Crawford

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Brown left last week for their home near Saskatoon.

Miss Annie McDonald entertained a number of friends one evening lately. All report a good time.

Mrs. Jenks intends having a sale on March 20th.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. Harry Boyce on Wednesday last, when his youngest sister, Allie Victoria, was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to the man of her choice, Mr. Robert McCaslin. At 6 o'clock Mrs. Jewitt struck the chords of the wedding march, and the bridal party took their places under an evergreen arch. The bride was given away by her brother Harry. She was assisted by her sister Adeline, who did her duty well though she looked a little shy. Mr. Thompson Boyd, an old experienced hand, stood by the groom in a very able manner. Rev. A. Jewitt performed the ceremony which made them man and wife. Congratulations over, all adjourned to the dining-room which was very artistically arranged for the occasion. The bride's cake was a picture to behold. There was full and plenty of all kinds of good stuff to satisfy the inner man, and all expressed it "excellent." The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white silk trimmed with insertion and yoke of ornamental net, and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. The bridesmaid was tastefully dressed in white dotted swiss trimmed with insertion and lace, and carried pink carnations and maiden hair fern. A very pleasant evening was spent in games of different kinds as the wee sma' hours drew nigh. The guests took their departure after again wishing Mr. and Mrs. McCaslin a long, happy, prosperous wedded life. The bride's traveling suit was gray cheviot cloth with pale blue silk waist and white velvet hat. The presents to the young couple were numerous and costly, making a useful collection. After the honeymoon to Toronto and other places, they will reside on the old homestead, where we all wish them joy and happiness.

Mr. Tom Boyle and his bride left a short time ago for their home near Davidson, Sask.

The sales of Messrs. Minks and Boyce passed off very good indeed. They are both moving away and will be very much missed. Mr. Boyce is following the crowd to the West. He is in the prime of life and is likely to do well out there, as he was in very comfortable circumstances here.

We are sorry to state Mr. Archie Hastie has not been well of late. Hope he may soon be restored to his usual health and strength.

Mr. Hector Brown, who has been visiting friends and relatives around here for a short time, left to visit in Milton and Toronto on his return to his home near Saskatoon.

An event which made two happy took place two weeks ago last Wednesday, when Mr. James Foster, of Lumsden, Sask., joined heart and hand with Miss Maggie Nuhn. The bride's sister, Miss Lizzie, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Will Carrie saw the groom through the trying ordeal. The bride looked her prettiest in a gown of cream cashmere trimmed with chiffon and ribbons, while the bridesmaid looked becoming in cream cashmere. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. George I. Burns, of Gladstone, all sat down to a sumptuous repast, which was enjoyed by all, only a minute of the contracting parties being present. A very enjoyable time was spent. The young couple were the recipients of a number of beautiful and costly presents, which show the esteem in which they are held. They leave this week for their far away home. We are sorry to lose Maggie from our midst, but all join in wishing them all happiness and comfort in married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beamington, of Shallow Lake, are visiting at the home of the latter, Mrs. Boyd's.

We regret very much to again be called upon to chronicle the death of an neighbor in the person of Mrs. Donald McKechnie, who passed very quietly away at her home a week ago last Monday. Though she had been ill for some time death came with a sudden shock to family, friends and community. The funeral took place on Wednesday to the Rocky cemetery, when a large crowd of sorrowing friends followed the remains to their last resting place. She was of a very quiet, gentle nature, one that you always found the same. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, Crawford. Her pastor, Rev. A. Leslie, conducted the service and spoke of her gentle, contented disposition. She leaves a husband, two daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loving wife and devoted mother. She will be much missed in the vicinity. The community join in sympathy with the sorrowing friends.

Mr. John Gray has moved to his new home out near Zion. He will be much missed around here. We wish him success.

Mr. Alex. Conits, of Toronto, is visiting at Mr. Sandy Campbells.

Sorry to state that Miss Kate Brown had a relapse. We hope as spring draws near she will gain health and strength.

Varney

Miss McKenzie visited at Mr. J. W. Blythe's on Thursday evening last. Dr. Leeson spent Monday with Mt Forest friends.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Harry Grasby is still very ill. Rev. Sanderson was at his post on Sunday after an absence of two weeks caused by an attack of La Grippe.

Mr. Jos Mack, one of the pioneers of Egremont passed away on Thursday last after a tedious illness. Deceased was seventy five years of age, and leaves as chief mourners, Mrs. Geo. Lawrence of Ft. William formerly of Durham, Mary, in the West and James on the homestead. The remains were buried in Maplewood cemetery on Saturday.

Mrs. Chapman of Mt Forest visited over Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sirrs.

Mrs. H. W. Leeson went to her new home in Mt Forest Saturday, after spending a few days with relatives here.

Mr. John Kerr has the framers busy these days getting timber ready for an addition to his barn.

Wm. Sirrs purchased a horse from the Hillis brothers.

Messrs T. and M. Allen are home from the cream separator works of Durham.

Hopeville

The Rev. Mr. Gibson of the Hopeville church has had a trip to Toronto last week.

D. K. McArthur lost a horse last week by getting his leg broken. His son in driving him into the wood shed with a load of wood ran against a wagon. He had to be shot.

We had on the sick list here the Barnett family, the Riddell family and now Mr. Andrew Dyce of Egremont at Proton town line is dangerously ill with a number of diseases.

Mr. Elliott G. Stevenson formerly Supreme councillor in the L. O. F. has been appointed Supreme chief in the place of the late Dr. Oronhyatka. He is an able man, a Canadian, though now a resident in the States, where he has had great honors and there was no dissenting voice to his election.

Hampden

Mr. Robert Whiteford, who broke his thigh in a fall did on Thursday at the advanced age of 98 years. His removal makes another gap in the fast lessening band of the pioneers who braved the forests. It is somewhat remarkable that four generations of Whitefords have lived on the same farm his son John and grandson with the latter's children all being resident thereon. His daughters, Mrs. Young and Miss Agnes lived with the old gentleman. He had a hale as well as long and vigorous life, and only last fall walked to Allan Park. He was buried on Saturday in Hampden cemetery.

The Breutigam family are moving to Aytton. Their old time neighbors will regret their departure while wishing them well.

Capt. Snider has been under the weather for a few weeks.

Miss Janet Byers left on Monday for Saskatchewan.

Mrs. L. McNaughton for some weeks in poor health is recovering.

Rev. Mr. Badger's pulpit was vacant for two weeks owing to illness.

Mr. Thos and Miss Jessie Derby spent from Friday till Monday with Egremont friends.

Mrs. Geo. Sachs returned home on Friday somewhat improved in health.

These are stirring times round the swamps here getting out ties and timbers for the railway which is evidently going to be rushed when spring opens.
