INTERNATIONAL LESSON XII.—MAR. 24, 1907.
Woes of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

Commentary.—The northern kingdom... The prophet's words were also a warning to Samaria. Upon this beautiful... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

1. Strong drink leads to ruin. 2. Even those high in the church were affected... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

3. Strong drink brings men into awful bondage. They are taken captive by it... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

4. Strong drink robs the drunkard of his health, wealth, loved ones, character... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

5. Strong drink destroys the body. Sooner or later the strongest constitution yields to the subtle poison... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

6. Strong drink causes the death of the soul as well as that of the body... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

7. Strong drink causes the death of the soul as well as that of the body... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

8. There is no place clean.—The liquor business is a filthy business, and every one who is engaged in it or has anything to do with it is made filthy by it... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

9. The scedders revolved (vs. ix. 17). 9. 10. Whom shall I teach, etc.—Many regard these verses as the words used by the scedders as they mocked, ridiculed and scornfully rejected the instructions of the prophet... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

10. This is the rest, etc.—God had given them repeated and faithful warnings, pointing out to them the true rest and the way to obtain it, but they had closed their ears... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

11. And fall backward, etc.—They had had great light, and this made them great sinners, and they desired a terrible punishment... Woe of Drunkenness.—Isa. xxviii. 7-13.

TEN HEARSES IN FUNERAL.

Practical Applications. Burial of the Victims of the Hochelaga Fire.

Little Coffins Ranged in Front of the Altar. Throgs Attend Funeral of Miss Maxwell, the Teacher.

Montreal despatch: A match thrown by a schoolboy into a wooden chute that extended from the top of the basement of the Hochelaga Protestant School caused the fire in which seventeen pupils and their principal perished yesterday.

Fire Drill Failed to Work. If the drill had been put into operation it is contended, the children would have escaped immediately.

Twelve of the victims are to be buried from St. Mary's Church Friday afternoon, they being Misses: Hingston, Myrtle and Edna Sprague; Selma Anderson, Mary Jackson, Andrew, Edith Gibson, John Zimmerman, Jas. Lindley, Lily Ridge, Joseph Johnson; Ethel Lambton and Johnny Lomas.

The funeral of Miss Sarah Maxwell, the principal, whose heroism saved so many lives, will take place to-morrow afternoon from her mother's residence on St. Urbain street, to Christ Church Cathedral.

The work of rescue is described thus by Fire Captain Carson: "As soon as we formed our line, we passed the children to me and I handed them from man to man down the ladder to the ground..."

It is probable that both the Protestant and Roman Catholic schools authorities will equip all the schools with proper fire escapes immediately.

Probably the little chap who gave the most realistic account of what happened was Wiley Gilbert, who claims to have been the first to discover the fire.

Montreal despatch: A touching scene was witnessed during the funeral when ten little coffins were removed to St. Mary's Church at noon for the funeral service over the remains of the victims of the Hochelaga school holocaust.

Floral offerings were received from hosts of friends and associates. All of the flowers sent, pillows wreaths and other offerings, followed the remains from her late residence to Christ Church Cathedral.

THE GOVERNMENT AND ZAM-BUK.

Survey Out from Fort William Takes a Supply of This Useful Balm.

Zam-Buk, the favorite household balm and salve, is now adopted as "the Doctor" by leading parties engaged in surveying various parts of the Dominion lands.

Mr. Henry Hall, writing from Fort William, says: "Having proved how beneficial Zam-Buk is in cases of cuts, skin injuries and diseases, I determined to keep a supply handy. Being engaged to go on a survey, I thought it would be a most useful thing to take along."

Mr. Lascelles Scott, one of the leading Government analysts, says: "I have no hesitation in certifying that the entire purity of Zam-Buk, which in my opinion is excellently adapted for skin injuries and diseases."

MORMONS DEFENDED.

Violent Speeches in the Alberta Legislature. Critics by Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick and Others Pronounced Unfair and Dastardly—House Unanimously Agrees They Are Lawbreaking Citizens.

Edmonton, Mar. 4.—The criticism of the Mormons in Alberta by Rev. Dr. Kilpatrick, "Somerhill" and Macleod, following similar observations by Rev. Mr. McQueen, of this city, which culminated in the Oliver-Kilpatrick controversy, were vigorously condemned during a discussion in the Legislature yesterday.

Mr. McKenzie, of Macleod, led the discussion and was particularly severe in his references to the eastern division. He said: "It is unfair and dastardly for opponents two thousand miles away to shamefully traduce these people, whom they do not even know. If they have the evidence of their assertions the criminal courts are wide open, and if they have not the evidence they are cowardly slanderers."

Mr. McKenzie said that in fourteen years' experience he had never known the Mormons to teach polygamy. His intimate knowledge and association with these people had confirmed his opinion.

Peers for Life. Lord Curzon's Plan for Reform of House of Lords. He Urges Scheme on the Unionists—It is Necessary to Adopt Some Plan Which Will Meet the Criticisms of the Liberals.

London, Mar. 4.—Lord Curzon, viceroy of India, who is giving no personal support to Lord Newton's bill for the reformation of the House of Lords, has formulated his own proposals of his own for the reform of that body.

Arkansas Town Struck by Cyclone. Little Rock, Ark., March 4.—A special to the Arkansas Democrat from Hope, Ark., says that a destructive tornado struck the town of Washington late last evening and literally wiped it out of existence.

Young Men Found in Dying Condition at Mugg's Lending. Toronto despatch: An unknown man, apparently about 21 years of age, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself through the right breast of the second story of a building at the Centre Island and Haman's Point.

Watch Kept on Body of Young Russian Woman in Italian Church. Rome, Mar. 4.—The story of a kind vigil is told by a correspondent, who writes from San Remo. In a vault of one of the churches there, he says, a watch is kept night and day over the body of a young Russian woman which is resting in a coffin. The woman, who was married, was a consumptive. A fortnight ago her death was duly certified to, and her body was removed to the place where it now is.

Eleven days later the woman's relatives arrived from Russia, and the coffin was opened. The body was found to show no signs of death. The skin was soft and retained the tints of life, and the lips were crimson.
