The School Board at its meeting on Friday last accepted the application of Miss Maud, of Culloden, the holder of a first class certificate, for the Continuation Classes here. She comes highly recommended.

THE RAILWAY AND THE SCHOOL.—Nothing definite has transpired since last week except that at a joint meeting of Council and Trustees, presided over by Mr Johnston, chairman of the School Board, it was decided to accept the offer of U. P. R. of $12000 for the school property. This belated acceptance has not been confirmed.

LET US KNOW.—A horse-race is an interesting event to some, but more of your friends are interested in any event that concerns you. If you go to a visit or friend, come to see if you, see that the fact reaches this office before publication day.

TRADE NUMBER.—Our confere last week issued a creditable "trade number" of the Chronicle. Printed on fine paper and richly illustrated, it forms an interesting souvenir. A Mr Ellis an old journalist, promoted the advertising features.

HICK'S ALMANAC.—Many of our readers must have heard of our Louis weather man, who has had either luck or skill in predicting earthquakes, storms, etc. His almanac is a compendium of useful astronomical knowledge, most interesting and instructive. Annual meeting of the Farmers' Association will be held in the Orange Hall, Varney, on Friday evening, 7th inst., at 8 o'clock for the election of officers and other business. Mr W. L. TALK UP DURHAM.—When a man in search of a home, a business location goes to a town and finds every body full of hope and enthusiasm over its prospects of the place, he, too, soon becomes imbued with the same spirit, drives down his stake and goes to work with equal interest.—This is Durham here and there.—This is Durham during the coming months are second to no inland town of approximately size in Ontario and much better than most. Talk up Durham and see it grow.

RETURN IT.—The postal authorities at Washington recognizing the inability of postmasters to make mistakes in getting letters in the wrong boxes, have fixed a fine of 200 dollars on persons taking mail out of the office other than their own and not returning it at once. This law also includes newspapermen. The excuses "that it is the postmaster's fault," "cuts other people's mail you had better get your own mail out of the office if you are not sure of it" "if you are not sure of it" "if you are not sure of it" "if you are not sure of it"

Town Council met on Monday evening to consider the dispute between the town and Farmington Co. regarding the $105.00 retained by the Co. in connection with their loan from the town. We are not posted on the merits of the case. The company offered $100 in settlement recently. Monday night they can see no reason why they should not get it all and on motion of Moran and Cochrane unanimously decided so. The matter will go to trial before the judge on Wednesday, if not settled sooner.

Address and Presentation.

On Thursday evening the 15th inst., the Fire Brigade met at the fire hall, and enjoyed a very pleasant time in speech and song the evening in honor of one of their members, Mr E D McClocklin, who had just joined the Benedictics. He was taken by surprise when the Chief read an address and the Secretary presented him with a well filled purse on behalf of the Fire Brigade. Mr McClocklin made a very suitable reply, thanking the boys for their kindness, after which lunch was served. Messrs L Bachan and T McClocklin entered to the wants of the Brigade at a very efficient manner.

The following is the address: To Mr Ed McClocklin. Dear Friend and Comrade,—

The members of the Durham Fire Brigade wish to approach you at this time with hearty congratulations at the step you have taken in entering married life. In the past we, with yours, have been through several hot times, and if we wish you a hot time through life we mean that it shall be that of love and lasting affection. In the strenuous duties of a fireman we have admired your valor and your domestic life we wish you and Mrs McClocklin many happy days together and your old comrades you may be sure will ever rejoice at your welfare.

We now ask you to accept this purse as a memento of kindly feelings to you on this memorable occasion.

Signed on behalf of the Fire Brigade: R TORRY, Chief L BUCHAN, Secretary.

Young Chap is This You?

St Catharines, like every other city has some young fellows that are getting themselves in shape to spend a useless life. They skip school as often as possible and leave it for good as soon as they can. They do not care to work and are more or less of a burden to their parents. It is a pity there is no law compelling them to do something. The young man who drops out of school early in the streets and runs with toughs, is the one who is most likely to fill a felon's cell or to be a convict in the penitentiary. He will be badly handicapped and the chances are he will be beaten in the race of business and of wage earning. No business wants an employee of this sort and he is never likely to be either well off or live to be a good old age. If he were married his wife would have to take in washing to keep him and he is most likely to fill a felon's grave.—St Catharines Star Journal.

The Free Press, London, Ont., covers the Western Peninsula as no other paper does. Morning edition and the Review both papers to end of next year only $3.30.

Father Shaughnessy. Miss May Shewell, who was attended groom, was prettily attired in a white silk blouse and gray suit with hat to match. The bridesmaid wore a white to silk blouse and navy blue suit with hat to match. The groom wore a tuxedo. After the ceremony the bride and party returned to the bride's home in Bentinck, where a number of about 125 guests awaited them. At six o'clock in the evening a sumptuous repast was served, after which they spent the rest of the evening in various kinds of amusement. The presentation of the bride and groom was shown the esteem in which the bride and groom were held. Numerous friends wish the young couple happiness and prosperity in their new home.
