Dr Burt, specialist in Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose & Throat will be at the Middaugh House, Durham for consultation on Wed., Dec. 5 from 11 to 4 p. m. Eyes tested Glasses fitted.

LARGEST SCHOOL.—Mr Crowley, Insp. of Continuation Classes examined Durham School this week. He found our progressive staff up-to-date, and admits it is the largest school in the Province, and good work being done.

SNOW.—This Wednesday morning, we have a light fall of snow following some mild weather which has saved feed for the farmer and prevented a rapid shrinking of the wood pile. Good sleighing now would suit everybody.

TEA MEETING.—Friday night of this week, the members and friends of Glenelg Centre Baptist church are having a tea meeting for which extensive preparations have been made. Addresses by Rev Mr Kipp, Flesherston and Collins and Farquharson of Durham, besides music etc. Tea served from 6.30 p. m. Admission 25c and 15c. Mr Geo Binnie in the chair.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—Rev Mr Elliott, President of the Hamilton Conference, was the eloquent preacher on the occasion of the Methodist Church Anniversary. He preached both morning and evening eloquent and instructive sermons to attentive and large audiences, and also at Zion, Glenelg, where he was much appreciated. Monday evening he delivered a fine patriotic address on Canada, her extent, manufactures, and people, mines and fisheries and other natural resources and altogether was one of the best we have heard on the subject and which every girl and boy should hear, as it would leave its impression on their nature and make them better and more loyal Canadians. The choir rendered three excellent anthems and Mr Metford, who is quite an acquisition to Durham's musical circles, sang two patriotic songs with fine effect. A pleasant evening closed by Revs. Farquharson and Newton moving and seconding in appreciative words their delight in the address of Mr Elliott.

The vaudeville farce "Uncle Dudley from Missouri" presented by the Barnett Bros. in the Town Hall last week was favored with a good attendance, being under the auspices of the firemen, no doubt helping to fill the house. The play was well presented some of the performers being stars in their line. From beginning to end the fun of the play consists in attempts at deception by a young scapegrace and accomplices to secure from "Uncle Dudley" grants of money. There are of course many funny situations, but decidedly poor morals, where lying and deception are set in brilliant colors and rewarded instead of punished. The firemen's funds were enriched by about $18.00.

The elections to the Advisory Council, of the minister of Education, a new feature of the Whitney educational policy, resulted in the election of Mr W. I. Chisholm, Insp. of Mr Bruce, to represent the Inspector's section. The four representatives of Public School teachers are Miss Harriet Johnston, Toronto, who was away ahead on the polling, Mr Pleasance Chatham, Mr Reid, Owen Sound, Mr Jordan, Port Hope.

MOTION PICTURES.—This species of entertainment never fails to move the public, if at all under creditable auspices. The exhibition of last Thursday evening was a great success from point of attendance and of interesting exhibits. The hall was amply packed as it often is now and the illustrated songs as well as the more stirring pictures were well received. The appearance of the British Flag among the flags of all nations Cloak Act was the signal for a great demonstration, while the "Dream of the Rabbit fiend" was the most amusing thing seen here for some time.

On Friday 22 November a happy event took place at the home of the bride's brother, when Miss Martha Young, sister of Mr John Young, of the firm of Young & Leslie, was united in marriage to Mr Fred Hessel, of London. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. Rev Mr Bethune performed the ceremony. The bride who was given away by her brother, Mr John Young, was gowned in white silk, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Both bride and groom were unattended. After the ceremony a dainty wedding dejeuner was served. Mr and Mrs Hessel left on the 3.45 express and a shower of confetti and congratulations for their home in London. The Sun joins in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.—O. S. Sun.

The bride in the above notice is a daughter of the late John Young of Norway. Her mother and brother Thomas were present at the wedding. Mrs Young remaining for a longer visit with her sons John and Ebenezer. The Review extends congratulations.

Obituary.

Saturday last, after a long, weary struggle with an insidious disease the spirit of Mrs Alex. McDonald left its earthly tenement and was at rest. For almost two years she had been a sufferer and exhibited a Christian resignation through it all. Death to her, was a merciful relief, though the separation inevitably leaves the home and loved ones lonely and sorrowing. The husband and family have the sincere sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Mrs McDonald was a member of the well known McClocklin family, born in Glenelg, her mother being still alive and making her home with her son Chas on the old homestead. Other brothers of deceased are E. T. Arthur and Fred of Durham and James of Flesherston, the sisters are Mrs Mark Wilson, Flesherston, and Mrs — of Passadena. Her own children are John in town; Thos in Weyburn, Sask; Allister, of Flint, Michigan; Norman Chas at home and one little girl.

Deceased was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, devoted to husband and wife and as a neighbor warm hearted and true. She was buried on Monday in Sault Ste Marie cemetery a large number of friends turning out in inclement weather to pay the last tribute.

Mr McDonald has asked us to convey his thanks to all who gave kind ministrations during the illness and decease of his wife.

Died at her home on the South Line, Artemesia on Sunday morning the 18th Mrs James Vause at the age of 67 years. Mrs Vause was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, Priceville and only two weeks before death she was in her seat at church, the cause of death was neuralgia of the heart. We extend our sympathetic feelings to Mr Vause and family in their sad bereavement. The funeral was a large one, Mr Matheson her pastor officiated at house and at grave, McKinno's cemetery, where she was buried. She will be greatly missed in the locality, as she was a kind and affectionate woman at home and abroad. Com. [The Review extends sympathy to Mr Vause in his sore bereavement.—Ed]

Annual meeting of the Farmers' Association will be held in the Orange Hall, Varney, on Friday evening, 7th Dec. at 8 o'clock for the election of officers and other business. A short program of songs, recitations, etc., will be given. Mr W. L. Smith, editor of "The Sun," who is doubtless a thorough posted editor in all subjects and "the former's champion" will be present for certain to give an address. A silver collection taken up at the door to help defray expenses, come and have a treat. every one welcome
