The Care of the Skin

"A beautiful body presupposes a healthy body, in perfect condition for its use, embracing color, texture, animation and intelligence," says Dr Anna Galbraith in the January Delineator. "The adage, 'Beauty is but skin deep,' like many another, is untrue. The beauty of the skin is evidence of good respiration, good digestion, proper excretion by the bowels, skin and kidneys, good condition of the blood, and plenty of outdoor exercise.

"The skin is a very delicate and complex organ and upon its conditions and the vicissitudes to which it is exposed the health is more dependent than upon any other agency in life over which we have control. The skin is not an independent organ; nothing in the body is independent. It is now well known that the skin, as well as other parts of the body, depends for its integrity upon the general nervous system. Disturbance anywhere in the body acts upon the skin; conversely, any disturbance in the skin acts upon the central nervous system."

Benefits of a Local Paper.

Under the above headline, the Rochester Enterprise has a capital article showing the unimpeachable value of the town sheet to the local community. It says:

The city papers are all right if you want them, but it is the local papers that advertise your business, your schools, your numerous societies, sympathize with you in your afflictions and rejoice in your prosperity; in short it is your local paper that mentions the thousand and one items in which you are interested during the year, and which the city papers do not. It is the home paper that records your birth, publishes your marriage, and chronicles your death.

To the great journals—the forty page compendium of the daily happenings of the world—you are not even a cipher. To get the least notice from them you must steal $100,000, commit an atrocious murder, or have half a dozen living wives. But your local papers watch over you with loving solicitude all the time. If you are sick, it is sorry and hopes you will soon be well. It tells when you come and go, when your house is burnt down or you build a new one, when your Johnny has the mumps, or your Mary has the measles, and how much your little Pete weighs on arrival. And when you require the whole street and both sidewalks to get home from the club, it shuts both eyes and says "mum's" the word. Yes, take the big papers if you are interested in what is going on in Africa, but if you want to keep up with your own biography take your home paper.

Rev. Dr McRobbie CANED.—Rev Dr McRobbie returned by Warton yesterday on the forenoon train and with Mrs McRobbie left by the 3.15 C. P. R. express for their new home at Nelson, Ont. During the interval between their arrival and departure a number of their Owen Sound friends assembled in the parlor of the Peterson House and presented Dr McRobbie with a beautiful gold-headed ebony cane suitably engraved and to which also engraved. Dr C. M. Lang and Mr John Armour, on behalf of the company, made the presentations and the friendly ties that had so long bound them together. Dr McRobbie was taken very much by surprise and himself briefly thanked the donors for their tokens of esteem and friendship. — O. S. Times.
