The Smoke Nuisance

The meeting last Friday was fairly well attended and exhibited a perfectly unanimous attitude on the troubles arising from the volumes of smoke and coal dust being emitted from our cement works. It appears that visitors to other parts where cement mills are in operation find no such disagreeable experiences as we have here, and this, together with the failure of the management to implement the promises of last year, have irritated the town to no small degree.

The law of last session of parliament prohibiting smoke nuisances but exempting from its operation smelters and cement works came in for much discussion. Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., said the exemption was not on the first draft of the bill but was changed in committee and slipped through the house unobserved. It was even hinted that one of our directors was influential in having the obnoxious clause slipped in. Be that as it may it presents a barrier to any legal redress in the meantime.

A motion by C. Brown and Jas. Webber urged the council to secure the best legal talent at once to secure redress; an amendment by C. Ramage and G. McKeechick would ask the Directors to meet with council and citizens to consider relief, an amendment to the amendment by D. Kinnee and Mr. Wm Allan took as his subject "Sunday school teachers generally took his hearers back 40 years to the old log house in Normandy, and his experience during that time would lead him to say that these conventions were steps towards a larger Christian brotherhood. Using figures he compared the meagre past to the more bountiful present and looked for still greater things. The mother was the great power behind the S. School. "Raise the Banner and press onward" was his motto and he quoted an apt Orimean story.

"The Gates of Paradise" was sung by Mr Ramage and adjournment was made for the evening session. Dr Brown spoke effectively on the claims of the Children, who must be directed by human instrumentality. Every child is going to God, the devil owing to our influence, and it was as important now as when Jesus spoke it, the children are necessary to the kingdom of God. This truth overshadows everything else because of the worth of a human life.

Mr Geo A. King said by true teaching in the S. S. the foundation of true manhood was laid. The classes should be a great manufactory of pious young men and women, using another figure, they were the nursery of God to cover earth with the righteousness of heaven. Youth, the impressionable time, should be stamped with the mark and spirit of Christ. Teachers should be above reproach as to punctuality, thoroughness and character generally. They can thus make Canada a guiding star to other nations leading them too to higher things.

The papers and addresses were all on a high plane and stimulating to every one, and the same could be said of the music, appropriately selected and well-rendered. Rev Mr Randall is the President, W. J. Sharpe, Secy. A vote of thanks was tendered to the retiring Secy Mr Sinclair.

An Easy Win.

Directly at variance with the match in Hanover the beginning of the week, was the lacrosse game here Friday, this time against Chesley. In the former game, both teams fought every inch of the way, while here it was a take it easy exhibition, and the Durhams took the lighter end at that.

Not so the score—the green and whites always kept ahead and were satisfied with holding a three or four goal lead, throughout, ending 11-0. There was nothing especially interesting, exciting, or any fast play at any time, barring one pretty piece of combination, when the Durhams' house made a slight effort. Cowan secured the rubber in centre field, passed to McIntyre, to McCarty, again to Cowan, to Lavelle, to Wolfe, who made a nice low shot and scored, the ball having traversed the entire home in the thick of the Chesley defence.

Dr Grant referred to as the match was clean, he practically had nothing to do. The score:

1st quarter Durham 2, Chesley 1
2nd quarter Durham 6, Chesley 2
3rd quarter Durham 8, Chesley 5
4th quarter Durham 11, Chesley 6.

Next Tuesday lovers of our National Game will have the privilege of seeing probably the fastest match ever pulled off in Durham when the Hanover dozen will cross sticks with the Durhams in their first match here. Both teams are playing as fast lacrosse as any in the intermediate C. L. A.—the Durhams have struck their winning stride and intend to stick with it, while Hanover is coming over determined to put up another close fight, and win if at all possible, as they recognise in this their last opportunity for a glimpse of the semi-finals. "It will be a great game—THE game of the season. Don't miss it.

Egremont Tp. S. S. Association

The 9th Annual Convention of this body was held at Fairbairn Pres church on Wednesday, 17 July inst., and a fine attendance as usual bespoke the interest in the good work. The association is non-denominational and is a fine example of the unity more talked about than acted upon.

After devotions, reports and appointments there was an address of welcome by Rev Mr Little, the pastor, and a solo "The Beautiful Land," by Mr Wm Ramage. Miss Naismith gave some good practical views of infant class teaching, while Miss Kerr, on the responsibility of parents to the Sabbath school gave some wholesome reminders. Childhood was the battleground of the kingdom. Children the assets of the church and a realization of these truths should lead parents to attend S. S. themselves. Mr Little valued the white-haired people in his class and Mr Dodds made reference to the cost of our convention, a trifle compared with a court of justice, sitting for the same time, showing what value there was in a little effort.

Mr Renwick on "Anecdote and illustration in Teaching," said a story to be effective, must be pointed and well told. Bible stories are unexcelled and all can be used to impress truth. It should ever be remembered, however, that mere story-telling will not lead to Christ, but perfect teaching will. The paper was an excellent one and was discussed by Messrs Sinclair, Little, King and others, some holding that many stories besides Bible ones could be profitably used.

Misses Little and Naismith gave "I will not forget thee," Miss Sharp accompanying.

Mr Wm Allan took as his subject "Sunday school teachers generally took his hearers back 40 years to the old log house in Normandy, and his experience during that time would lead him to say that these conventions were steps towards a larger Christian brotherhood. Using figures he compared the meagre past to the more bountiful present and looked for still greater things. The mother was the great power behind the S. School.
