Taylor & Co., Dromore

Dromore.

Well Mr Ed. the fine weather of 1906 the past few weeks is making us think that this is not such a bad county after all, although a great many are complaining of the quantity of mud especially on main street which has been undergoing some repairs under the good roads system just lately out. We wish it had never come in, but stayed out, as far out of Dromore as the eye would carry. We hope in the future our township fathers will ward off letting jobs of that nature. At this season of the year, as we heard a man say the other day, that any man that would contribute to such a job like that ought to get 6 months twice a year.

Mr and Mrs Alf Garson, of Guelph, is at present visiting at the farmers parents who are at present busily engaged building a new house.

Mr Robert Isaac has been under the weather lately but is getting around again.

Mr Wm Hay has lately had a new coal stove put in by C. L. Drumm, of Holstein, and is now enjoying a coal fire. Andy says he is not going to run around hunting wood this winter.

Miss Battle Renwick left for Toronto two weeks ago where she will spend the winter.

We are pleased to hear that Miss Ida Lester is improving from the recent injuries received at the hands of a dumb waiter.

The Rev Thos Wilson, Walkerton, is going to give us a trip around the world on Friday evening next in Amos church. From the well-known ability of the lecturer, a pleasant time may be expected.

We would not have mentioned it, deeming it unwise to give publicity to a controversial subject between two congregations, but our attention having been called to a sneering remark in your Blyth's Corner correspondence in making reference to a meeting held here recently, seems to call for a word. Referring to the offer of Amos of $500 as his share, he remarks "a wonderful salary for a self-sustaining congregation." Now $500 may not be much for a congregation which stands, we say it not in a boastful spirit, second highest per family, and per member in our giving to missions, as per 1904 report of the Presbytery committee. We could easily have given more but in view of the new manse building, we think yet it was a fair proportion. But whether or not, it is our private opinion that had the motion of Knox, Normanby, not been of so dictative a nature, offering $400 on condition that we pay $600, which smacks something of Carnegieism, this latter amount might probably have been met. Then the spirit shown in referring back to their old amount, because we would not fall in with their proposal was not admirable. However as he says a good spirit prevailed and may yet, even if we become self-sustaining over it.

Mr David Sim died early Monday morning after a prolonged illness having been in the hospital for some years. His daughter (Mrs John Ross) and son Andy arrived from Wales, N. Dakota last week in time to spend a day or two with their mother before she was called away. The funeral was held on Wednesday. The sorrowing husband and family have the sympathy or a large circle of friends.

A number from here are arranging to take in the Annual Scotch concert in Mt Forest next week.

Quite a representation of the young people attended the Yeovil school concert last Friday night and report a very uproarious time.

Rev Mr Cassmore is holding special services at Yeovil just now and although the weather has been very unfavorable the interest is increasing.

Rev Mr Little occupied the pulpit at Woodlawn on Sunday and delivered an address at a teaming on Monday night.

Mr Jas Ellis, who has been engaged in missionary work in New Ontario and who was called home on account of the illness of his father Richard Ellis, preached in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday in a very acceptable manner, a large congregation being present.

The Methodist church is putting in a new organ purchased from Mr Richard Irwin.

hoysih poverty, when paper and ink were scarce almost beyond his reach and the words he wished to set down must be the best words and the clearest and shortest to express the ideas he had in view. This training of thought before expression, of knowing exactly what he wished to say before saying it, stood him in good stead all his life, but only the mind of a great man with a lofty soul and a poet's vision, one who had suffered deeply and felt keenly, who carried the burden of a nation on his heart, whose sympathies were as broad and whose kindness was as great as his moral purpose was strong and firm, could have written the deep, forceful, convincing words that fell from his pen in the later years of his life. It was the life he lived, the noble aim that upheld him, as well as the genius with which he was born that made him one of the greatest writers of our time.—Helen Nicolay in St Nicholas.

The true poet is the voice of the people and this is how the Khan expresses the feelings of many in the coming of the cold season:

For a week the flannel prickles you, It tickles and tickles you, It isn't half as smooth as this wee rhyme.

You're rasy for a while— "God bless the great Argyle!" In the interesting, searchful flannel time.—Bz.

CHRISTMAS 1906.

Some Holiday Suggestions

We now have our entire line on display and urge you to call and examine it as early as you can and as often as you choose.

We have an unusually good stock this year—gifts from every clime and quarter. We are certain that the assortment is the most extensive ever seen here. The lines noted in this advertisement will give little more than a hint of the array we have provided.

In the matter of price we have a big advantage, too. We bought largely, paid cash and bought for less than others and we give you the same advantage. If low prices on good goods is what you want you will certainly do your holiday shopping here. Please make it a special point to see the stock while it is complete. If you see anything you want to secure it will be laid aside if a small payment is made.

LATEST BOOKS

Our present stock of books is the finest we have ever had. You cannot miss it in giving books. Our prices always low are lower than ever this year.

CAMERAS

Where young folks are the recipients, never forget cameras—they always please. Have good ones from $1 up. Better choose early to insure getting the one you want.

PICTURES

These make superb gifts. We have a new line this year and every one of them is a gem. Many of them are productions of the best works of old masters.

DESK ACCESSORIES

These are always desirable gifts and the line affords wide selection as to price. Fine Box Papers, Paper Weights, Ink Wells, Fountain and Gold Pens, Desk Sets, Fancy Blotters, etc.

Make a memorandum of those to whom you will send presents. In looking over this or any of our succeeding ads if you get suggestions of gifts suitable for some of those on your list, note them opposite their names, then when you come in to see the goods you can concentrate your attention on the lines you have noted. Try this plan this year.

GAMES & TOYS

We have a separate department for children's gifts and it includes all the new as well as all of the old favorite toys, games, etc.

CHRISTMAS CARDS

These will make pretty tokens of good will to send to different friends. Most of those we show were imported from Germany and are extremely artistic.

SMOKERS' GOODS.

Our magnificent assortment of Meerschaum and Briar Pipes is the envy of every smoker. Prices very low. Have cigars to suit the most critical taste in boxes of 25 and 50. Special prices by the box.

CUTLERY

All boys, most men and some ladies would like to receive a Pocket Knife. Ours are all guaranteed to be satisfactory.
