In Ye Olden Time.

Mr Editor, Dear Sir:—

Mr McDougall that old veteran tax collector of the Township of Bentinck, the man who has served so long in that capacity that I fancy he must know every man, woman and child in the Township. A few days ago he entered McLachlan's store and says to me "I want to see you," so I followed him to the back shop. He sat down to the desk and at once drew from his pocket a parcel of papers or documents. I once was afflicted with a trouble called fever and ague and I thought the blamed thing had struck me again. You see I never had any business with the gentleman I simply knew him as a man long mixed up in municipal affairs and insurance work. Was it any wonder I began to shake? I thought sure it was a writ of some kind or a summons and then it struck me it might be an invitation to a wedding. That was the first thought that gave me relief and the shaking at once left me. My fears were entirely groundless, the papers were some old things he came across a short time ago while doing some business for one of the neighbors. I think he said the late Mr McKeechie of the Rocky and wanted me to write them up. I refused upon the ground that he was a man far more capable of doing it than I was. But he would take no denial, so left the papers with me. Before leaving the shop I stated the circumstance to Peter Lauder, who looked at the papers and handed them back saying he could make nothing of the D'm't things and was sure nobody else could. I told him I thought he was right and that I would send them back to him. However I have made a start, fearing at the same time that the finish won't be worth the powder and shot.

Now Mr McDougall has simply asked for a sketch of Bentinck and Glenelg and its people in its early days and in giving that sketch should I allude to Durham, you are not to forget the fact that a still within the bounds of those two municipalities, as our town in those days belonged to the both. I will now start with document No 1 dated 1838. It is simply a collector's roll of S. Section made out in L. S. D. There are some 22 names upon it and Mr McDougall tells me, there is only the one left. The only two upon the list I was acquainted with was John Lauder, who occupied the Lawson farm adjoining the town, the other was Thomas Lauder up near the Creek, father of A. W. Lauder, late member. Old Mr Lauder, Mr Editor, reminded me very much of our old friend, Mr Watson of Normanby, you recollect what a very cool, kindly, outspoken old Scotchman he was. We had a good illustration of it when the Minister brought his fist down upon the Bible knocking it off the stand, the old gentleman rose and picked it up, "man" he says to him "you hit it too hard that time."

The first of Bentinck's Presbyterian ministers, I recollect of, was Mr Smully from Fergus and his visits were few and far between. And when he arrived there usually was a batch of weans waiting for him and upon this particular occasion there were some 7 or 8 and our Ex-Mayor was amongst them. Where I was raised the word what was called "christening cloaks or coats" the one my young brother was baptised in was laid away for a relic it crossed the ocean and after many years landed in the township of Egremont, I have no hesitation in saying that Archy won the Belle of the Ball, as he was touted out in this very same coat that we brought across the Atlantic ocean. Now to assure you that a splendid piece of goods it was; nothing like it in those early days in the two townships I speak of. The minister got through or at least he thought he had and was finishing in the usual way by prayer, when old Mr Lauder stopped him; he touched him on the shoulder telling him that he had missed a wean. I think you will agree with me in saying that there was no other man in creation but your old friend Mr Watson would have done it, and still it was well thought of and to the point for had it not been done there was one of two things would have happened the minister would had to go all over the ceremony again or Archy might have been left out altogether.

Paper No 2 dated 1863 is similar to the other but made out in dollars and cents the names are much alike but our two old friends John and Thomas Lauder are gone. Paper No 3 is printed matter dated June 21st 1907, upon the death of John Cameron, the old pioneer thresher of Bentinck and Glenelg and brother-in-law to Mr McDougall the article says he came to the County Grey in 1847. I used to thresh with him on the old Hunter farm. The article says that the large number of people who assembled at the funeral told of the high esteem in which he was held by the people of Bottineau and vicinity, some place in North Dakota. Paper No 4, Clerk's office Bentinck, 1866, a resolution in connection with some school matters from Bentinck Council and moved by Mr Cochrane. I told Peter I had nothing to say about either the one Township or the other that I knew of but the way things are shaping I think I am saying more than you will care to put into type. When I come to think of it as a family we were more mixed up in the Municipal affairs of the Township than perhaps any other family that ever lived in it. The mover of the resolution was my brother, Deputy Reeve of the Township, my other brother at the time was Treasurer and I was one of his sub-ordinates. I don't mind to what amount I do mind it was far more than I was worth. Jim Hopkins was Reeve and a very popular man he was. Those were the days when they tried to get the Narrow Gage Railway through here. The Toronto men knew that I was in favour of it and they called at the old farm down in Egremont and I had the honor of riding out to the poll with one of Toronto's aldermen. Jim Hopkins was on the platform opposing it like the rest. After he got through one of the Toronto men replied to him, he said "the Reeve of Bentinck has tried pretty hard to insult us and no doubt has left the platform under the impression that he has succeeded but I want to say to him that an insult can only be such when it comes from a man worthy of notice."

North Egremont.

Messrs David McKelvie, Isaac Hooper, Matt Hooper, Andy Henry, Mr and Mrs J. C. Adams and many others near here took on the excursion to the Falls, and report having enjoyed the trip and scenery, and who probably may wish the author have felt inclined to utter a prayer of thankfulness that in their little day, they had been permitted to behold this eternal image of the Creator's energy, and who may have had their minds enobled with thoughts of grandeur, goodness and beauty and raised a step higher in his conception of power and eternity in the country. Mr Jno McKelvie also split his barn and put in a twenty feet stretch in the centre, and had a stone basement built underneath the whole barn. The corners being built of cement blocks of Mr J. Melish's manufacture which give a substantial and neat appearance to structure. Mr Thos Henwick is the framer. Mr John Whitmore is also having a stone foundation put under his barn, Mr Wm Kenton doing the work and he compliments the proprietor for having the stones cut and dressed ready for placing.

We are pleased to report the improvement in the condition of Mr and Mrs Thos. Dailey, after their severe accident in the runaway. Mrs D Coleridge is improving slowly from a recent collapse of the muscles, which was not so serious as at first anticipated. Mrs C. for her years shows wonderful vitality. Mrs J. H. Tucker of Carleton Place was visiting at her father-in-law's Mr J. S. Tucker last week and returned taking with her Mrs Frank Kenzie, her sister-in-law, with her for a short visit. Mr Henry Hooper, S. Glenelg lately took unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Lyness of Artemesia. The boys, intent on celebrating, gathered one night and wedded patiently the young coming of the groom and his bride. Not having a supply of oil with them, like the virgins of old, but an abundant supply of matches, a fire was lit to help pass the time and perhaps dispel the early darkness, but the couple smying the fire from a near by hill smelt danger and quietly turned their horse about and retraced their steps around the block by which time the boys got weary in waiting and left for home. We extend hearty congratulations. Billy Moore, son of Joseph, is down from Temiskaming on a visit accom-
