fully, as he entered. sir. Your last half dozen of shirts are roundly lecturing the man in the followquite finished, and I should have sent ing words:

ter than the shop, somehow. It seems cordingly. Hand similarly among young ings that are left. I have lost very unlucky; but I suppose it is my ladies, I can tell at sight a miss, hand a wealth, position, and my false love;

the little widow, her black eyes beaming with delight, "When would you wish to take possession."

My baggage is at the door." "Very well; I will have fires lighted there instantly. To air the rooms is all that is necessary." said Mrs. Russell, hurrying into the back parlor to give the mecessary directions, while Cassinove Laure Elmer's person lived the honor- Laura Elmer dismissed her attendant and ond wife." went out to have his luggage brought in, and pay the cabman.

And in ten minutes more Mr. Cassinove was installed comfortably in his new front, and bedroom back, both very neat and clean, though small and plainly furn-

He lost no time but immediately untable, and wrote an advertisement to be Elmer very respectfully, said: put in the Times, to the effect that a young gentleman, a graduate of Christ Church, desired a situation as mivate tufor or secretary in a gentleman's or nobleman's family. · The same night he despatched this to the office of the Times and within two days he received an answer .requestiong him to call at No. - Grosvenor

CHAPTER XII.

Laura Elmer arrived in London alone, at nightfall. Leaving the mailcoach, she called a fly, had her luggage put on, and directed the driver to drive to a house in one of the fashionable localities in the West End. An hour's ride brought her to within a few blocks of her destination. To get nearer seemed impossible, from the long line of carriages that that stood along the street in font of the house, and stopped the way. Every cicumstance seemed to indicate that a large evening party was being entertained at the house in question. Laura put down the window, and asked the drive: 'Can you go no farther?" "No, madam; not as yet," answered

"How long will we have to stay here?"

"Himpossible to say, mum. Here be a great crowd, as her la'ship his 'aving a ball, or summit.

ed perhaps half an hour before the cab no more fail in respect to that young time she had completed her toilet, which she asked: drew up to the door, which, standing lady than I could to Lady Leser her- simple as it was, occupied her langer "Can you suggest anything else?" open, revealed a nguted nan, with a su-percilious-looking porter, seated in an ence; nor no more could you, Mrs. Jones, tomed to waiting upon herself, there queenly spirit shiping through armchair, and several footmen in attendance—to one of whom Laura handed her hoops behind her back. Why, she's and to her "Come in," entered the little great, calm, luminous eyes, she instinct—the year 1752 should begin on Jan. I in-Swinburne. But there was in her air and manner a certain gracious dignity and manner a certain gracious dignity vice in the hall below.

Mas the acute criticism of the footman, but if your ladyship has really no commands for me, was the acute criticism of the footman, but if your ladyship has really no commands for me, was the acute criticism of the footman, subordinate neither to the King nor the ladyship has really no commands for me, although the act of Parliament and the footman and some as lady of th that seemed to mark her as a lady of high rank. The servant that received her card bowed low, and showed her up the broad staircase to the door of a cloakroom, where several splendidlydressed ladies were laying off their wrappings before passing into the drawing-

Laura saw at once the servant's very natural error, and turning, said: the invited frests this evening."

the servant's faith in the high position | nished and well-lighted bedroom, where of the noble-looking woman before him. her luggage had already been brought. He glanced at her deep mourning, and thought he had found the reason why | girl, what is your name?" she was not a guest of the gay party. He answered respectfully:

will be so good as to walk into the li- net, and throwing herself into an arm brary, I will take your card up to her chair before the bright fire.

left, and showed the visitor into a spa- subsided, now that it was over. There cious and richly furnished library. Laura came a strong reaction, and she burst seated herself at a table and mechanic- into a passion of tears; but not one ally turned over the leaves of a folio thought was given to the loss of wealth while waiting the return of the servant. or title; a commonplace woman might Presently she heard voices without the indeed have wept bitterly, for the loss door-one was that of the footman who of these, but Laura Elmer could only

"Well, Mrs. Russell, how does the had carried up her card, and who seembusiness?" said young Cassinove, cheer- | ed to be apologizing for the mistake he had made. The other was the voice of "Oh, very indifferently, I thank you an elderly female servant, who was a cold, and little Emily does not know her ladyship in the drawing-room! I'm blood, drop by drop, to have saved her you should have had the trouble to "Reassure yourself. Mrs. Russle Universal and a woman. Now I not honly "Reassure yourself. Mrs. Russle Universal and a woman. Now I not honly "Reassure yourself. Mrs. Russle Universal and the menes interpolation of the heart appearance, my mps and gums seemed on the Amskall coast. Then when all have eaten their of the rarest exotics diffused a rich appearance, my mps and gums seemed on the Amskall coast. Wishes to do honor to a distinguished with the rarest statues, all original or bloodless. I suffered from headaches, dizwishes to do honor to a distinguished with the rarest statues, all original or copies of old masters. Many bouquets and palpitation of the heart. My dashed the sparkling drops from her of the rarest exotics diffused a rich appetite was so poor that I did not care feast. Then when all have eaten their of the rarest exotics diffused a rich appetite was so poor that I did not care feast. Then when all have eaten their of the rarest exotics diffused a rich appetite was so poor that I did not care feast. not come about the needlework. I wish ladies, hi can hallways tell a mistress, into the sea as many low for find the rarest exotics diffused and solemnly casts into the sea as many midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh and solemnly casts into the sea as many to know if your second floor front is han 'onerable mistress, countess, marchlet."

"I must not give way to sorrow for midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh and solemnly casts into the sea as many in the third government of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak, and was so much reduced in flesh midst of this room stood a large Psyche weak. I must struggle through my let." ioness, and duchess, the minute hi see life. I must not murmur at misfortune. "Oh, no, sir. The rooms take no bet- one and hi graduates my respects ha- but rather thank Heaven for the bless-"I am sure it is not; and, as a proof spects accordingly: Now a governess, and much acquired knowledge, with a breakfast service of gold plate, upon wice and less than a dozen boxes have a proof spects accordingly: Now a governess, and much acquired knowledge, with a breakfast service of gold plate, upon made me the well woman I am to-day. of my confidence, I have brought you a James, is not by no means a lady; but many accomplishments. These will allodger in myself, if you will take me." his only a person hentitled to no man-ways enable me to lead a useful life. breakfast. At the back of her lady-vanished and I enjoy the very best of ways enable me to lead a useful life. "Oh, willingly! gladly, sir!" replied ner of respects whotsomedever, except How much more favored am I still than ship's chair stood her French maid, enwith delight. "When would you wish to you shall see how I receive this govern- no more, but rather show my gratitude light hair of her mistress.

"Immediately, if the rooms are ready. "Just so, Mrs. Jones; you'll put her station in life which providence has as entering the room was: on her proper footing in no time

"You shall see, James." But Mrs. Jones did not know that there were spiritual hierarchies as dominant as were earthly ones, and that in compelling spirit of a queen.

She opened the door and bustled in swinging herself from side to side, with all the insolence of a pampered menial, quarters, consisting of a sitting room, Elmer raised her stately head, and fixed her full, dark eyes upon the woman's face, whereupon the latter dropped a curtsey, and, addressing fliss streets a perfect antidote to sleep. All Lady Lester.

room before you take supper?" "I thank you; you may show me to my apartment, and send me a cup of tea; that is all I shall require to-night," up a cup of tea." The girl brought a light, and request- around her, and by her side was one ing Miss Elmer to precede her, showed whose kingly countenance seemed her the way from the library. governess,' said the housekeeper, just as ardent as it was pure. as soon as the restraining influence of In his hand he held the coronet of her Laura's presence was withdrawn. 'Can't say as I did. Mrs. Jones," said placed upon her brow, saying: the footman, very drily. "You seen, at least, hi kept her at a Baroness Etheridge of Swinburne." distance," said the housekeeper.

of her majesty the queen."

grander looking in her plain black maid.

'Meanwhile, Laura Elmer was conducted by the housemaid to her apartment, next to the schoolroom, in the third

"My lady appointed this floor as the apartments of the young ladies and their governess, upon account of its quiet and fresh air, and I am directed to wait on you and them, ma'am. Is there I think you mistake me for one of anything I can bring you with your tea?" asked the maid, as she ushered Even that explanation did not shake Miss Elmer into the comfortably fur-"Nothing else, thank you. My good

"Lizzy, ma'am." "Nothing. then. Lizzy." said iMss El-"I beg your pardon, madam; if you mer, laying off her wrappings and bon-

And then the excitement that had sus-And the man opened a door on the tained her through the long journey

we cavement of | took her pupils into the schoolroom and | entered into a preliminary examination "If he'had been ta. h away from me of their progress into their various

"Yes, madam," replied Laura.

"It is, madam."

"Your name is Miss Elmer?"

"Well, Miss Ehmer, Sir Vincent de-

"Oh, Nurse Jones could tell you how "It is probable, then, Sir Vincent wished me to receive your ladyship's directo the library, talked with you himself, anything to suggest to you. Miss Elmer.

"Quite comfortable, I thank you,

"If you find there is anything that you require for your comfort or your happiness, let Jones know; and if she

(To be continued.)

Enormous Display of Naval Power.

(New York Herald.)

In pursuance of the scientific policy of flee

I leave all these things to Jones."

to manage much better than I could.

She understands their dispositions."

to be pursued by the young ladies?"

which only bore me."

sired me to see you this morning, though by death, while I yet believed him to be studies. This occupied her whole foretrue and noble, then, indeed, I could I noon, and it was nearly two o'clock when I have borne it! I should have put on a servant knocked at the door, and being mourning and lived through all my pil- admitted, brought the compliments of grimage on earth a widowed maiden for Lady Lester, with a request that Miss Bad blood means bad health. That somewhat in the light of a luck bringer. his sake, waiting for that death which | Elmer would come immediately to her is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mean should reunite us in eternal love. But ladyship's dressing room. now! but now! he is lost to me forever, With a mournful smile given to the new, rich blood which strengthens ev- son at a little mining town in British n time and in eternity!"

Thus bitterly she wept, in her hour of the second floor, upon which was situ- these statements. Mrs. Hannigan says: Unluckily it hit the actor on the head weakness, for the false-hearted traitor, ated the private apartments of Lady "For nearly three years I suffered from and knocked him down. He was badly caring nothing, knowing nothing, of the true and noble heart who had secretly them yesterday, only Frank is sick with To carry up the governess' card to who would gladiy have shed his life-to Heaven by a cheerful industry in the

She arose, bathed her eyes and smoothas Lizzie entered with the tea tray. novelty of her position was enough to not all. Accustomed all her life to the her ladyship, addressing her femme de Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail pole weighs 6,000 pounds. luxurious stillness of Swinburne Castle, chambre. where her own delicious sleeping room she found the noise of the London as she was desired, immediately before ville, Ont. lnight long there was the sound of carriages coming and going, as late guests Vincent engaged?" she inquired, without rest of the world woke to life, London Laura Elmer dropped asleep and was visited by a singular dream or vision. First there was infused into her soul The housekeeper touched a bell, which a delivious warmth and light, strengthen- I am quite at a loss to know why, was answered by a housemaid, to whom ling as soothing. She was again at Swin- drawled her ladyship, languidly. burne Castle. The beautiful and beloved mer's day, Many loving friends were strange, yet strangely familiar, and "There, James, you see with what whom, in her dream, she loved with a self-respect and dignity hi treat the passion as profound as it was elevated, ancient house. This glittering diadem he

"Hail, my beloved! once more Laura, With the fullness of joy that this dia-"I see you kept yourself at a respect- dem inspired she awoke and the beauful distance, just as hi should, if any tiful vision fled. The vision fled, but not with her stately form drawn up. and haccident was to throw me in the way its beneficent effect. Charmed, strengthened and elevated, she knew not where- steadily down upon the fair inanity be-"You're a himperent fellow, and hi fore, except through the influence of her fore her. "Well! governess or duchess, I could bands, was her only headdress. By the guid eyes to the face of the governess, years not divisible by 400.

and abundant black hair, worn in plain then, for the first time, raising her lan- leap years should be dropped in century by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine self. Leastways, when I'm in her pres- than usual, for she was quite unaccus- Then, seeing for the first time, that for all your swinging about of your came a gentle rap at the chamber door, time, that queenly spirit shining through opted the change in 1751, providing that mourning, and muffled in the cloak and led in the cloak and led in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening," led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the cloak and led in the drawing-room this hevening, and muffled in the cloak and led in the cloak and

The maid conducted our heroine to a I will ask your permission to return to small sitting room adjoining the school- my charge. room, where a table was laid for the | "I really do not know that I have

"The young ladies and the governess | Yet, now I think of it. I wish you to take their meals here, ma'am, if you tell me, do they make you comfortable? "And where are the young ladies." "If you please, ma'am, Mrs. Rachel will bring them directly." And even as the maid spoke, a respectable middle-aged matron entered, leading two dark-eyed little girls, of about neglects your orders inform Sir Vinten and twelve years, by the hand, whom | cent. He has more energy than I have, she presented to the governess as Miss and relieves me of all that sort of trou- Touching Tribute Paid by the People of Lester and Miss Ducy Lester, adding: "Now, my dear, this lady is your teacher. You will be very good, and not plague her as much as you did Miss

"But I hated Miss Primrose, nurse, and shall hate this one, too; I know shall," said the elder child. "For shame, Miss Lester. Go and spenk to your governess as a young lady should," said the nurse. The children drew back, frowning and sulky; but Laura advanced toward them with outstretched hands, saying:

"I am very glad to see you, my dears nd I am sure you will like to stay with | on which in war, or at the treatest empire rests Her voice was so sweet and her look lantic and Mediterranean fleets are, with gracious and benignant that the rare exception-notably in the absence of the Dreadnought, at the highest extremehildren readily met her offered hands, the latest exemplars of naval thought. Their and smiles broke through their sulky tonnage alone reaches the enormous total faces, like sunshine through the clouds. of 681,725 tons.

The elder one looked up slyly into her "I am sorry that I said anything to offend you, ma'am; but Miss Primrose would side with Japan in the event of a war was such a plague! But I will please with this country recalls that other inter-breakfast?" said Laura, leading the one little girl to the table.

The nurse had left the schoolroom and now returned, leading in a boy of about eleven years old, saving: "I am a great boy to schoolroom, Miss Elmer; but you will find me not at all unmanageable." "Of that I am quite sure," replied the The boy joined the circle at the breakfast table, where the children broke into a |conversation, more remarkable for vivacity than for propriety. Laura looked from one to another of her pupils, thinking within herself: "Providence never intended me for a governess, for I feel not the slightest disposition toward curbing these children's fine spirits or checking their free conversation." When breakfast was over, Miss Elmer DAILY FADING AWAY.

by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

memory of the past, when as Baroness ery nerve and every organ in the body. Columbia. The audience was so stirred She dropped her face once more upon Etheridge she herself received dependents That is why people who use Dr. Wil- by Mr. Hanson's acting that some perher hands, and sobbed as though the in her own dressing room, Laura Elmer liams' Pink Pids feel bright, active and sons began throwing presents upon the very fountains of her life were breaking arose, and, attended by the footman, strong. Mrs. Arthur Hannigan, Marsh- stage. One burly miner, having nothing who showed her the way, descended to ville, Ont., is a witness of the truth of else handy, hurled a lump of gold ore.

Lester. Laura was shown into a spaci- anaemia (bloodlessness) and during injured, and it was weeks before he was ous dressing room, with hangings of that time consulted and took medicine able to play again. consecrated himself to her service, and blue satin, and otherwise splendidly fur- from several doctors, without beneficial Perhaps the eddest idea of paying a nished, the walls being adorned with the results. My complexion was of a waxy compliment belongs to a tribe of Indians choicest paintings, and the niches filled appearance, my lips and gums seemed on the Alaskan coast. When a chief easy chairs, reclined a fair, statuesque sumption. As I have said I doctored ford. This is held to be the highest woman, arrayed in a graceful white without benefit, until the last doctor form of compliment and much superior dressing gown of Indian muslin. At her whom I consulted advised me to try Dr. to merely giving presents to the guest. side stood a small rosewood table with Williams' Pink Pills. I followed his ad- London Tit-Bitsvanished and I enjoy the very best of Single Stick of Fir One Hundred and condition I was and to all such I would

The first thought of Laura Elmer on strongly urge the immediate use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

CHANGES IN THE CALENDAR.

The am Would you prefer to see your language when the day broke and all the spown available to lift her languid, Reforms Made by Caesar and Pope Greg-

When Julius Caesar came into power he found the Roman calendar in confusion. The Alexandrian astronomer Socigenes suggested the Julian calendar, which; with slight modifications, is the "Perhaps, madam, the baron wished me one used to-day. The beginning of the adjoining the schoolroom, and take her bathed in the sunshine of a glorious sumbest method of managing my pupils" year was moved back from March to best method of managing my pupils" ber was the seventh month (from septen, seven). October the eighth month menth from Quintilius to July. Augustus Caesar, sucessor to Julius. tions concerning the course of studies "Oh, then, he should have sent for you for he is interested in all those matters, All this time Laura Elmer had stood

The change was not adopted in all Catholic countries at once, but the Greek the payment of rent, interest, etc. the old Julian calendar are now thirteen I jority party and instructs him to form I'd be content and thankful in it all. days behind the Gregorian calendar. a government. This is one of those But when He bade me suffer and be still Thus in Russia Oct. 30 is called the 17th. fictions of the constitutional authority I then rebelled against my Master's will If a writer in Russia wishes to be acu- of the sovereign to which the English | And said I would not have Him for my showing the date by both calendars.

MADE M. FALLIERES WEEP.

His Native Town.

fellow townsmen to President Fallieres ment, becomes by that mandate the ab- I murmured at His "suffer and be of France upon the occasion of his re- solute. Like the president, he may apcent visit to his birthplace, the little point whomsoever he pleases a memtown of Mezin. To widen the street the ber of his cabinet, but unlike the preredistribution adopted two years ago the Brihouse in which the President was born sident, he is not influenced by geographtion which in the character and composition had been pulled down some years ago. ical considerations, nor does he have to What was to be done? The people of submit his nominations to the senate. passed even in English annals. The total passed even in his magnation. Thirty battle Mezin put their heads together and when in both countries the members of the ships, sixteen armored crutsers and four- their distinguished fellow-citizen arrived, teen protected cruisers and scouts are in imagine his delight at finding an exact pointing power, but the tenure of of reproduction of his old home in papier fice is even more precarious in England cay for the peace training and development collected from the country around and dent on a matter of policy, and not feel part reproduced in facsimile. The presi- it incumbent upon him to resign; in Eugdent thanked his friends in a voice brok- land there can be no differences. Eithen with emotion and tears actually streamed down his cheks as he finished he resigns his little speech.

The late French President, M. Loubet, was once the recipient of an interesting present. It consisted of an immense al-

Profitless Discussion. This discussion as to whether England more than a dozen different languages.

KIDNEY

worked in suct their greetings to the future monarch

The late Prince Bismarck once received The Story of a Woman Made Well from some miners in Westphalia a bust of himself carved in coal, and it is said that this old present was always careful-A compliment which had serious regood health. They actually make sults was paid to an actor named Han-

TALL TELEPHONE POLE.

Twenty-six Feet High.

One of the tallest telephone poles in the world is where the wires of the Pacific States Telephone Company cross "Surely this young, fair, inane-looking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do not act the Chehalis River, near Aberdeen, Wash. woman cannot be the mother of those upon the bowels; they do not tinker | For some years past a pole 90 feet | puts them "behind his back." If God ed her hair and resumed her seat, just very vivacious and beautiful little bru- with mere symptoms; they go right to high was sufficient to keep the wires nettes in the schoolroom. She must be the root of the trouble in the blood. That clear of river craft. But the increasing And after this slight refreshment, their step-mother and the baronet's sec- is why they cure common ailments like passage of ocean steamers made a highrheumatism, neuralgia, kidney trouble, er pole necessary, and a new one 126 to-night, and to-morrow there isn't a retired to bed. She could not sleep. The | "Jeannette, tell the young person to headaches and backaches. St. Vitus feet high was set up. This pole is one come around here, where I can see her dance, and the special ailments that af- single stick of Washington fir, 18 inches the depths of the sea." Some one has have disturbed her repose; but this was without having to turn my head," said flict so many women and grewing girls, at the butt and 8 inches at the top. The at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from ! The stick was cut at a point twelve Laura smilingly advanced and stood The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brock- miles distant and towed down the river, where it was erected by six men, using a 12 horse-power hoisting engine. The American Telephone Journal says that for making attachment to the pole and moving it a five-eights inch steel cable was employed, run through ten-inch steel

The pole was set 12 feet in the ground wires at the top, and also guved about 40 feet from the top with four five-sixteenths-inch stranded wires. The guys ground to a depth of eight feet. These

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

If you have a baby or young chil-Caesar changed the name of the fifth of Raby's Own Tablets on attention, and ingratitude when we ex-Don't wait until the little one is sick, of disagreeable people whom Providence for sometimes an hour's delay may prove has placed in cur way, and when he has not to be outdone, changed the name of fatal. This medicine cures stomach trou- provided, or purposed for the trial of our the sixth month from Sextillis to Aug- bles, constipation, diarrhoea, simple fevust, and stole a day from February to ers and makes teething painless. If chilmake August as great a month as July. dren are sick Baby's Own Tablets make At the time of Pope Gregory the Jul- them well; and better still an occasional ian calendar had thrown the reckoning dose will keep them well. The Tablets out ten days, because the year is not are good for children of all ages and quite 365 1-4 days, as had been supposed. are guaranteed to contain no opiate or der large, dark, starry eyes, looking The calendar was ten days slow, so Gre- harmful drug. Mrs. Joseph Ross, Hawgory, following the advice of the astron- thorne, Ont., says: "I have used Baby's omer Clavius, ordered that ten days Own Tablets and find them just the "I am sure I cannot conceive why Sir should be dropped so that the day fol- thing to keep children well." These Tabclaimed the housekeeper, in a fury, as morning toilet—a plain, black bombazine Vincent should wish me to see you," said lowing Oct. 4, 1582, should be the fif- lets are sold by all medicine dealers or swinging herself from side to side, she dress, and black crape collar. Her rich her ladyship, in a tone of vexation, and teenth instead of the fifth, and that you can get them by mail at 25c a box Co., Brickville, Ont.

MAN WHO RULES ENGLAND.

ively bowed before it, and involuntarily stead of March 25, and that the day is not the titular sovereign nor the her-Laura Elmer was dressed in deep dress, than an the peeresses in their vermourning, and muffled in the cloak and with the drawing room this bevening."

In the drawing room this bevening. following Sept. 2, 1752, should be the editary nobility; it is the leader of the So long as He would lead me, I'd agree framed so that no injustice resulted in with him in the work of the government Nor ask for more when He had given is his subordinate. Since 1800 and 1900 were Julian leap | Following a general election the sov- To meet my simple needs, both few and years but not Gregorian, countries using | ereign sends for a member of the marate he writes the date Oct. 17-30, thus people cling as to the heritage of tradition. The summons is delivered, but it Because His will ran counter to my is merely a form. The party leader is such not by the grace of the sovereign | And yet I suffered, suffered once again, but by the choice of the majority; not I asked for joy, He gave me only pain,

The leader, having received the sov- I chose to tread on petals not on thorns; A pretty compliment was paid by his ereign's instructions to form a govern- But through the thorns He led me up ment, becomes by that mandate the aumache! All was perfect, down to the than it is in the United States. Here very furniture, part of which had been a minister may differ from the presier a minister agrees with his chief or

In England the cabinet is an extralegal creation. Nationally it is one of the committees of the privy council. whose functions are to advise the sovwas such a plague! But I will please with Japan in the event of a war was such a plague! But I will please with this country recalls that other inter-tings related to his visit to Italy and tings related to his visit to Italy and the mediaevalism. The cabinet is uncertainty or more.

The pain was just to heal, and mathing the mediaevalism. The cabinet is uncertainty or more.

The pain was just to heal, and mathing the mediaevalism or more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more.

The pain was just to heal and mathing the more and mathing th not only cuttings, but photographs and hampered by royal or other interference. but—another survival—no member of His billy pathway led to plains of prace deed, a complete chronicle of his life the cabinet may make public any matter. He heart my life for joy, for power and written by many different people and in discussed by the cabinet without the expresented with fine specimens of wild gular intervals according to the exigency beasts and consequently both King Ed- of public business, the minister is "re- But each day shows me that His way is the recipients of many gifts of this de- quested to attend a meeting of his maward and the Prince of Wales have been jesty's servants."-Appleton's Magazine.

Dagger in the Duke's Bouquet.

There recently called to see the Grand Duke cats, mice and even rats, but I must the nosegay. No objection was raised in the case of the former, but he was invited An od gift was received by the Crown to hand over the floral offering to a groom of the chambers. He did so, with no great age. A deputation of butchers attended, discovered that the flowers sheathed a very bearing an enormous and magnificent businessike dagger.

The Galley Slave.

Fram the New Orleans Times-Democrat) I welcome to thee, O sleep, Not that thy power doth keep from the memory and the toil of day; For be it day or night,

Or skep or waking sight, labor at the oar the selfsame way.

But in the night what strength, What stroke of wondrous length! With what a splendid and victorious sweep I drive the vessel on Toward the waiting dawn Through huge and horlow, roaring seas of

There comes no weariness To make me slacken stress, master's voice is beating in mine ears; I feel no chain or throng, Strong as a god is strong. play with labor, deaf to hopes and fears!

Doth come the dawn's first trace; hat weariness, what grief about to break! Ab, how I bate the sun, And my comrades every one, od who's asleep and he'll fore'er awake!

God's Way.

There are two ways of covering sinman's way and God's way. You cover your sins, and they will have a resourrection same time; let God cover them and neither devil nor man can find them. There are four expressions in the Bible with regard to where God puts sins. He charge against me? "He has blotted them out as a thick cloud." You see a cloud not a river; a river might dry up, but the sea cannot." The greatest blessing that ever comes to me this side of heaven is when God forgives me. Have you been forgiven? The fourth expression is that he removes them "as far as the east is from the west. " Do you know how far that is? Perhaps some good mathematician will figure that up. "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Then make and guyed with four steel-stranded | zere that you are forgiven-D. L. Moody.

The Trials of Life.

Life is not entirely made up of great evils or heavy trials, but those perpetual dead men are of cedar, eight by eight | recurrence of petty evils and small trials inches in section and seven feet long. | in the ardinary and appointed exercises of the Christian graces. To bear with the failing of those about us-with their ill-breeding, their perverse tempers; to endure neglect when we feel we deserve virtue: these are best exercises of pa-

To bear with vexation in business, with disappointment in our expectations, with interruptions of our retirement, with with whatever opposes our will, contradicts our humor-this habitual acquiesof self-denial than any little rigors or inflictions of our own imposing. These constant, inevitable, but inferior evils. properly improved, furnish a good moral discipline, and might in the days of ignorance have superceded pilgrimage and penance.-Hannar Moore,

God's Way and Mine. I asked my Lord to lead me for a day,

The real ruler of the British empire I did not know or care what He might by election but because he has the quali- I asked for rose-strewn pathways, sunny

I could not grasp His meaning; I was To ask Him for His way but keep my

I asked my Lord to lead me just once This time I would not murmur 'gainst

But one day, when my struggles had

I'd go or stay, or "suffer and be still." I would not have my own way- His was I'll gladly do, endure His wise behest. And then I understood why all my pain And thorns came to me once again,

It was withdrawing, by His gentle art, The thoras which pride had thrust into His oil, and wine, poured on sin's open press sanction of the sovereign, and poin was remedial, work was happiness. In India the native rajahs consider it when the premier issues a summons to; And so my Lord has led me all the years. the highest possible compliment to be a cabinet council, which meets at ire | Sometimes He leads - through smiles, somet men through tears.

-F. Watson Hannan, D. D., in N. Y.

Christian Advocate. Perfectly Simple.

Husband-My dear Emily, why it is I am plways in the wrong? Wife-Because I am always in ____ Exact Number of Pa's Hairs.

(New York Sun.) Teacher-Yes, Johnny, the hairs of our pends are numbered. Johnny-Well, on's must be twenty-three gested form, is the greatest strength-builder known to medical science. It is so easily digested that it sinks into the system, making new blood and new fat, and strengthening nerves and muscles. Use Scott's Emulsion after Influenza.

Grippe or Influenza, whichever you like Scott's Emulsion, which is Cod Invaluable for Coughs and Colds.

ALL DRUGGISTS; 500. AND $1.00.

Liver Oil and Hypophosphites in easily di-to call it, is one of the most weakening diseases known.