

Mona gently replaced them, and be-

Suddenly Waring opened his eyes and "municipal" government, and presently fixed them on her for a moment, with a Mary put in her head. look of pain and sadness-but only for a moment, the next, he exclaimed-"You thought I was asleep, but I was I'm going with him," she said. "We will not; I was only dreaming heavenly be down the drive."

ing her head. "I can repeat the two last sentences," said Waring, and he did so. "I like books better than I did," he continued. "I used to be an awfully stupid chap at | "There is an article on the Soudan-" school. I fancy I was exceedingly youthful, not to say backward, for my | most negative "naws," which always tired; don't read any more. "I read much longer to Uncle Sandy; ute; then he roused himself. but you must have some jelly now. 1 "I'm thinking," he said, "that Mr. Les- is important everywhere, but particularwil get it for you."

exclaimed Waring. on a snowy cloth, and held it for him; nor did he eat it up too fast.

friendship to the test so soon," he said. Mona?" "This is not a test, returned Mona, gravely, "it is only the exercise of ordin- about him, uncle. Tastes differ widely, ary humanity.'

congratulations, and Mona left them to- home to offer. His-such advantage as he did on this occasion. Leslie Waring was associated with think you need trouble about Mary. As bears." perhaps the only well-spring of rom- to Mr. Waring, I dare say he admires ance that had ever bubbled up for him | her-she is very sweet and charming; in the somewhat arid plain of his life. To him there were but two really long. great men in modern society, they were Maceachern & Leslie-the creators of to have been connected. To have the it grips it hard and fast, and wilna let respect, and making himself pleasantly at home, was a treat to Sandy Craig's in. loyal, if rather rough heart. Waring's character and bearing too was calculated to gain upon such a nature as his hosts. Society of the higher order had left its stamp upon his simple, unaffected manners, and the ready courage with which he turned from a life of mere pleasure to one of hard work, when he had still enough left to idle on, delighted the sturdy old "man of the people." Waring was, to his idea, a sort of glorified incarnation of middle-class merit, the result of plebe-

appropriated the graces of good-breed-This satisfaction was reflected on all ian energy, which even conquered and

ing accounts—a crucial test which even hands, her elbows resting on the table, Mona dreaded-was accomplished with and fell into profound and painful out a single growl. Poor Kenneth's arith- | thought. metical errors were passed over with a Her uncle's words slight expression of contempt, in the denly bared the recesses of her term "blunderin' gowk," and the contra- heart, and lo! there lay an unsuspected dictions of Robbie Sanders, the garden- root of pain and mischief.

were overlooked. To Mona this was an unaccountably by her warm attachment to Kenneth, delightful break in the monotony of her | Mona did not doubt. That Waring adexistence. To be good friends with War-ing, to see that he was a better and a believe it was more than a kindly likstronger man than formerly, these were ing. sources of purest pleasure.

Suppose we go and find him," said . Then he was so very reasonable. fornian home quite eloquently. He really meet no more on earth.

veloped, beautified and ennobled it. of her most womanly heart; there was ing. Mona sung them easily and sweet- in about a fortnight," said Waring, as undoubtedly a friendly sympathy besweet, so expressive, as when she read asked, coming over to stand by the pi- feel sure of your strength," returned alone together. Mary Black was not "No, never! Would you mind sitting | behindhand in delicate attentions, and, oposite to me? I shall hear you bet- as Kenneth observed, both young ladies

To Mary, however, most of his talk usual." and good-humored chaff was directed. vice!" said Mona, a smile dimpling her He praised her songs loudly, and said fanciful? You will be writing poetry mouth. "Now, you must not talk, Mr. but little about Mona's, except now and next." then an imploring exclamation of "Do go

Uncle Sandy, however good-humored, did not admit of any neglect, and always demanded an hour or more of Mona's Waring listened, apparently with much | time after their early dinner, while she interest, and occasionally made an ob- read to him the better part of the famservation which proved it; then she her- ous "Scotsman." and some portion of the self became absorbed in the charm of Times' weekty edition, which reached style and idea, and she read on for some them every Saturday. Sometimes 1/artime without looking up. When she did | ing slept on the drawing-room sofa durso, Waring's eyes were closed, and his ing this exercise-sometimes he came to head rested against the pillow. Mona listen, while Mary and Kenneth disapthought he slept, and presuming, lest a peared; but occasionally the former took sudden break might wake him, read a her work and sat with the "ill mon." The few sentences in a carefully-subdued murmur of their voices while thus envoice, and then ceased and sat gazing at | gaged, with occasional bursts of merrihim with an expression of tenderness ment, came through the door of comand compassion of which she was una- munication to Mona one afternoon, as she toiled through a heavy "leader" on

> "Mr. Waring says it's so fine and bright, he would like a little turn, and

"Dinna let him do too much!" cried "That implies sleep," said Mona, shak- Uncle Sandy. "We will come along and

Waring was now permitted to take exercise, and was rapidly recovering. "What shall I read next?" asked Mona. "Naw." said her uncle-one of his lie is growing ower fond o' Mary Black. ly in my new abode. Do I like the idea of "Was ever any fellow in such clover!" They are aye at havers wi' ane anither, returning? Oh, I shan't be sorry to be at and I am no 'varra pleased. She's no work again; but the mere going will be Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Then she brought it, daintily set forth match for Leslie's grandson; and yet the awfully hard. I mean I shall be very lassie is a guid lassie. I wadna see her sorry to say good-bye to you all." vexed. He is a weel-spoken lad forbye- They were both silent for a few mom-

"I do not think Mary cares much "Then how-" he was beginning, when for him, you must remember that Mr. cattle and sheep to be looked after; and

"Hoot, toot," he interrupted. "It will be a fair home enough. Young Leslie is Uncle Sandy had rarely appeared to going to be a successful mon after a bit;" "I am sure I hope so; but I do not but these fancies do not trouble men

"Ay, the sort o' hempies you've been used to. But, my lassie, a real thoughtgrandson of one of these potentates un- | go. If young Leslie has let himself love der his roof, treating him with kindly our Mary, he'll no leave her behind him.

"Well, I do not think that Mary is in love with him." "I hope you are right," said her uncle, slowly; then, after a pause, he began to struggle to his feet. "Come," he said "we will go and meet them." "As it is but a short way, uncle, could you get on without me? I have never answered madame-I mean Mrs. Fielden's-last letter, and I should like to do so this afternoon. "So do, my dearie, so do. I'll just gang a bit down the road. Maybe I'll meet Kenneth. Mona escaped as quickly as she could to her own pleasant room, from the window of which she could catch a glimpse of the sea between two hills, and having hastily put out her writing materials, The monthly settlement of housekeep- she sat down, leaned her head on both

That Mary was completely guarded

The revelation to her was this. If a South Kensington aesthetic evening Waring really loved Mary, or any other woman, how was she to endure it? The party; but he is a very good fellow, a gentleman as regards keeping his word, mere idea filled her with despair. The terrible conviction grew upon her that and a first rate shot."

she loved her rejected lover with all the Another pause. Mona leaned her head against the back of her chair, and gazed warmth and tenderness of her fine rich dreamily at the moonlight, which slumnature, not in any half-hearted way, but glowingly, completely. She loved him for the straightforward, honest afbered in silver radiance on the opposite fection which made him hasten to offer

"When was Lisle here," asked Waring, with startling abruptness. "Oh, let me see. In the autumn- in September and October."

gagement, for the forbearance with "I suppose he is the same cool hand as when she had refused his love, for the "I see very little change in him, exstand he had made against his own folcept that he looks a good deal older." lies and weakness, and for the resolu-"And he has the family estate now! tion which he had cast off his attitude I dare say he will make a good landof lover to herself. She admired and lord. He understands his own interest."

loved his quiet, unpretending strength, "I have no doubt he does." his sunburned face, his big brown eyes "I dare say he will be in town when that could say so much if they chose, go there, but I shall not try to see him Never again could she touch his hand I have done with that world. without an electric thrill. She loved him! loved as she never before dreamed she could love, and all in vain. He had put it as you can be."

if to himself.

said Mona.

"It is a pleasant world when one in it, yet I do not regret it either." "You? Oh, you will flourish in it, I off the lover forever. She was from his life a thing apart; and he was, or could "I imagine I am as much cut off from

was to me, I can never forget."

Another pause. Then Waring proceeded to inquire for Bertie Everard and many hand, you will grow fond of it."

out of it, I shall be lucky."

"Competence is enough for any one,

Then they both blushed and there was again," resumed Waring, rather abrupt-

(To be continued.)

BABY'S GOOD DAYS.

medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing The Dr. Williams

Sells "Broken-In" Shoes,

(New York Globe.)

are partly broken in. These shoes are much

Distressingly Hard Luck.

(Philadelphia Record.)

"Yes. I know you do not care money," returned Waring, quickly.

"I suppose Lisle will be up

"No, no! Women like you must ways be at a premium-in an ornamen-"Then, I should have misunderstood tal, pleasure seeking society; some one him: we should have drifted apart, as will persuade you to enter the ranks once we shall now; but at least I do him justice. All that remains to me is to hide my own feelings (he shall never pity me), and bid him good-bye forever with tolerable composure. Forever! Ah! it is be, her whole existence. Yet, through all,

she did not regret that she had rejected her all he had in her hour of need. She loved him for the delicate consideration which had guided him in their brief en-

which he had offered her his friendship

She was not of the sentimental, weeping order of young ladies. She sat, very ated lover-like feeling. He liked her to white and still, and thought it all out, Kenneth followed her. As he left the | read to him, or to write for him; but he and resolved on her own line of con-

a hard, cruel fate!"

Mona, gently. "The doctor says that could have believed. He really had and collected her ideas. Then she wrote with Madame Debrisay when she was so 1. The number, type, quality and breed-"Now, what can I do for you?" asked had more in him than she at one time | Slowly she gathered herself together, you are to be amused, though not ex- grown quite good-looking, too (Mona a long, gossiping letter to Mrs. Fielden, ill." was keenly alive to exterior advantages), telling all the events of their little "Oh, if you would lap me in Elysium, and she often thought, as he lay back on world. This accomplished, she gazed read to me! I find I get awfully tired the sofa cushions, what an honest, strong critically in the glass, smoothed her hair, face he had, and how much the thought- and looked for her hat, hoping to efface of their former mutual acquaintances ful sub-expression of sadness it had de- any sign of emotion before meeting any most of whom were lost to sight, and of the party. Then the temporary weakness of his It so happened that Waring asked for ory strong frame appealed to the tenderness one or two particular songs that even-

"You have not had any bad news?" he "No. What made you think so?"

"Ah, that I can not tell! You look describe your home to be." so pale. There was something-I do ter. Do you know it seems to me as if vied with each other who should spoil not know what-in your voice that made home." me fancy you mere-not so bright as "Why, Mr. Waring, are you growing

"Perhaps I may! Do you and Miss Black never sing duets?"

"Oh yes, we have one or two. Would you like us to sing togethere" "Come, Mary, and try 'Oh, Wert Thou In the Cauld Blast.' I do not think we can do much in this way." When this was over Mary was called! to play chess with her host, Kenneth stole away to enjoy a private smoke, and Mona and Waring were effectually a silence of some minutes. "You are wonderfully better, Mr. Waring," said Mona, who for once was doing nothing, and sat ensconsed in a deep armchair, which was well in the shadowy recess of the window, away from the lamp, near which the chess players were seated, Waring somewhat weary after his walk, lounged on the sofa, from lighted window. I ought to be on the move."

"I am sure my uncle does not think "No, he has been wonderfully kind, though I have been troublesome enough to tire you all out.' "We are not quite tired out yet." "Oh, you and Miss Black are a brace medicines and most liquid preparations. may have any knowledge of the local these pills cure all common ailments like yourning, not to say back and most head as if it could stop a tor- of angels; and, in short, I must stay till The Tablets can be given with absolute conditions. seemed to Mona as if it could stop a continue is a strong as ever, which Donrent—and he sat in thought for a minmy arm is as strong as ever, which Donlangers, and it is being arranged to have one backaches and the special ailments of the child of advanced years. Sold by all

"I did not think I should put our new the sort to win ony woman's love. Eh, ents after this. Then Mona asked, in a One clerk who had earned the reputation "What is the chief work on a ranche." "There is so much that is chief. I you know. As to her being no match hardly knows which come first. There are Uncle Sandy came in full of pleasure and Waring has not much in the way of a fields (we have wheat fields) to be horses to break, etc., etc." "You have plenty to do, then.

"Oh, plenty, and then, lots of sport -such heaps of deer and birds and "Bears, That must be rather fearful.

Do they ever come near the house." "Yes, they come after the hogs. Part of our stock-a large part too- is a big drove of hogs.' "Your partner is not exactly a gentle-weak and sickly.

entire body.

blacksmith.

Blobbs-He's the most unlucky fellow Slobbs-Oh, lots of fellows have had their watches stolen. Blobbs-Yes, but not under such distressing circumstanes. He was just going to pawn it fit them on.'

A Boston schoolboy was tall,

His arms were soft and flabby.

The physician who had attended

To feel that boy's arm you

He didn't have a strong muscle in his

the family for thirty years prescribed

ALL DRUGGISTS; 50c. AND $1.00.

Scott's Emulsion.

would think he was apprenticed to a

NOW:

《公司》(1987年)

HORSE INDUSTRY OF ONTARIO.

INVESTIGATION BY THE ONTARIO DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

At the last session of the Legislature the Minister of Agriculture secured an appropriation for the purpose of making Mona laughed-a low, mocking laugh an investigation into the condition of the horse industry in the Province "How is that capital woman Madame Ontario. This work is now being un-Debrisay-I mean Mrs. Fieldon? I al- dertaken by the Department of Agriculture of Ontario, and will be commenced "She is very well, I believe, and must early in October. The object of this inbe at Biarritz by this time. Yes; she is vestigation is to obtain information to the kindest, truest soul. How good she be used in deciding as to the best policy to adopt to encourage more extensive "And I shall never forget her either. breeding of a better class of horses.

And Lisle-have you not seen him since." Following are the principal points "Not since the autumn, or early win- which will be considered in the course of ter. He called once or twice when I was the investigation:

ing of stallions and brood mares in the

2. What conditions have affected or are affecting the quality and number of stallions and brood mares in the various sections of the Province, and if the effect just approaching manhood who have is for good whether or not the some con- no energy, who tire out at the least the heirs of salvation; to rejoice in it were by no means dear to Mona's mem-"I suppose I ought to clear out of this ditions could be applied in other sections, and if the conditions have not a good effect what could be done to improve

"Do not think of travelling until you them. 3. What class of horses can most pro-Mona, earnestly. "It would be dreadful fitably be raised in different sections of to be laid up in such a place as you the Province under the natural conditions found in those sections.

"Home. It certainly is not one's idea of 4. The system of owning horses by a syndicate and any other plan at present "But if the place improves under your adopted in Ontario other than private ownership.

5. The views of horsemen generally as 'I suppose so," rather dejectedly. "Of to the advisability of a stallion inspeccourse, I do not intend to end my days "Oh, no! Of course not. When you

6. Suggestions from those interested in the horse business as to what can make a fortune you will come back to be done to improve conditions of the "A fortune. If I can screw competence horse business generally.

districts. Two competent and expert horsemen have been selected and allotted mittee appointed for that district. The pidly that I began to fear that consumption wearisome days and nights in nursing grievances that they have only "picked to each district. From five to six weeks from indigestion. I was failing so ra- wearisome days and nights in nursing districts will be composed of a number family doctor treated me, but I did not were never designed for them, that this of counties grouped together, the number making up each district being de- discouraged state when a friend from mended.-Christian Globe. cided by the length of time required to Montreal came to see me. He strongly go through a county. Each county will advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink require from four to nine days. The Pills. I did so, and inside of three information regarding stallions will be weeks I began to feel better, my appe-One of baby's good days means that as detailed as possible, each stallion in tite began to improve and I seemed to your child is thriving and well. Baby's the Province being inspected. The in have a feeling of new courage, I con-could see her profile against the moon- Own Tablets brings all good days into formation regarding mares cannot be got tinued the pills until I had taken ten your child's life, for they make little so accurately, but a great deal of infor- boxes and I am now enjoying the best his ones well, and keep them well. Mrs. mation can be procured from the stal- of health I ever had. My cure surprised thoughts-"that Is exactly what I have Jos. Ferland, St. Tite des Caps, Que., lion owners in each district as to the many of my friends who began to rebeen saying to myself. In short, I feel as says: "Since giving my little one Baby's number, type and quality of the brood gard me as incurable, and I strongly if I were staying here on false pretenses. Own Tablets she has been in splendid mares, the committee having an oppor- advise other young men who are weak health, is growing plumper every day tunity of confirming this by noting the to follow my example and give D. Wiland has beantiful rosy cheeks." These appearance of the mares seen while liams' Pink Pills a fair trial." Tablets cure indigestion, colic, constipa- travelling through the district. Regard- There is no mystery about the cures tion, simple fevers, teething troubles, ing the other matters of a more general Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make. These and all the minor ailments of little ones. I nature, information will be procured by pills actually make rich, red blood, which They do not contain one particle of the close observation and by conversation braces and strengthens every organ and poisonous opiates found in all soothing with those met by the committee who every nerve in the body. That is why > lined, it is being arranged to have one backaches and the special ailments of public meeting in each county at some women and growing girls. You can get point centrally located, and where a these pills from any dealer in medicine special interest is taken in the horse in- or from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., dustry. The object of the meeting is Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six to give any person who so desires an boxes for $2.50. opportunity of expressing his views to the committee. The meeting in each county will be held immediately after

"I sell all the shoes that have been re- the committee has completed the work turned." she explained. "The other girls in that county. In each Farmers' Institute district the secretary has been asked to assist in the work of procuring the names and addresses of the stallion owners and laying more comfortable than a brand new pair. out the most convenient route for the committee to follow while in his district. wait? Or he may be at supper and will the altar in even figures. The million-He has also been asked to accompany the committee, and to arrange for the there are others waiting, you count the any more than the rich man of Martin ly I sell shoes while the other girls only public meeting in the county. In cases the work, the president of the Farmers' and then as the minutes accumulate you rich young man, 'Sell that thou hast, Institute has been asked to make the begin to look at your watch and wonder give to the poor,' and then 'come and necessary arrangements. The dates and why he doesn't come, and how the sick follow me.' Christ had no more thought points at which the public meetings will one at home is feeling. There is gener- of spreading his cause by the money of ments have also been completed for the room, except when the bell rings and other. And the chiefest proof of Christ's be held have been selected. Arrangeand the points at which committees will know if the doctor is in. By this time the signs and wonders, but in the fact

The work should have the sympathy and co-operation of all owners of star-lions and of all who are interested in the pick up one of them, but you cannot service of man to man, without money, and co-operation of all owners of stalhorse industry. It is hoped that the concentrate your mind on it. You keep and without the power that money can committees will be given every facility for procuring the information required and that every person interested take advantage of the opportunity being given to express his views as to how the horse industry of this Province can best be improved.

A CALCUTTA MYSTERY.

Many Strange Theories to Account for a Bulge in the Pavement.

of the steps was found to have become loose. Immediately an immense crowd gathered on ghost lay his hand on those near him. Some superstitious Hindus went so far as to tay flowers and garlands on the spot with the object of worshipping Shiva. During the latter part of the day the crowd isrgely increased and traffic was much inconvenienced. The European police officer on duty had a lot of trouble in dispersing the crowd and the scene was altogether very amusing. People were sometimes running away for fear the ghost should devour them, and then coming back to the spot out of curiosity to coming back to the spot out of curiosity to see whether any further development had taken place. Indeed, curiosity and timidity were in conflict with each other throughout.

The matter was at last brought to the notice of the municipal authorities. In order to remove all doubts the place was excavated. At the time of excavation the people round remained spellbound and anxicusty awaited some timid Oorays ran away in fear. The coolies engaged in the work of digging were hesitating every moment whether they should proceed any further in their hazadous enter prise. But alas! There was nothing incide The portion of the footpath was dug up to the depth of some four feet but in vain.

The crowd had rather thickened and the excitement had not subsided. Some eight constables were appointed to clear the traffic

A fresh sensation was caused among the mmedans by the discovery below the flagging of the impressions of a hand-Punjab, as the Mohammedans say. This is the Mohurrum standard, certainly in Bengal, and a strong belief prevails among some of the is the tomb of a pir (saint), and it is taken by some as a sign of the return of Moham-

The prosaic explanation of the occurrence is that the flagging was laid some years ago above a trench of the old fort. It is assumed that an accumulation of water under the pavement caused a large flagstone to bulge, assuming the appearance of a tomb.— From the Calcutta Statesman.

LACK OF ENERGY.

Common Trouble Among Growing Boys-A New Blood Supply is Needed-Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make New Blood.

There are thousands of young men exertion, and who feel by the time they have done their day's work as though the day was a week long. In result All these young men should take George Matheson. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make rich, red, blood, clear the skin of pimples and eruptions, and bring health, strength and energy. Here is a appetite failed me, I had occasional vio- one is intended for my use before gain under his care. I was in a very sort of honesty is heartily to be com-anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion, neur-

WAITING FOR THE DOCTOR. How tiresome it all is. When you get there, breathless perhaps, because somebody is dreadfully sick at home and usefulness to mankind; the peace that needs the doctor in the worst way, you may be told that the doctor is out, but is expected in every minute. Will you and even though he shall lay it upon see you shortly. You sit down, and if aire of to-day may not buy indulgences number of people who are ahead of you, dalen: 'Go, sin no more,' and to the ally an awful silence in that waiting one sinner than by the money of ansomebody else comes in and wants to divinity is not in the miracles, nor in transfer from one institute district to the waiters are feeling mighty blue, that He knew that the gearing of the thinking hard thoughts about the callousness of the doctor. A few papers nium by money or by the power that and magazines are lying around and you the sound of the bell or the footfall of buy. Money has its place in our social the doctor. And what a relief when he does make his appearance. It feels as if does make his appearance. It feels as if lars never fed a soul. For souls grow ders, the world looks brighter, and as you see the man of medicine bowing you by service to one's fellow creatures." into his laboratory or reception room you forget the long, weary wait, and talk to him as pleasantly as possible, he never sinful children, praise Thy marvellous suspecting the uncharitable thoughts you grace in that Thou hast called us to the were harboring against him a few min- faith of Jesus Christ. We bless Thee utes before.

Give Capital a Holiday.

hand, said that the Block Hole tracks of the leader makes a point in his public utterance of emphasizing his conservatism, so on Capwho were cruelly mas- ital day the possessor of vast accumulations brave Europeans who were crising up to sacred by the Nawab Siraj were rising up to might dwell with convinsing earnestness upon the Nave Nawab Siraj were rising up to might dwell with convinsing earnestness upon thou hast given and pray that Thou has given and pray that the given and give hammedans. Another timid person invented a curious story which spread great constera curious story which spread great consterfor his associates, at any rate, to live better and broader lives. Under present conditer and broader lives. Under present conditer and broader lives. Under present conditions the millionaire is at a disadvantage at the last, may the reward of the stone pavement there was once a grave and at contracted with the spokesmen of the teless.

Shine Just Where You Are. Don't waste your time in longing For bright, impossible things; Don't sit supinely yearning For the swiftness of angel wings; Don't spurn to be a rushlight Because you are not a star; But brighten some bit of darkness By shining just where you are

There is need of the tiniest candle As well as the garish sun The humblest deed is ennobled When it is worthily done. You may never be called to brighten The darkened regions afar; So fill, for the day, your mission By shining just where you are.

Just where you are, my brother, Just where God bids you stand, Though down in the deepest shadow Instead of the sunlit land You may carry a brightness with you

That no gloom or darkness can mar, For the light of a Christlike spirit Will be shining wherever you are. -Exchange.

The Key of God's Silence, Thou who are crying for a new revelation of heaven art thou ready for thy wish? Would it be to thee a joy if there were revealed to thee the pleasures at God's right hand? What if these pleasures should be what the selfish man calls pain? Knowest thou not that the joys of love are not the joys of lovelessness? Love's joy is the surrender of itself; the joy of lovelessness is the keeping of itself. If heaven were open to thy vision, the sight might startle thee; thou mightst call for the rocks to hide thee, for the mountains to cover thee from the view. To make the revelation a joy to thee thou thyself must be every soul that can repoice to be a ministering spirit sent forth to minister to thee from that end. It is not death that demands thy change; it is life. It is not some of these cases there is a further | death that brings the change; it is the sign of warning in the pimples and dis- Spirit of the Christ. Thou needst not wait figuring eruptions which break out on for death to find thy change, for the the face. These are certain signs that Spirit too can transform in a moment the blood is out of order, and unless it in the twinkling of an eye. Blessed are is promptly enriched, a complete break- they who shall not taste of death until down or perhaps consumption may be the they shall see the kingdom of God .-

Thinketh No Evil.

She was a bright little woman, and when someone apologized for an occurrence at which she might have taken ofbit of proof. Adolphe Rolland, St. Jer- fence, sha laughingly disclaimed any ome, Que., is a young man of 9 years, such thought. "I am honest, you know, who says: "For more than a year I and so I never pick up things that don't suffered from general weakness, and I belong to me-not even slights," she the Province will be divided into eight gradually grew so weak that I was fore-said, merrily. "I don't like them, anylent headaches, and I began to suffer appropriate it." So many people spend

Wm. Allen White's Sermon,

The American Magazine, under its new editorship, publishes in its October number a remarkable article on "The Partnership of Society," by William Allen White, the brilliant Kansas editor, essayist and novelist. It is an essence of great sermon, full of stimulating and strengthening wisdom for every man and woman-so clear and seizing in its philosophy that it carries the awakened and eager mind along with absorbed attention to a splendid and uplifting conclusion. Every paragraph is as interesting as the following:

"Money does not pass current in the real world of service. It is false coin not accept it. For what God needs in service that comes from the God-implanted instinct to help one's fellows. The failures of this life may heap the golden high, and donate them to the cause of righteousness, and they will avail less than the testimony and the honest service of one poor man who has succeeded by living manfully. cheat and steal and kill and oppress their fellows, and then buy their way into the happiness that comes from real passeth understanding is not to be pur chased with stolen money, even though the robber shall present it as a sacrifice, world is not turned toward the milencomes through worldly success, but by Almighty God, we, Thy unworthy and for the redemption that is in Him, for the pardon of sin and the hope of life eternal. We bless Thee that our Lord

VITTAINIU ANCHIVES TORONTO