Is $15 your price for a Spring Suit?

Then we should like to burn into your brain the fact that for $15 you can get all the style and as perfect a fit as can be put into a suit—as much as if you paid $25. Of course the cloth is not so fine, nor the trappings so luxurious, but every other way the $15 suit is identical with the highest cost clothing.

PRIZE LIST

The prize list of the Canadian National Exhibition of Toronto is just out. Many changes are made, making it more convenient for reference by exhibitors. The regulations are changed so that all animals exhibited in the live stock sections must be registered in the Canadian Herd Book registers.

In the Horse section the Canadian breeder is put on a fair footing with the importer. The directors have endeavored in every way to protect and encourage Canadian bred horses. The prizes in the breeding classes of the horse section have been increased over $600. Several new classes have been added, especially the one for strings of ten horses, which is expected to be one of the features of this year's exhibit.

In the harness, hunter and jumping classes the prize list remains the same as last year including the King Edward Hotel Cup, which is again being given for the best horse in the rump-out class.

In the speed division the prizes have been increased by $1,000. A new class has been added providing for horses that are not fast enough for the "free-for-all" but that are too speedy for the 250 classes. The conditions are the same.

In the cattle section A. T. Gordon of Combscauseway, Scotland, has consented to judge the Short-horns, which is the largest class in this section. The prizes in the Herefords and the Holsteins have been considerably increased.

The general arrangement throughout the prize list this year is alphabetical, so that the finding of any section is made easy. The aggregate amount of the prizes is $33,000, not including the $3,000 given in the speed department. This is the largest purely agricultural prize list on the American continent.

MISS DICK

HYMENEAL.

RAE-GADD

A very pretty wedding took place last Wednesday at 5 p. m. at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs Wm Gadd, Lambton St., when her eldest daughter Miss Susie Gadd, was transformed into Mrs. Robt. Rae, Rev. W. Farquharson tying the knot.

The handsome bride was attractively dressed in a white delaine with satin stripe and made guimpe fashion and trimmed with lace. Her sister Miss Maggie as bridesmaid was prettily attired in light muslin trimmed with lace and both carried lovely bridal bouquets of roses, the bride being cream and the bridesmaid's of pink.

Miss Emma Gadd played the wedding march as the happy pair came side by side.

Mr. Chas Dowling, cousin of the bride, was groomsmen. Mr Rae is a worthy and intelligent young man from Toronto and we hope the young couple will have a pleasant voyage over life's matrimonial sea.

Mr and Mrs Rae took a trip to Lisfowel to visit the groom's relatives and returned Saturday to Durham whence they left Monday for Toronto.

W. F. M. S. Annual Meeting

The Presbyterian meeting in connection with Saugeen Presbytery was held in Holstein on Tuesday with a good attendance from Mt Forest, Durham, Holstein and most of the auxiliaries notwithstanding unfavorable weather.

Mrs Hanna made an efficient presiding officer. The new President is Mrs. Farguharson, and the new Secretary is Mrs. McTaggart, Mt Forest; Mrs Little, Holstein; Mrs Thompson, Drayton; Mrs Scott, Mt Forest and Mrs, Kendall, Dromore are the Vice Presidents. Mrs Sinclair, Arthur, is Treasurer.

Over $400 was contributed to Missions since the beginning of the year, and encouraging reports were given by nearly all.

The visitors were hospitably entertained by the local W. F. M. S.

The speaker of the occasion was Mrs Goodfellow of Ontario, a missionary, who gave one of the best addresses yet heard on "Mission work and life in India." As an instance of her personal devotion it might be told that she drove from Thornbury on Monday through that awful blizzard.

An interesting evening session was held of which we expect a fuller report next week.
