TWO SIDES TO STORY

Admiral Davis Was Too Officious and Indiscreet tionally well, on the whole." in His Conduct at Kingston.

Montrealers Contradict the Reports by Tourists of Ill-Treatment.

Vessel Sails From Halifax With Provisions From Canadian Government.

This is the opinion of A. Stewart Ewing, of the firm of Galt & Ewing, who in Kingston when the earthquake occur-

"The swagger of the American sailors was intensely irritating, the more so because we were smarting under

in. As it was, when they came, all the

"That is a fair sample of the sort of ing feeling against the governor all the time, was one Bradenburg, a correscondent of The New York Herald and was a private message and was none of my business. I told him that it was a public matter and that he was doing a great wrong and a great injus-

in their power to assist the people,

everybody else by sending it.

horror.. He says:

London, Jan. 28.-It should not be assumed in America that the British public, having found Governor Swettenham guilty of caddishness, must neces- red, and through the following days of sarily hold that Admiral Davis is in way responsible for the unpleasantness there is hardly a newspaper published | the knowledge that there were only in London in which support has not | 200 white troops in the island. The imbeen given in one form or another perial government is making a terrible to the theory that Admiral Davis in- mistake in the withdrawal of the white vited by his indiscreet conduct the in- troops in the island. Little wonder sult he received from Governor Swetten- that the governor was angry at the ham. In last night's Pall Mall Gazette, landing of an armed party without his for instance, there appeared a long in- permission terview with "a highly placed British | "The dead had all been dug out by official," who held that Admiral Davis | that time, I should say, and there was had landed his marines on his own initiative, and not on the invitation of tenham had no alternative to bidding Jamaica is full of American touriststhe Governor, and that Governor Swetbim take them away, for by acquiescing in Admiral Davis' course he would have set up a profoundly dangerous preced-

Colonial Office View.

tude of the Colonial Office agrees per- aggerations about the disaster, too. I thing was practically no looting, and sistance. He said he trusted His Mafeetly with this view and holds that went on board the Port Kingston soon the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to this the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of armed troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of a manufacture to the presence of a manufacture troops was not jesty had not given utterance to the presence of a manufacture troops was not given utterance to the presence of a manufacture troops was not given utterance to the presence of a manufacture troops was not given utterance to the presence of a manufa Governor Swettenham's sole error was after the earthquake, and when I got in the manner and phraseology of his | on board I found one of them about to The Globe editorially expresses | send a telegram. He was reading it the opinion that Governor Swettenham's aloud, and it said that there had been plauds the firmness with which he as- sands of ruined, and that the whole is- Provision Laden Steamer Sails From serted the rights of his Sovereign and land had been practically destroyed. flug in a position of peculiar difficulty. I protested against any such telegram The Times publishes letters to the being sent. I told him he had no right editor in which Admiral Davis is ac- to send such lies, that I had a mother cused of "behaving in an altogether of at home who had a weak heart and ficious and presuming manner," of that the receipt of such would kill her. "well meant but utterly tactless inter- "Then Sir Alfred Jones came along ference," and of "landing marines with- and asked what was the matter. out leave, as if Kingston was in China | told him, and he said that he would not or Morocco." Governor Swettenham's allow any such rubbish to be cabled, that entire course is defended by one man it was disgraceful and that it should who writes the Times, while another certainly not be sent. criticizes only his choice of phrases. The same sort of comment appears in sev- stuff that has been sent to the Amerieral other London papers.

I bottom of it all, and who was foment-On the Continent. Quotations from continental newspapers show that in France and Germany, as well as here, there are those who think the American Admiral acted Collier's Weekly. When I protested indiscreetly and offensively, and that it was really Governor Swettenham's duty to send him away. If Admiral Davis was not guilty of improper conduct, something in the nature of an authoritative and unassailable statement of what took place at Kingston should be published in Europe in order to prevent misjudgment of the Admiral's acts.

NOT HIS FAULT.

Conduct of U. S. Sailors and Tourists of the Port Kingston were doing all ing fifteen seconds.

Montreal, Jan. 28 .- "I am just back | giving provisions and helping the woundfrom Kingston, and I feel hot about it | ed, the American tourists were cursing | all yet. I can tell you. The newspaper | and grumbling all the time. ernor Swettenham, the captain of the They were in charge of a few men, I ondon, Jan. 28.—President Roosevelt's eruelly misrepresented. The whole af- were nothing like 600 prisoners in the of State Bacon that the United States fair is a campaign of calumny."

quieter or better behaved than these slightest bad behavior. They were all here, who do not desre to prolong the quiet and well conducted, and their painful controversy. However the closing with them at any time during earthquake or afterwards. There were six of them killed in the earthquake. "All the people behaved well, excep-

MONTREAL MAN'S ESCAPE.

Five of His Party Killed in Kingston

Company at Kingston, Jamaica, a. The despatch however, adds: ies. The desolation was complete, and priving thousands of women and children indoors yesterday. She was accompanfor the first two days there was non- of adequate food and shelter. Prominent ied by her daughter, Mrs. George L. ger and misery. Then rood came in English officials, clergymen and judges has just returned from Jamaica. He was Americans on board the Frinz the chief organ of the present Govern-Friedrich drawing up the pro- ment the Tribune, is incensed because tests against Captain Parsons and the Governor refused its offers of relief against the English generally for ill- and supplies from English merchants. treatment after the disaster, he char- A despatch to the Evening Standard treated alike, but when Captain Par"The correspondence has intensified carded her white veil for one of blue sons' ship was full he had to refuse the strong public feeling against the more distinctly the features of the face many others who wanted to get on Governor. Although the Admiral precipiboard, and some of these were Ameri- tated the landing of marines, it is resome of the Americans wanted atten- ernor appreciated his kindly action. The tend the trial to-day owing to a slight tion before all those. The protest, he keenest ire of the merchants here has was selfish and ungrateful in the been aroused by the passage in the Govno necessity for the Americans coming

Governor Swettenham he knew, and be glad of the free help of the marines could not understand the quarrel with in clearing their stores." American tourists of the island-and Davis. The governor worked night kicked up a terrific row, cheering and and day. One thing that caused friction was that when American sailors Most Rev. Dr. Enos Nuttall, Lord Archcheering. Before then they had been landed they enquired for the Ameri- bishop of the West Indies, said to-day groaning and grumbling all the time. cans, and gave the impression the that he had heard that King Edward had Their behavior was disgusting to all of food was for them alone. Finally the cabled deprecating the idea that the peofood was distributed to all. Another ple of Jamaica should accept foreign as-"They were doing disgraceful things at all necessary.

RELIEF FOR JAMAICA.

night' with a full cargo of supplies for | ican navy. the sufferers in Jamaica, shipped by The relief committees are actively enthe Canadian Government.

These goods, which were purchased by the Collector of Customs, included 500 barrels of flour, 200 barrels of cornmea! 100 barrels of white beans, 100 bags split peas, 100 bags of rice, 200 barrels of family flour, 50 barrels of mess pork, 50 barels of bef, 20 cases of corned beef, 100 cases of condensed milk, 50 cases of preserved salmon, 50 cases of lard, 50 can papers by their correspondents tubs of butter, 25 cases of cheese (small down there. The man who was at the size), 200 barrels of potatoes, 200 tierces of codfish, 300 barrels of herring and against that telegram being sent the man who had written it said that it

Kingston on January 31st. A slight shock of earthquake was felt Governor. night. Harry Hiors, curator of the torial article arraigns Governor Swetten- phone Construction, is not more than cold in death. tice to the people of the island and to

INCIDENT CLOSED.

"Take that penitentiary yarn. I talked with the guards of the prisoners. Port Kingston, and others have been about 20 prisoners to each man. There assurances through Assistant Secretary penitentiary, nor was there at any time would pay no heed whatever to the spatches stating that the American the international aspect only, as there remains a considerable reckoning be Hand This Morning. tween Great Britain and Governor Sweetenham. Several circumstances quite in-Sweetenham's arbitrary course. nounces that a number of ships are ar- men in the jury box to-day when the Montreal, Jan. 28.-v. S. Vipond, riving there in the nick of time as the trial of Harry K. Thaw for the killing local supplies of food were running short. of Stanford White was resumed before coming through American channels, are combining to create prejudice against he rushed into the street with the disposition of the latest consignments is uncertain. A despatch to the Times from Kingston says:

from the province and no outside aid join in condemning the Governor's Carnegie, the two having been preceded When shown the despatch about It is also considered significant that

The captain did all he could in cognized that he did so with the best way of shelter and succor, but motives and every one except the Gov- The Countess of Yarmouth did not at-

> Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 28.- The sentiment and that if he had he (the Archbishop) did not approve of it. The Archbishop said also that he believed a great mistake had been made when Governor Swettenham rejected the offers of American aid.

The Archbishop sent a cablegram to Halifax, Jan. 28.—The steamer Beta President Roosevelt to-day thanking him of the Pickford & Black Line sailed to- warmly for the assistance of the Amergaged in sending refugees into the country and distributing food and money to those who are unable to leave the city. here this morning on board the steamer cold. Edward and Josiah Tnaw were ranch over the snow for two miles, white Advance, which brought from Colon 100 early in their seats, the only family ab- the bullets from his rifle buzzed around tons of food and $800 contributed to the sentee other than the countess being their heads. Cover was reached at the Jamaican sufferers by the officials of the George L. Carnegie, the prisoner's brocanal and merchants of Panama. Gov- ther-in-law. ernor Swettenham consented to accept The five jurors selected during the time. the supplies, waiving the customs dues. first two days of the trial appeared to From a distance of a hundred yards the earth tremor was so perceptible that we failed to call attention to the ex- ney, manager of a piano concern. burg-American Line and the captain seconds, perhaps twenty. After five the present crisis. His general benefit is well to recommended over with his right hand another, was sent out several wases cogaine with perfect frankness that a moment of great peril and difficulty and reached over which many about the first of ficial and even a cultured English gen- about a small gilt-edged book in her lap. the Ste. Anne, returning with the appreciation of Canadian interests by theman. His letter to Admiral Davis She looked up and answered her son's had a find the state of the resolution of the state of the resolution of the state of the was a production of which he ought to smile. Says Roosevelt-Swettenham Still Being be ashamed and which the Jamaicans are Mrs. Harry Thaw gave her prisoner-bone is British bone and their flesh is man of the day she assumed her cus-British flesh and no one but a blinded tomary attitude leaning well forward in bigot would have refused to admit American landing parties. The men from the American warships did magnificent work in the removal of the debris and recovering bodies, and the naval surgeons performed an equally splendid service. The action of the Governor was absolutely reprehensible. We want a man who does not spend his time riding about the city cursing officials who are endeavoring to work loyally. The people of this community have lost confidence in his power of guidance and are indignant at his autocratic, bullying and insulting manner."

WOLVES FEROCIOUS IN SPAIN.

Man and Child Devoured and Flocks Devastated in North Provinces.

Madrid, Jan. 28 .- The heavy fall of snow in the north of Spain has driven troops of wolves into the plains, and they have been attacking the farmers' flocks. The peasants have been obliged her seat, eager to catch every answer political leaders with regard to the forto organize battues for the destruction made to questions put either by District mation of a new Ministry.

wolves, and fled into a church for Counsel for the defence was inform- not last long. The principal point Pyrenees was attacked by a band of ant. safety, but the brutes followed him in ed that Richard Harney, the fifth juror, issue is the proposed anti-clerical assoc-

A beggar woman, finding herself Edward Pekarz was convicted of murobliged to cross a stream, carried her der in the first degree. Pekarz' plea was returned to get a sack that contained Pekarz was sent to Sing Sing. Later Total for 1905 Was 215,912, an Increase otulying points dependent on this city bread. While she was on the other side his sentence was commuted to life im of the stream a famished wolf appeared prisonment. It is believed that Thaw's and devoured the child before the eyes counsel was unaware of these facts when of the mother, who stood rooted to the they accepted Mr. Harney as a juror ground with horror.

MUST DIE ON THE SCAFFOLD.

New Brunswick Man Sentenced to Death But He Challenged Two of the Jurymen for Murder of Young Woman.

Hopewell Cape, N. B., Jan. 28 .- Thos. the murder of Miss Mary Ann McAuley, of New Ireland, and was sentenced to be men will be obtained to-day. The prisoner's counsel asked for a Some of those connected with the case reserved case on the ground that the judge had misdirected the jury. This ication was granted. Collins, on the way to his ceil, laughed per will begin on Tuesday. and chatted with the constables in the proceedings yesterday and two addi- damage done is heavy.

The Prisoner Grasped His Mother's

Admiral Davis was connected and not Jurymen Able to Withstand Appeal to Their Emotions.

A special despatch from Kingston an- New York, Jan 28.—There were five "In view of the Governor's action in Justice Fitzgerald. Mrs. William Thaw, refusing American assistance and gifts mother of the defendant, was present today at the opening of the morning session, having fully recovered from the fatigue and indisposition which kept her day afternoon he added another feature days. When given his freedom Bridant McKenzie. The prisoner's wife still wore the plain dark blue suit, trimmed only with velvet cuffs and collar of the same material that she had appeared in every day of the trial. To-day she had diso'clock, with one juror secured.

HARRY THAW,

His moustache has been recently tional jurors would have been secured had it not been for his interference. A talesman had proved acceptable to the district attorney, and to Clittord W. Hartridge, leading counsel for Thaw when there was a sudden gathering of heads over the table at the head of about to be sworn when this occurred and Mr. Hartridge stopped the proceed ings to hear what Thaw had to say, When the conference ended the prospect ive juror was challenged for cause. This proceeding happened a second time dur ing the day, Thaw again objecting to a talesman who was acceptable to counsel.

(meaning jurors), and they are good

The district attorney kept up possible deviation from the written law most anything before pursuing the course governing the criminally insane, Yester- that you did." day afternoon he added another feature talesmen of they were capable of with could pass on the prisoner's case coldly of the law they would receive from the been refused bail. Mrs. Annie Miller, judge. This was taken as a sign of the who practised as the Dr. De Voss Medidistrict attorney's anticipation of the cine Company at 210 Queen street east promised dramatic appeal from Delphin and from whom it is charged Bridant's M. Delmas, of counsel for the defense. The morning session adjourned at

HAD TO SHOOT HIM

RANCHER NAMED HORNBACK KILL ED ON MACLEOD RIVER.

His Stock, Hornback Chased His establishing the prisoner's intention or Partner and an Employee for Miles desire to prevent his wife from giving -Shot Him i nSelf-Defence.

into a small shack that served as a counsel for the prisoner, addressed the into a small shack that served as a jury for about two hours, and G. S. store near the Grand Eddy, on the Lynch-Staunton, K. C., the Crown coun-MacLeod River, by an insane rancher sel, took about forty minutes. The letters named Hornback, who riddled the walls referred to by Chief Justice were with bullets, the men whom he had those which are supposed to have passchased to their shelter were emperied ed between Robert Driscoll, a convict in self-defence to kill or at least m- at the Central Prison, and Mrs. Bridcapacitate the madman, and two but ant, with whom he was alleged to have lets laid him dead, as he stood in the been on very friendly terms. These distance with a rifle to his shoulder letters were put in as evidence by the and a bead on the imprisoned men, who defence and read to the jury. would have rescued him.

Such is the substance of the story just brought to the city from Lac Ste. Anne. by Constable Tyler, of the Northwest on the 17th of December. Heraback, who had become mad from exposure to the cold and loss of his stock, parmed

The Advance will return to Colon with be men well above the average in intel- he told them how straige, he could ligence. All seem to be in prosperous shoot, and nearer and nearer the bul-The French cruiser Jurien de La Gra- circumstances. Two of the five are ap- lets came to the building. Death from viere, and a Haytian gunboat have ar- parently just above 50 years old. Geo. the hands of a madman stared the maded. The total value of the cargo was rived here. The latter vessel offered aid Paff, hardware dealer, is the youngest, prisoned men in the face, and after constant of the suggestion was declined by the probable were dealer, in the parents just above so years old. Geo. I the hands of a madman stared the latter vessel offered aid Paff, hardware dealer, is the youngest. but this suggestion was declined by the probably not more than 36 years. Chas. suitation it was decided to disable him F. Heck, shipping agent, is possibly 50, if possible. The air proved fatal, how-two years older. The other two jurors The first party of the N. W. M. P. Science Museum, who was in his residence Museum, who was in his residence at the Northwest Arm, reports of public conjugation of the forement and Harry C. Harring the forement and the forement dence at the Northwest Arm, reports the would be unfaithful to our distribution of public opinion, if turer, the foreman, and Henry C. Harbard the last of December of Decembe the earth tremor was so perceptible that we raised to can attention to the exa two-leaved table rattled for several traordinary conduct of His Excellency in When Harry Thaw entered the court word being heard from them, a second and Sir Edward Grey's imperative duty. a two-leaved table rattled for several traordinary conduct of his Excellency in the party, composed of Corporal Monroe and At the same time it is well to reseconds, perhaps twenty. After five the present crisis. His general behavior room to-day he passed his mother's chair

> Word was sent ahead to Lac Ste. Anne in the actual disparity of national husband an earnest look of greeting, and of the occurrence, and this Constable strenth on the two sides of the 4,000 "The U. S. is a friendly nation, their during the examination of the first tales. Tyler learned from an Indian runner who miles of frontier separating Canada and was expected that they would reach Lac velopment will need an army and a Ste. Anne to-day, and an inquest will navy-no easy matter if she is to either be held there or the body will acquire them for herself, but easy if be brought through to Edmonton, where she steps into her place as a full partthe men who were the participants in net in the British Empire. Canada's

The stock of Hornback is also being brought from the Grand Eddy. It consists of thirty mares, half of the original bunch that Hornback took north from Cochrane last fall. The remainder have died from exposure and lack of feed. The tramp north by Constables Stark and PEGINA NOW PRETTY NEAR A Shand was an exceedingly hard one.

CABINET RESIGNS.

TROUBLE IN SPAIN OVER LAW OF ASSOCIATIONS.

Madrid, Jan., 28,-The Cabinet has resigned as a result of dissensions between the Liberals and the Radicals, over the law of associations.

King Alfonso is consulting with the The present Cabinet of Spain was A villager travelling on foot in the ridge, the leading counsel for the defend- formed on December last. For some time > tacted as juror in a former case in which lations law, similar to the French law. IMMIGRATION TO CANADA.

> > of 4 9Per Cent.

tion into Canada during the calendar have been received to-day, but under preyear 1906 was 215,912. For the calen- sent conditions it is impossible to redar year 1935 it was 144,618, an increase lieve the situation from here. of 71,294 or 49 per cent. The immigration was made up as follows: British, 92,257; Continental, 53,874; United States, 63,781. The imimgration into Canada for District Attorney Jerome and counsel the six months, July to December, in- TO SUPPLANT BOTH LIBERAL AND F. Collins was to-day found guilty of for the defense in the trial of Harry J. clusive, was 82,326, as compared with Thaw all express themselves as gratified 55,396 for the same period of the last at the progress made in selecting a jury. fiscal year, showing an increase of prisoner received the sentence without journed yesterday, and, as the examina-Five men were in the box when court ad- 26,930, or 48 3-5 per cent. The immiany show of emotion. Many of the wom- tion of jurors, as so far developed, is 57,463, and from the United States en among the spectators became hys- not nearly so severe as was expected, the 24,863. The increase through the ocean prospects are good that additional jury- ports was 57 per cent., and from the United States 32 per cent.

Thaw himself took more interest in pire, has been destroyed by fire. The both the Liberal and Conservative

BRIDANT IS FREE.

JURY SAYS THAT HE DID NOT MUR-DER HIS WIFE.

which sat Harry Thaw. The juror was Chief Justice Meredith Comments Severely on Production of Letters in Defence of Prisoner-Mrs. Miller to be Placed on Trial To-day.

A Toronto despatch: Very few men would have done as you have done in using the letters that your counsel used in order to save yourself," said Chief work. As he entered the Tombs he said Justice Meredith last night in discharging Edmund Bridant, the young French barber, who was found not gunty by a of the death of his young wife who died tinued the Judge, "would have done al-

Bridant's trial lasted about three medical purposes, will be placed on trial this morning in the Criminal Assizes on a charge of furnishing obnoxious drugs.

Mrs. Miller is out on bail. Chief Justice Meredith in his charge to the jury in the Bridant case yesterday afternoon referred to the fact that there was no evidence that the pills had cause the death of Mrs. Bridant, There was no doubt, however, that death was Driven Insane by Exposure and Loss of as regards the pills was only of value in birth to a child. The Chief Justice said that he was bound to make these Edmonton, Alta., Jan. 28.— Crowded facts known to the jurors. Mr. Neville,

Mounted Police. The tragedy occurred ROOT'S VISIT A RECOGNITION OF CANADA'S NATIONHOOD.

his partner and an employee from his Same Sort of Recognition Must Come Also From Side of Mother Country -Another Source of Weakness in the Long, Unprotected Frontier.

London, Jan. 28. The Times says the very fact of Secretary Root's visit and his discussion with leading Canadian statesmen, coupled with the belief that this visit is only the prelude to some comprehensive attempt to settle all outstanding diplomatic differences, is in itself a recognition of Canada's status, which American statesmen have not hitherto conceded her. Such recogni-The Daily Telegraph in a scathing edi- and Arthur S. Campbell, Supt. of Tele- ever, and in an instant Hornback was tion is most satisfactory, but it is far come even more clearly from our side. the homicide will probably be placed on interests lie in the wide sphere of reciprocal arrangements provided by the

FURIOUS BLIZZARD.

COAL FAMINE.

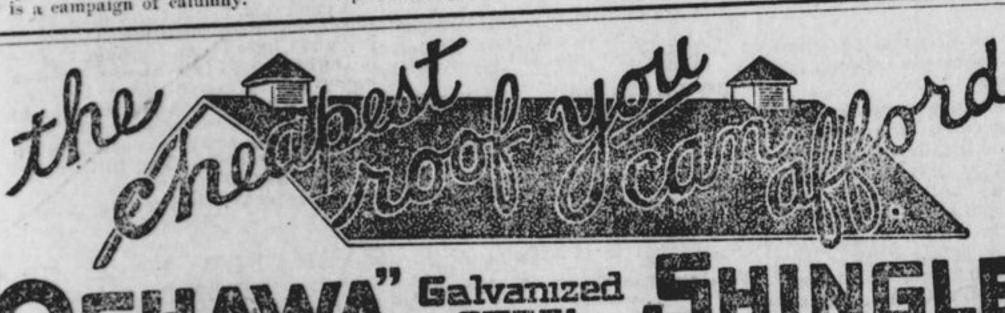

Crippled Railways Promise to Become Completely Tied Up-Fuel Situation Desperate at Points Tributary to the City.

Regina, Sask., Jan. 28.—A furious blizzaid is sweeping over the prairie, and trafife, already distocated, promises to be completely tied up for several days unless the storm suddenly moderates. For the first time in this distressful winter this city is fearing a fuel famine, having hitherto escaped owing to Regina being the Provinced Citributing point for the western coal mines. Local dealers have been counting on cars of coal already many days on the road to relieve the situation, but the blizzard in progress threatens to stop even these belated supplies. The mere fact of a coal famine here indicates acute distress at many

Ottawa, Jan. 28 .- The total immigra- on the main line and the Arcola branch

LABOR PARTY

Belfast, Ireland, Jan. 28 .- The seventh annual conference of the Labor party of Stephenson, in the presidential address, intimated that the Labor leaders would follow along the present lines until they The central part of the city of Polotsk, had sufficient representation in Parliaby Monday night, and that the trial pro- in the Proviene of Vitebsk. one of the ment to control legislation. The party, most ancient cities of the Russian Em- he added, had been formed to suppla

T $4.50 a square (10 ft. by 10 ft.), and with a guarantee of twentyfive years service back of the sale, "Oshawa" Galvanized Steel Shingles make the cheapest good roof for any permanent building on your farm. They last a hundred years. Even cedar or cypress shingles will cost you as much, and be rotted to dust

"Oshawa" Steel Shingles make buildings lightning-proof, and are guaranteed water-proof, windproof, fire-proof, an quarter - century, - long before an "Oshawa" Shingle shows a sign of wear. Slate will cost you far more to buy and twice as much to put on, - and it won'tlastabitlonger.

reading. It tells why an "Oshawa"-shingled roof is cheapest for you. It tells, too, why "Oshawa"-shin-"Oshawa" Galvanized Steel Shingles are GUARANTEED in every way for 25 Years. Ought to Last a Century | destruction lightning

Made of semi-hardyear. Better read the ened-heavy sheet steel (28-guage - book-where shall | we send your copy?

The Pedlar People

warranted) with heavy galvanizing.

Anybody who can drive nails straight can roof any building with "Oshawa" Steel

Shingles, -a hammer and a pair of tin-

Tell us the surface measure of any roof, and we will tell you exactly what it will cost to cover it with the cheapest roof you can really afford to use. Send ner's snips are tools a-plenty.

for a FREE copy of our booklet, "Roofing

Right," and read of the profitable, commonsense way to roof any building on any farm.

The booklet is worth 3:

615 Punden St.

gled roof is safe from lightning, and ing facts about the

ONTARIO ARCHIVES TORONTO

STANFORD WHITE.

The Architect, Who Was Shot.

Atorney Jerome or by Clifford W. Hart-

THAW PLEASED,

i vesterday.