We are pleased to notice in our midst again home for the holidays and probably longer in the case of some: Mr Adam Eccles, Miss Ada Brown, Miss Lizzie Laughton and Miss Agnes Henry, the latter returning to Toronto on Wednesday of this week.

Rev Mr McLean preached at Amos Church in a very acceptable manner on Sunday last, and read the edict calling another meeting of the congregations to meet on Wed the 2nd of January for the purpose of selecting a minister.

A social party was held recently at the home of Mr and Mrs Jas Tucker where a pleasant time was spent together. The same participants gathered about a week later at the home of Mr and Mrs J. H. Moore, Greenside Hall, and duplicated the pleasure of the former meeting.

A farewell party met at the home of Mr and Mrs J. McLean S. Glenelg, in honor of Miss C. Lang, who left next day, Saturday for her home in St Marys. This estimable young lady has made herself deservedly popular during her comparatively short stay as teacher in No 10 Top Cliff. Some hearts left behind can only be healed by time's soft soothing influences.

The choir of the Pres Church, Priceville together with some of their many friends made a fraternal visit to the home of Mr and Mrs W. Ramage on Tuesday last, and spent a pleasant evening together in song and social chat.

Mr Wm Tucker is taking in the holiday season at Toronto Junction.

Mr Jos Moore eldest son of Mr Thos Moore, Sask., visited his uncles here, Messrs Joe and Wm Moore, and being down on a business trip, secured furniture from your factory in town among other things.

Mr Angus McKelvey and sister-in-law Miss Maggie Dowzer visited these parts last week and we were pleased to see them looking so well, and to hear that they were doing so well in this world's goods.

Mr D. Coleridge had a very severe fall on the slippery roads the other day and injured his leg to such an extent that he is still unable to walk.

The annual election of officers of Court Dromore I. O. F., took place a week ago; having lost our list we are only able to remember a few of the more important officers.

The local post office of Thistle is now authorized to issue and pay postal notes, a very convenient and safe method of transmitting money.

Varnay.

Received too late for last week. A very merry Christmas to the Review's editor and family, staff, and all the readers.

Miss Lizzie Allen is spending her Xmas vacation with her mother Mrs D. Allen.

Mr and Mrs Herbert Irvine (nee Miss Ida Morrison) arrived Saturday from Grenfell Sask. and will spend some time with the latter's parents and other friends in the vicinity.

Mr Wm Lauder had a wood bee on Friday in spite of the rain about eleven cords were cut. He intends having another soon, everybody welcome.

Our village blacksmith was kept so busy Saturday that he had to call in Wm McCalmon to assist him.

Mr Matthew Mearns has come out as candidate against Mr Richard Barber, who was nominated at the meeting. Surely this corner will be represented at last, with two good men in the field.

Mr T. McNiece has sold over fifty cord of wood already this winter. Surely you townsfolk are not suffering for want of fuel.

A pair of boxing gloves are going the rounds in our burg. Some heavy boxing must have been done, the dentist got one job anyway.

Wm Clark is assisting Mr Robt Smith of Durham with his new engine.

Mr and Mrs Greene of Fergus visited last week with the Morice family.

Boothville.

The year is fast drawing to a close. Christmas Day long looked for and planned for, happy meetings and family re-unions, custom of giving and receiving presents at this time of the year was never so manifest as this Christmas. The day passed quietly among us. The year has brought joy to some while to others it brought sorrow and there is an empty chair and vacant place at the table.

The weather is fine and sleighing good, Jas R Wilson treated himself to a new Portland cutter, bought of Messrs McQueen and Morice, Durham. Some girl will be happy this winter. Willie Leith bought a new Bell Organ, a beautiful piano case, from the same firm.

A pleasant afternoon was spent on Friday, 21st, at S S No 14, Egremont when the parents and friends of the pupils met for a few hours of social pleasure with their respected teacher Miss Spence.

Mr John Ferguson was selected as chairman and a lengthy program was gone through with; singing, recitations and violin with; singing, recitations and violin music by Vint Hill and Geo. Wilson, recitation by Arthur Clark, a song recitation by Arthur Clark, and last but not by Alex McDonald, in the program was a presentation by the pupils to the teacher. Scidom does it all to the lot of a public School teacher to have the good will of the entire section but Miss Spence's kind and quiet manner and sympathetic spirit won her friends wherever she went. In the section and in the community Miss Spence's name will ever be held in fond remembrance.

Our relationship as teacher and scholars is about to be severed and we cannot let the occasion pass without expressing our regret at your departure from our midst.

Since coming here you have shown a deep interest in our welfare, both in school and in our home life, teaching us by your most and gentle manner and also by your christian character to lead noble and useful lives in the future. You have especially shown loving sympathy for those of us who have been tried with sickness and bereavement thereby endearing yourself in a manner which will never be forgotten and which we trust will bring its own reward.

Kindly accept of this purse as a small token of esteem and love to you Signed on behalf of the pupils of S. S. No 14, Egremont, this 19th day of December, 1906.

Clara Wilson, Jennie Clark, Neil E McDonald, Thos B Weir.

We regret to hear of Mrs John Staples meeting with a severe accident at the Durham Station Saturday afternoon. It appears Mr Staples was in the station when the train arrived, and the horse took fright. Mrs Staples was thrown out and received a rough shaking up. Drs. Gun and Hutton attended to her injuries and we hope for her steady recovery.
