While parting from them with regret, Mr. and Mrs. Watson and family have the best wishes of their old-time neighbors.

GREAT WORDS OF GREAT MEN

On Sunday Observance.

PRESIDENT ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of the United States, issued the following order in 1862: "The President, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy desires and enforces the orderly observance of the Sabbath by the officers and men in the military and naval service. The importance for man and beast of the prescribed weekly rest, the sacred rights of Christian soldiers and sailors, a becoming deference to the best sentiments of a Christian people, and a due regard for the Divine will demand that Sunday labor in the army and navy be reduced of strict necessity. The discipline and character of the national forces should not suffer, nor the cause they defend be imperilled by the profanation of the day or name of the Most High."

COUNT MONTALEMBERT, an eminent Frenchman, gives the following testimony to the value of the observance of the Lord's Day: "Men are surprised sometimes by the ease with which the immense city of London is kept in order by a garrison of three small battalions and two squadrons, while to control the same number of men, which is half the size, 40,000 troops of the line and 60,000 national guards are necessary. But the stranger who arrives in London on a Sunday morning, when he sees all business suspended in that gigantic capital in obedience to God, when in the centre of that colossal business he finds silence and repose, scarcely interrupted by the bells which call to prayer, and by the immense crowds on their way to church, then his astonishment ceases. He understands that there is another curb for a Christian people besides that made by bayonets, and that, where the law of God is fulfilled with such solemn submission, God Himself (if I dare use the words) charges Himself with the police arrangements."—Advocate.

Mr. Bert McDonald had the misfortune last week to run a nail in his foot which caused blood-poisoning. An operation was performed Saturday and he is improving nicely although unable to take his place on the lacrosse team for some time.

Mr. Jas. W. Robertson, of the McLean Publishing Co., Toronto, a Durham boy, who never forgets the old town, is spending a few days here.

Miss Mary Gordon, of Fergus High School, visited friends in and near Durham over the week end before leaving for a month's holiday with her parents in Weyburn, Sask.

Mr. Cameron—1827—1907.

The above is the title of a neat folder giving an account of the life and death of John Cameron, who died recently in Bottineau, Dakota. Mr. Cameron was for 40 years a resident of this part where a number of his relatives still live, and many of the older sort will recall the name of the high-lander who was, as the notice says, "A pioneer of two countries" and "A highly respected citizen." We have pleasure in quoting from the article which was first published in a Bottineau paper.

"This week we are called upon to chronicle the death of one of the pioneer citizens of Bottineau County, John Cameron, familiarly known as 'John Knox,' who died very suddenly of heart failure at his home in this town on Wednesday, June 19, at 3:30 o'clock a. m., 1907.

Mr Cameron was born on the Island of Mull, Argyshire, Scotland, Oct. 12, 1827, and was the son of Archibald Cameron and Susan Bell Cameron, and was at the time of his death almost eighty years of age. At the age of three years he removed with his parents and family to Lennox County, Ont., Canada, where they resided until 1835, when they again removed to Vaughan Tp., York Co., near Toronto, remaining there for nearly twelve years and finally in 1847, located on farms in Grey County, Ontario where he remained until 1887. In 1880 at the age of 53 years being yet a sturdy and vigorous man, he crossed the international boundary and entered the territory of Dakota—selecting a home-stead in Bottineau county before the first of June, and before the railroad had entered. He was therefore a pioneer of two countries, being one of the very earliest settlers of Ontario and the first settler in the immediate part of Bottineau county in which he located. Last year with Mrs Cameron and daughter Margaret, he removed from the homestead 10 miles west of here and made his home in Bottineau, in this town to pass his remaining years, surrendering the operation of his farming interests to his son Archie.

In 1862 he married Mary McDougall, a sister of Neil McDougall now of Westhope, this county, and the daughter of Allan McDougall and Catherine Cameron McDougall—natives of the Island of Iona, Argyshire, Scotland, and likewise pioneers of Ontario.

The family comprised nine children four of whom died in infancy in Ontario. The wife and four sons and one daughter are left to mourn his death, viz: John and Archibald J. of Bottineau, Alexander of Chicago, and Charles of Tonopah, Nevada, and Margaret, all of whom are well known and highly respected here.

He is also survived by two sisters and a brother; Ann, Mrs John Greenwood, Glenelg; Christina, widow of Alexander Robertson, Molesworth, Ont.; Malcolm, well known in South Grey who is now of Antler, N. D.; and likewise a prosperous miner of Wallace, Idaho.

Cousins of deceased were John A. Cameron, also well known here and Duncan McArthur, a pioneer of Bruce Co. as well as of Bottineau. Both are still alive the latter at the advanced age of 95 years and still "enjoying fair health and activity."

The funeral services were held Friday at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian Church, by the Rev. J. P. Davis assisted by Rev. K. J. McInnes.
