PERSONAL EDITION

Clerk Allan of Egremont is in town today on business.

Miss Edith Lloyd left on Monday to take a position as nurse in Fergus hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McGillivray of Bruce attended the funeral of his cousin, Mr. Arch. McKechnie.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Patterson left last week for Kempton to attend the funeral of the latter's mother.

Mr. Charter Smith paid a visit to Toronto on Tuesday. Glad to see him again after a trying illness.

Rev. Mr. Little, Holstein, was present and took part at the funeral of the late Arch. McKechnie, at the Rocky.

Mrs. (Rev.) Newton left this week for New York and other American cities, and will be absent for a month or two.

Mr. Chas Lavelle and bride returned Monday night from their wedding trip and are going to take up house in the Rose cottage.

Mrs. Allie Grant left on Wednesday for Rosedale to spend the week with her sisters Ethel and Margaret who are teaching near there.

Mrs Jas and Smith Dunsmore of Hamilton were home last week to attend the funeral of their brother-in-law Mr. Arch. McKechnie.

Mr. John H. Hunter is this week at Niagara Falls attending the meeting of the Grand Camp Sons of Scotland, as delegate from Ben Nevis Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Petty, Everett, were up to attend the funeral of their former father, Mr. Henry Petty, on Monday. Their eldest son accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Greenwood have returned from Toronto where the former went to consult a specialist for his health. We are sorry to hear he is not much improved.

Mr. Donald McQueen, Conn, ex-convict of Egremont, passed through Durham Wednesday, on his way to attend the wedding of a cousin in Chatsworth. We were pleased to have a call from him.

Mrs. Wm. Coleridge, O. Sound, was a guest at the Review Office for a couple of days this week. She is extending her visit with Egremont friends and relatives. Her two children are company her.

Mr. Jas Allan, Sr. of Egremont with his son Alex leave on Friday morning for Town where they have secured good positions. The former gets $200 a month and expenses, the son $150 and expenses.

Mr. K. Richardson and daughter Christine were in Durham, Tuesday, and were guests of Mr. Irwin. Mr. Richardson has now the garden of the work for neglected children, so long held by the late Rev. Mr. Ledwards.

Mrs. H. McMurry, teacher here, has resigned her position and left the School Board and left Wednesday for her home in Dunnville. Her work here gave much satisfaction and her winning personality made her many friends.

Among those out of town who attended the Capper—Saunders tumult last week were Miss Matheson, cousin of the bride from Kincardine, Miss Bessee Wall of Hanover, Mr. Jas Hartness of Teeswater and Mrs. H. W. Linton, and Miss Elizator Lessen of Mt. Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Capper returned to town Friday evening where they intend to remain at present. Mr. Capper having the position of superintendent of the National Portland Cement company here.—Com.

BUTCHER—EDGE

On Wednesday the 19th inst. at 6 o'clock p.m., the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Edge, Glenrothes was the scene of a pretty wedding. The occasion being the marriage of their eldest daughter, Miss Bessee Maid to Mr. William John Ritchie, son of Mr. Wm. Ritchie of Glenrothes. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Wm. Farquharson D.D. in his easy drawing room which was decorated for the occasion with a profusion of flowers, red and white, and in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Sarah Edge, the bride leaning on the arm of her father entered the room and took her place beside the groom who had already entered and awaited her there. She then donned in her wedding dress a crimson silk sash and a lace and velvet, and on her lap a beautiful brooch, the gift of the groom, and carried a bridal wreath of roses. They were both bathed, but got through the trying ordeal without the usual assistance. Immediately after the ceremony the company sat down to a sumptuous dinner, and later enjoyed themselves in conversation and mirth. Many of the old songs were sung, and many of the new, all spending a very pleasant time until the early hours of the morning. The presents to the bride were many and valuable, that of her father and another being a purse containing one hundred dollars in gold. The young couple immediately took up residence in their new home, and carry with them the best wishes of the whole community.

LAVELLE—SCHWEINK

At Maydale on Wednesday the 19th Miss Erna Scheink and Mr. Chas. Lavelle entered into matrimonial bonds; Rev. F. W. Morrison tying the knot in the presence of relatives and friends.

After a short honeymoon trip to various Ontario points they have returned to Durham take up residence and we welcome them to our citizenship.

The old log schoolhouse which stood at the corner in Maplewood cemetery for 47 years was sold by auction on Monday evening, Mr. J. W. Blythe being auctioneer. Bidding was quite lively but Mr. Wm. Morrison bought it for the sum of $5.75. The debris is to be all cleared away so the old landmark will soon be gone.

The patrons of Varney School intend making improvements in the school house and grounds on Saturday afternoon. Long and happy wedded days to the five young couples whose marriages we record in this issue.

The accepted cheques on the Chancery Court, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to 10 per cent (10%) of the amount of the bonds, will be forwarded to the contractor if the person tendering the same will contract or fail to complete the work contracted for, or to be returned in case of non-acceptance of tenders.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By Order of the Minister of Public Works,
