Priceville

This is June 1st 1907, not very warm yet. East wind and indications of cold rain. Crops are doing fairly well although so cold, hay fields have not made much of a start yet around Top Cliff. A large number of the farmers hustled in their crops to get to the railroad as soon as possible.

The work on the railroad is progressing good(ly) there are quite a gang of men and teams at work east and west of Priceville, with the big steam shovel at work north of the village.

Potato planting and preparing for roots is the general order around here. Our teacher Miss McCosh spent a couple of more days at her home at Owen Sound over the 24th and returned the following Monday.

Miss Belle McKinnon is home from Toronto where she spent the last few months.

Angus McEachern of Cleveland left last week after spending a while at home when attending his grandfather's funeral, the late Hector McKinnon, who died a couple of weeks ago at the age of 81 years.

Mrs Matthews (Annie McMillan) of Texas is spending a while at the old home with her father, Mr. Alex McMillan, south line, Artemesia.

Mrs McCannel, Sr., of Durham, spent a couple of weeks at Mr. Wm McLeod's of this place on important business.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Samuel McDermid is not improving much.

BORN—to Mr. and Mrs Wm McLeod a daughter. All doing well.

William Smellie, Jr. who underwent an operation a couple of months ago, is improving but slowly.

The smiling face of Dr. James Atkinson is to be seen at his mother's in Priceville at the time of writing. Jamie, as he is always called, is a special favorite with the public in general and all are pleased to see him back for awhile again to the old town of Priceville.

The Rev Mr. Roach has just two more Sundays to preach in Priceville, it is four years since Mr. Roach came to this circuit and during that time he made many warm friends who regret his departure.

Jubilee of the Presbyterian church at Priceville to be held on Sunday 23rd June and last Sunday in June. Rev Buchannan of Dundalk will preach on June 23rd and Rev Alex McGillivray of Toronto, on July 1st and on the following Monday evening a grand entertainment is to take place when other notable speakers will be in attendance.

Mr Patrick Sullivan of Erin village paid a flying visit up on the 24th looking after his property near this place. Mr Sullivan is in the hotel business and reports a good share of patronage.

We notice that a young auditor arrived in the township of Glenelg without calling a special meeting of council for his appointment. If he will prove to be as good at figures as his dad, he will be an honor to any municipality to fill the position in future years.

It seems the Flesherton Advances correspondent hits hard on the managers of the grave yard in Priceville. If he is interested he should make a move for its improvement, if not, let him mind his own business, for its always easier to find fault than to lend a helping hand.

Mr Arch McCaig, our genial Post master is beautifying the grounds around his fine dwelling during part of last week and it will be a pleasure to those coming to the office to sit a while on a beautiful summer evening enjoying the bracing air from Top Cliff's heights.

The snows of 1852 so late in the season according to Mr Scott's recollections beats 1907. We remember the story told by Mr Scott, perhaps the same year it occurred. That having lost one of his sheep in the beginning of winter, and as Mr Scott had a patch of ice scraps that he did not get in before the snow came, they remained till next spring, giving up the idea that his lost sheep would ever be found. To his astonishment he found it in the spring snugly caved inside a monster turp, where she nibbled all winter with a pair of twin lambs, and so she had. If "tin feet of snow" in the latter part of June be correct, the story of the lost sheep is also, but we can vouch for measuring 5 feet on Tuesday morning the 28th May 1907 in our lane, a drift of course, and it took four days for the work of nature to have it removed.

The Rev Walter Nichol son of Mr John Nichol, D. Road, Glenelg will preach in the Presbyterian church, Priceville, morning and evening next Sunday, 9th June. The Rev Mr Matheson will be at Flesherton at communion in the Presbyterian church there.

Died at Calgary, Alberta, on the 14th May 1907, suddenly, Mr Hugh McInnes, brother of Mrs Duncan McDonald, Durham road, Glenelg, at the age of 65 years. Mr McInnes left an estate estimated to be worth some Sixty or Seventy thousand dollars. He was unmarried.

Died at her nephew's residence, Alex McDonald, Proton, on Saturday the 25th May, 1907, Catharine McArthur, relict of the late James McDonald, elder, at the age of 89 years.

ONTARIO

The old lady was always longing for living as she was the most of her time living alone on the farm where she spent the last 54 years, Lot 46 con 2 S. D. R., Glenelg. She was a good old Presbyterian and felt assured that to depart was translating her ever lasting happiness hereafter. She was buried in Priceville cemetery. Rev Mr Matheson officiating.

Hopeville

Died on Sunday night 26th May at the old Sterick homestead. Mrs George Sterick, relict of the late George Sterick, her age being 83 years. Mrs Sterick came to Canada over 50 years ago with her husband and young family from Scotland, after living a year in Ontario, they with other friends, came into Proton, with the first settlers, years before the Proton land sale, and they settled on the land that they always lived and died upon, now owned by their son, George Sterick. Her husband died over thirty years ago. The family being industrious and careful made it a comfortable homestead and a valuable property.

The deceased was a good neighbor and a kind and faithful wife and mother. Her children are all married and well settled, some of them in Proton and some in the North West. The funeral was on Tuesday the 28th in the Espin Presbyterian church, where she, her husband and family were faithful members. The Rev Mr McInnes officiated.

Evening services commenced in the Presbyterian church, Espin, last Sunday and will be continued all this week, and communion services will be held on Sunday June 9th. We are getting spring weather in Proton.

Varney.

Miss Mabel Dunn left for Toronto Friday morning last, where she intends taking a situation for a time.

Mr C. T. Leeson spent Friday and Saturday with Mr Forest friends. Sunday being Conference time the Sabbath School was held in the morning, there being no service.

Miss Margaret Leeson entertained a few of her little girl friends at a birthday party on the 31st.

Miss Gladys Dunn returned from her duties in Toronto to assist her mother during the summer months.

Mr Robt Petty is the happy possessor of another son which arrived just in time for the 24th, thereby receiving the go-cart promised by Mr Kress.

Mr T. Grady is making notable improvements in the property he lately purchased.
