Priceville

This is remarkable cold weather, snowing, freezing and thawing were experienced during the past week.

Complaints are heard of scarcity of cattle feed in general, but still it seems there is abundance of feed in some parts.

Roads are about as bad as can be. No matter whether they be back lines, gravel roads or mud roads they are all the same.

Some are ploughing but the majority are not.

Every house available in our town is taken up by railroaders in general. Several gangs are at work east and west of here at grading and other work.

The townline bridge being swept away by the late floods causes inconvenience to people coming from the north as they have to go down to McLaughlin's sideroad on Glenelg side or to David Hink's sideroad on Artemesia side.

Our town police force demands the presence of Glenelg and Artemesia Reeves and Assessors on Friday next, the 19th inst., at 3 in the afternoon.

Our town is quite busy and a good business is anticipated during the coming summer and fall.

Mr. P. F. McArthur, merchant, took a business trip to Toronto this week, combining business with pleasure.

Mrs. Butters got her large barn to its place some time ago. It will cause her more convenience to have it on the same side of the street as the hotel.

Councillor John A. McMillan, of Glenelg, just got home in time on Saturday last to attend council meeting. He was driven to the town hall by his good friend, A. B. McArthur.

The Gaelic Communion held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, the 7th inst., was not well patronized. The venerable John Campbell, of Swinton Park, was in attendance in spite of his 89 years.

Some complaints are made as to the unsatisfactory position the organ and choir are placed in the Presbyterian church in this town.

We saw the good T. P. Clerk of Glenelg, J. S. Black, Esq., in town one day lately. As the bridge is gone he took the cow's pathway through bush and fields until he landed in Priceville.

Mr. Donald McRea and family moved into Priceville from the south line. Mr. McRea bought the late Donald McArthur's residence north of town.

Mr. Arch'd McMullen, of Ceylon, and family moved to Hector McKinnon's house a few days ago.

Donald McLeod and family, who lived one mile north at sideroad 40, Glenelg, moved to Toronto a week ago, where they intend to stay for some time.

We are pleased to hear that Wm. Smellie, Jr., who underwent a very critical operation is getting better again.

We noticed a slight error in our account of the Ferguson and McIntyre marriage when we said that we knew the bride from infancy.

Proton Council held a meeting in Dundalk on the 6th inst. The chief business was a Court of Revision on the Proton Station drains. These drains have been before the Council since the late of Artemesia for years.

Mr. James Fullerton, formerly of Dundalk, but now of Hopeville, is making good time as mail carrier, altho the roads are very bad.

Mr. Joseph McArdle, reeve, Mr. John Aloor and Mr. Wm. Henry, councillors, spent Friday, the 12th, examining the wreck of the bridge and road at the Saugeen River north of Swinton Park.
