Taylor & Co., Dromore

Dromore.

Intended for last week.

One of the most interesting events seen here for some time took place in Amos church on Friday last at the Pre Communion service. Now, Dear Reader, don't think you are in for a hackneyed description of a common place wedding, but a christening of six babies as nice as could be met with in a days travel. Everyone of the cherubs were on their good behavior before the new minister, as if their future character and the fate of the country depended upon it. Following are the names of the little ones: Mary Jane Haas, Alex John McMillan, Edwin Smith Findley, Alex Craig Laughton, Wm James Adams, Murray Alex Henderson.

In this connection it is worth remarking that some one has noted, that during the 12 month's vacancy, not a single death has occurred within the bounds of the congregation, surely a matter for gratitude.

Mr Hugh Renwick of the P. O. department, Ottawa, paid an Easter visit to his parents here Mr and Mrs Robt Renwick, Sr. He returns on Tuesday, he has lately passed a civil service examination which entitles him to a higher salary and a month's holidays.

Maple syrup making is the order of the day. Mr John Sinclair being the most extensive in the business having 300 trees on tap, with Mr Frank Adams a good second.

Miss Sarah Brown has secured a position in a candy and confectionery store in Holstein, where no doubt her good looks, winning manner and surrounding sweets will draw custom.

Mr Eddie Wells starts his wooden hen this week at producing chickens. Mr Wm Ramage having already some arrived in this cold climate.

The "Black Killer" has been at work on the north line, Mr Wm Watson having had a couple of sheep worried. The owners of the dogs on full proof being given, will be found willing to pay all damages.

Mr Wm Ramage had the misfortune to lose a young heifer just about the calving, through falling over the sloping stalls and strangling herself.

Miss Lucy McKelvey leaves on Thursday for a visit to her Uncle George in Toronto.

Mr Kinney a brother-in-law of Mr Mr Robt Baxter and Mr Wm Tucker attended Mr W. G. Tucker's sale and purchased a fine team of horses at over $400. He drove them to Toronto the following day.

Miss Mary Ramage, who is qualifying herself for dressmaking in your town visited her home over the week end.

The ordinance of the Lords' Supper the first observed under the new Pastor, Rev Geo Kendall, was largely attended on Sunday last and impressively administered. The choir contributing an appropriate Easter anthem on the same occasion.

This week's budget

An interesting meeting of Women's Institute was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs Robt Renwick Sr. The topic was "House Cleaning", two very helpful papers were given, one by Mrs Renwick entitled "around the house", the other "House cleaning with comfort" was read by Miss Ella Renwick. It was decided to have the next meeting May 1st at the home of Mrs Jno Renton, topic, "Gardening and Raising Poultry."

Our village seems rather quiet since the school scholars have started back to school.

Our Pastor, Rev Mr Kendall, though he chose to live in the country, did not care to live in the woods so improved the look of the place by removing some of the many trees in front of the manse.

We are glad to see the smiling face of Miss Hattie Watt in our village again.

Had the pleasure of tasting some of John's Maple syrup last week and we don't wonder at some of the young ladies looking sweet.

Tom intends keeping warm in the new house next winter as he and Arthur Renton have been cutting wood for the past two weeks.

Mr Colin McMillan visited Priceville friends over Sunday.

Spring is surely near, as we noticed some of our farmers started ploughing last week.

Our Blacksmith, Jno Renton is very busy just now getting harrows in shape for spring seeding.

Swinton Park.

Sugar making is the order of the day and there is not much taffy flying around.

Mr George Black purchased a new evaporator and is doing a rushing business, he has over five hundred trees tapped.

Miss F. Bell visited her parental home during the Easter holidays.

Mr William Aldcorn and son took a trip to Toronto to purchase some goods during the Easter holidays, while Miss Jennie Knox and Miss Mary Aldcorn did a rushing business in the store.

Mr John Hill and Messrs Leslie and Howard Watson took a trip to the city of Toronto during the holidays, there must be a great magnetism to draw the boys to the city as Howard never returned. We hear he is looking for a job.

Miss Maggie Knox visited the parental home during the holidays. We noticed another fellow with a smiling face.

Miss Nellie Kinnel of Dandalk visited Miss Lizzie Aldcorn and Miss Maggie Knox during the holidays.

Mrs George Haw is ill at present but we are glad to hear she is on the mend.

Mr George Heard and Mr Herb Campbell visited their parental homes during the holidays.

We wonder who was so lucky as to happen out to town on Saturday last as his loved one came off the noon train, so he drove her to her boarding home where she will remain for the next three months.

Mr James Bachelor has rented Mr Jas Ferris's farm for the next two years.

Hampden

Landels Marshall left Monday morning for Pennsylvania where he has secured a job on the State Dam now being constructed.

Mrs T. Geddes spent the last week or two in the old home here. Leaving the homestead and breaking old ties must be hard for her after spending so many years of her life there. All join in wishing her well in her new home wherever that may be.

Mrs Hugh Fulton and Miss Hattie Byers spent Easter vacation with their brother John in Toronto.

Mr W. Ball's sugar bush, by the school has proved a centre of attraction for several weeks. Mr Ball and Mrs Ball have evidently not forgotten they once were children judging by the daily trips to the woods that the children make with their cups.

Cutting wood has been quite the order of the day for several weeks and wood boys in every direction.

Mrs T. Young and two little daughters visited over Easter with Mrs Young's parents at Chesley.

Miss Mildred Leeson is spending her holidays with Mt Forest friends.

Mrs Jas Watt had the misfortune to fall and break her wrist last week, Miss Jessie Derby is the ministering angel who is relieving her.

The whole community was surprised and saddened by the sudden death of Mr Alfred Corbett on Wednesday, March 27, Mr Corbett attended service here the Sunday afternoon before his death. The heartfelt sympathy of the neighborhood is extended to the sorrowing friends.
