Local Option in Owen Sound.

Our informant says that the general testimony is that there is not one drunk now for twenty-five before Local Option came into effect, and many believe there is not one for every one hundred.

At the grocers' picnic about five thousand were present, and not a drunken man was to be seen, while formerly they could be observed by the score.

Some time ago a family in Bay St was in want. The children did not have sufficient underwear and nothing but cotton stockings. On a cold day they had to stay at home from school.

A married woman told a W. G. T. U. worker that she did not think it possible to have such a happy home as they have had for the past few months.

If space permitted we could greatly multiply testimonies of this convincing sort from our informant's report, and from other sources.

Let me say to the brethren before closing this communication, that the facts are on our side, and if we will but use them, victory in most cases is sure.

Review to Jan. 1, 1908 Weekly Globe, one yr. $1

New! New! New! Gents' Furnishings. We beg to announce to the people of Durham and vicinity that we have opened up in Dromore.

Well Mr Editor we had a rather chilly Easter, not very good for the Easter bonnets, however its better to have the cold snap now than later on in the season.

Mr Hugh Renwick, who has a splendid position in Ottawa, spent Easter under the parental roof.

Miss Janet Hay, arrived home from Toronto, Friday last to spend a couple of weeks with her parents here.

The choir very ably rendered a pleasing anthem on Sunday morning in Amos church.

Miss Phebe Moody is visiting her sister, Mrs Colin McMillan, over the holidays.

Mr Thos Aivins, left last Monday for Toronto and we notice one young lady looking quite lonesome.

Mr Jno Garson is rushing things ahead, he intends raising the roof on his barn this week.

Mr and Mrs Jno Snell have been visiting relatives and renewing acquaintances around here.

We were pleased to see Miss Lizzie Laughton able to be out to church on Sunday.

We were afraid our population was going to be decreased by many immigrants to the West, but we think Dromore is holding its own.

Now babies 'tis your christening day Pat on your sweetest smile, Although the rain is pouring down 'Twill clear up after awhile.

Mary Jane the only girl, Was christened first of all While Alexander John came next, The second on the call.

William James was with the rest And Alex Murray nearly missed it all.

Dornoch.

The track that late went o'er the snow Will soon go through the glades and glen When nature turns the glades and glen To regular fairy mazes.

Each year the poultry business is becoming more lucrative and now assumes proportions that will soon rival any branch of farm industry.
