LUTHER AND HENRY EIGHTH. Fourth Copy of Correspondence Sold at London Auction.

London, Feb. 4.—A reminder of the former new theological dispute, lately edited bibliophile to-day, when a hitherto unknown copy of the Latin correspondence between Luther and King Henry VIII, was sold at auction at Sotheby's. The correspondence concerns the English when King Henry, prior to the Reformation, won the title of Defender of the Faith, which has since been borne by all British sovereigns, from Pope Leo X., for attacking Luther's new theology. Luther's vigorous rejoinder is contained in the exclamation: "O, how I should enjoy covering the deserving poor."
