----"It's a Boy"

These simple words in the soft Spanish language no doubt, caused a whirlwind of joy throughout Spain last Friday, for the youngster referred since so many are made happier, The hearts, at least by insisting, contrary child herself. This streak of good sense tempers the almost grotesque proceedings in old Madrid made in anticipation of the event. There was to be 16 guns fired if girl was born, 21 if a boy. One can imagine the tense excitement that would preyail among the waiting populace before the 17th gan and the hysterical jubilation that followed it. Long live the "Prince of the Asturias" a title chosen in imitation of "Prince of Wales."

HODERICK COCHRANE DEAD .- MT Robt Cochrane, Monday, received ; telegram from his nephew Allister, in Washington, containing the sad news that his father had died that morning. This was our Mr Occhrane's only remaining brother. His home was in Worcester, Mass, but for the past two months he was with his son in Washington, He is to be buried in Detroit, where his wife lies, but as the telegram was not definite as to the day Mr Cochrane did not go. Deceased was about 68 years old, and was well known to many in Durham where part of his early days was spent, Our readers will remember the interesting letter we published from him some months ago recalling early Durham. The Globe, in referring to his death says he was the man who sent the first plough to Manitoba. Mr Cochrane has still two sisters in and near St Thomas.
