Letters to the Editor.

To the Electors of County Council Division No. 3.

Ladies and Gentlemen— I wish to give you a few facts regarding the County Council grant to the Durham School. In the Review of June 28, 1906, Mr Ramage claimed that the County Council did not give to the Durham School the amount that they should under the new act, when should and compared the amount given to High Schools with the amount given to Durham school and ended by saying "they looked for better treatment in 1907 under the new act, when Durham would have a champion of its own."

I would suggest that the school board establish a High School in Durham and then they will receive the High School grant. I was willing to overlook that insinuation, but I understand he brought it up at the Nomination and again tried to make it appear that the county council did not give to Durham school the amount they should.

Now the fact is this: for 1906 the county council gave to the Durham school, all the money the law called for being $200, an equivalent to the Government Grant, and also they gave a special grant of $450, as far as I am aware being the first special grant ever received from the County Council. These are the facts without argument. Wishing you all a happy New Year.

I am, your obedient servant, NEIL MCCANNEL

In reference to the above we have to say: The vote in the Co. Council at Meaford last June to give 50 per cent increase to all Continuation Classes barely carried, showing that nearly half of the County Council was against the grant. It was this opposition that was in our mind and not any idea of scoring the representatives of No. 3 Division that caused us to write the extract below. Of course the interpretation Mr McCannel puts upon the last sentence may be justifiable. The point we wished to make then and now is that Durham is entitled to special recognition over the other Continuation Schools of the County for the special work it is doing, and the granting of an increase, equal in percentage to all other schools, is not giving it the recognition we are thankful to the council and to our representatives for what they did, but "possibly" our own champion may insist on this point just a little stronger than did Mr McCannel or his confederates. At the nomination we made no reference to Mr McCannel except as he was included in the Co. Council.

Following is the extract: "It seem to us incomprehensible that so many of the Co. Council will not venture on going more substantial justice to Durham educational work... Possibly the Council of next year, under the new system, when Durham has its own champion, may see things differently."

The extract below from the Toronto Star will be of interest to Mrs Kennedy's many friends here. In common with them all we extend hearty good wishes:

A distinguished Western educationist, well known in Ontario, left yesterday for his home in Prince Albert, Sask., accompanied by his newly-wed bride, the happy couple being Prof. Alfred Kennedy, formerly a member of the faculty at Queen's University, and Mrs. Kennedy, nee Miss Lena Maude Forfar, B.A. The ceremony was performed Wednesday afternoon at 3.30, at residence of the bride's sister Mrs Urny of Ellesmere, in the presence of immediate friends and relatives. Rev. Mr Brown of Agincourt Presbyterian Church officiated. The contracting parties were unattended, except by a little flower girl, Miss Jean Urny, niece of the bride. The bride's gown was of embroidered point d'esprit, with the regulation veil. She carried white roses which also figured largely in the decorations. Mrs A. M. Kennedy added to the pleasure of the occasion by a splendid rendition of Bohm's "Calm as the Night," Mr. Walter Cole acting as accompanist. After congratulations and the wedding supper, Mr and Mrs Kennedy left for the West, followed by the good wishes of a host of friends, whose many beautiful gifts bore testimony to good will for the newly wedded couple. Mr. Kennedy is the son of Reeve and Mrs Lyman Kennedy of Agincourt who were among the guests present.

RENEWICK—DIXON On Wednesday of last week at the home of her parents Mr and Mrs W. L. Dixon, Miss Kate, their eldest daughter, was united in marriage to Mr Robt Rennie, eldest son of Mr and Mrs R. H. Rennie, Drumore. Rev. H. Bosch performing the ceremony. The contracting parties are well known and highly respected and happily are to be still with us having kept up residence in Drumore. The new Mrs Rennie was long the untiring Secretary of the Women's Institute and public spirited in other ways. They are in every way worthy of each other and the Review wishes them a long and happy wedded life. A fuller account which we expected has not reached us.

DIXON—MCARTHUR One of those happy events that occur once in a while took place at the residence of Mr and Mrs. John McArthur Merchant, Priceville, on Wednesday, the 10th Dec., at 2 o'clock p. m., when their only daughter, Miss Mary Ellen was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Ivan Dixon, Esq., M. D., of Priceville, son of Thos. Dixon, Esq., Barrister, of Walkerton. The bride, who was beautifully attired in white silk, carrying a bouquet of carnations and white asters, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father, while Mendelssohn Wedding march was played by Miss Marion Dixon, of Walkerton, sister of the groom. Miss Olive E. Glasford, of Owen Sound, acted as bridesmaid. She was becomingly attired in white silk under point de chene and carried a bouquet of carnations and white asters. Mr Peter F. McArthur, brother of the bride, aided supported the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. Matheson, M. A. B. D., Priceville, in the presence of the intimate relatives of the contracting parties.

The young couple were the recipients of many costly and useful presents. After congratulations the guests partook of a delicious dinner, at which which they drove to Elesherton taking the 5 p. m. train to Toronto, visiting Hamilton, Buffalo, Walkerton and other places prior to their return. They take up their residence in the late A. Butter's block, Priceville. We join the many friends in extending our hearty congratulations to the happy couple wishing them a long and happy life on their journey together.

Miss McArthur is a lady who is possessed of all the good qualities that come up to the standard of making an affectionate partner, while we can vouch for the good Dr to prove himself equal in this respect.
