North Egremont.

Ebenezer S. S. Anniversary came off last Tuesday and was quite successful. Mr George Lothian acted chairman in his usual able manner and had a fine program to call off.

A quartette from Priceville rendered fine music at intervals in addition to the local choir. The children also contributed some fine selections. Little Miss Flosie Hooper giving a very pleasing solo in fine voice besides a great many recitations from the pupils: a heavy contract to mention them all. $13 was realized, good chairman, good talents and good order prevailed.

Mr W. P. Watson sold a sow lately weighing considerably over the 500 lbs and later disposed of 5 head of young cattle and two cows about to calve for a handsome figure. W. P. is one of our progressive farmers.

The lime light views and lecture at Amos church by the Rev Wilson of Walkerton was very much appreciated and well attended. The choir of the church contributed a selection at the opening and close of the meeting. $30 was realized.

Mr W. L. Dixon and son Charlie arrived home from Sask and had their threshing done on Friday and Saturday last by Mr Jas Eccles' machine.

Sorry to hear of the death of our old neighbor Mr Jos. Jacques; one by one the old landmarks are going.

A jolly party of friends and neighbors foregathered at the home of Mr and Mrs Jas Tucker and spent a pleasant evening on Friday last.

The recent hard snap in the weather has caused the dredge at the lake to close down for the season. She is now held fast in icy fetters.

Mr David Hamilton left on Tuesday morning for the fat stock show at Guelph.

The well recently drilled for Mr Wm Tucker has proved a failure, he being under the disagreeable necessity of having the piping removed and returning to the old system.

Wm Moore, son of Mr Joseph Moore is on a visit for a week or so to his old home.

Hampden

Mr Albert Mearns returned from the west country a week or so ago.

Messrs Miller and Seim with a gang of nine men are rousing matters in the woods these snowy days.

Mr and Mrs L. Brusso spent last week with friends in new Ontario.

A number from our neighborhood attended the St Andrew's concert in Hanover on Nov 30.

Miss Minnie Sachs of Louise spent the week with the family of her uncle Mr Geo. Sachs.

Quite a number of children are under the weather at present. A little son of Mr Henry Fritz is seriously ill from inflammation of the lungs. We hope they will soon be well again.

All will be pleased to know that Mrs J. Watt is able to be around again after an illness extending over two months.

Miss Maria Robinson of Saul Ste Marie arrived home on Thursday to spend the holidays with her mother and brother.

Mr James Park Sr. met with a serious accident one day last week. A fall caused the fracture of his hip. On account of his age and infirmity serious doubts are entertained of his recovery.

An open meeting of the Guild is to be held this Tuesday evening. One of the attractive features of the meeting is a debate on "Resolved that men have done more for the uplifting of humanity than women." Leaders are Mr George Sharp and Miss Margaret Gilmour.

Mr and Mrs Andrew Fulton were guests of Mr and Mrs H Fulton one evening recently.

Mrs Derby and son Austin visited with Mrs Derby's daughter Mrs Vickers, above Allan Park, over Sunday.

Mr Robert Robinson of Toronto, came up Friday for a short visit at the old home.

Varney.

We welcome Dr Mansfield Leeson and family to our vicinity, they having arrived Wednesday evening last and taken up residence in their new home here.

Wm McCalmon is a hustler to do business. He was only away two weeks, secured a good position in Craven, Assa. and is now preparing to move there in February.

Mr Wm Lauer made a business trip to Mr Forest on Wednesday.

Misses Maggie McCalmon and Winnie Lauer are out collecting in aid of the Bible society.

Wm Frew is cutting wood with A. Pettigrew.

Missionary services were held on Sunday last. The church has been treating itself to a new choir which is a nice addition.

Mr Robt Petty is hauling his winter's wood from mills near Ayton.

Ontario as usual captured the most and the best prizes at the International Live Stock exhibition at Chicago. Minister of Agriculture Monteith is very proud and says a high opinion was formed of Canadian products.
