Rev. W. G. Hanna.

Seldom does a Presbytery bear more unanimous and hearty testimonies to the worth and character of one of their members than were made to the Rev. W. G. Hanna at the meeting of Presbytery on Tuesday last. The occasion was his appointment as Field Secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, a position made vacant through the appointment of Dr. Shearer as agent for the new department of Temperance and Moral Reform in connection with the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Irwin K. C. from Toronto eloquently presented the claims of the Alliance, while the plea of the congregation was no less ably presented by Senator McMullen and Messrs Crow, McGregor and Filchie. If Mr Hanna could have been held by an appeal to the feelings and affection, he would have been held fast by the bonds of love that have been tightening round him during the last ten years, but to him the voice that called came as the voice of God and the response to it, that came with the peremptory tones of duty. With this view of it Congregation and Presbytery ceased their entreaty and with sorrow said "The will of the Lord be done."

Rev. McCameron is the interim moderator and will declare the pulpit vacant on Oct. 20th.

The Congregation of Arthur has called the Rev. W. G. Richardson of Wyoming and Provisional arrangements were made for the induction of Rev. C. E. Smith to the pastoral charge of Conn and Woodland.—Com.

A despatch to the Toronto Star of Tuesday has the following:

The Rev W. G. Hanna, of Mt Forest has been appointed to succeed the Rev T. Albert Moore as secretary for the Ontario Lord's Day Alliance. Mr Moore having been appointed general secretary.

Mr Hanna is looked upon as one of the best and ablest of Canada's Presbyterian preachers. Naturally of a modest disposition, he has not been a seeker for self-advancement, but his friends look upon him as a man of such real culture and education that his success in Toronto is assured.

Mr Hanna is a native of Huron County. He was educated at Princeton and has been stationed at Tapp, Uxbridge, and Mount Forest. At the latter place he has been pastor for eight years and his congregation there hold him in the highest possible regard, and lose him with regret.

Mr Hanna's appointment was allowed by the Saugeen Presbytery to-day.

HYMENEAL.

Mr Arch McKinnon, son of Mr Allan McKinnon, near town, traveller, with head quarters at Winnipeg, was married Aug 28th to a Miss Edith Boxer of that city. They have returned from their wedding trip to the Detroit lakes and below we quote what the Free Press says of her post-nuptial reception. The Review extends congratulations: "Mrs A. McKinnon held her post nuptial reception at the residence of her mother, Mrs Boxer, Kennedy street. A great many found their way to wish the young bride all sorts of happiness. Mr. Boxer wore a handsome black gown and Mrs McKinnon's costume was a beautiful empire gown of old rose tawine silk with lace yoke and sleeves trimmed with applique outlined in blue. Mrs Earnest Boxer and Mrs Charles Richardson presided over the pretty tea table which was decorated with white asters."

The ensemble work was fine, perfect melody, artistic expression and exquisite harmony throughout—while the singing of Mme. Ruth Holmes in solo, and assisted by the full chorus, was a sparkling bit of a brilliant whole.—Appearing at S. Grey Show 25th Sept. Afternoon and evening. Plan at Darlings. Get your ticket early.

Local Option does not appear to make headway in Wingham. At a recent meeting of the committee representing the eh rebs, opinion was about equally divided as to the wisdom of entering upon a local option campaign. A vote taken showed a majority of one in favor of having a by-law submitted. A few nights later a large meeting of business men met to consider the matter, passed a resolution to the effect that the time was not opportune for the submission of a local option law. Another resolution favoring the better enforcement of the present license law was passed.—Wingham Advance.

Obituary.

James Isaac.

The death of Mr James Isaac took place last Friday in Mt. Forest. For a good while he has been troubled with a kidney complaint, but only recently did it become so severe as to cause his friends anxiety, an anxiety justified by the sad event. He suffered considerably, but bore all with Christian fortitude. He passed away with wife and family around him or near him, except Mrs David McIntyre of Port Arthur.

Mr Isaac only recently moved to Mt. Forest from the farm on the 17th Con. of Egremont, 11 miles west of Dromore where he spent the most of his life where he married and where his children were born. He was a good farmer, a warm-hearted neighbor and kindly friend, and a devoted husband and father. He was a member of Amos Presbyterian Church, Dromore for many years and in the little graveyard nearby his remains were laid to rest on Sunday last amid a large concourse of his old friends and neighbors.

He was a native of Devonshire, England, coming to this country over 50 years ago. A brother John Isaac, died many years ago and a sister Mrs. Wm Snell only three years ago. His wife, who will deeply mourn, is a sister of the well-known Henderson family of Egremont, and to them were born eight children as follows: Robert near Dromore, William in Owen Sound, Mrs John Bunston, Dromore; Mrs Hugh Baird, Markdale; Mrs Jas Coleridge, Dromore; Mrs D. McIntyre, Port Arthur; Mrs A. Fettes, Mt Forest; and Mrs Dixon, who resides with her mother.

A service was held in Mt Forest at 1 p. m., Sunday, by Rev Mr Hanna and on arrival of the cortege at Amos church it was met by Rev Mr Kendall and the remains taken to the church where he used to worship. At the close of this service the "Dead March in Saul" was played by Mrs Kendall and after old neighbors had viewed the remains, the bearers took up their burden. These were his two sons and four sons-in-law present.

BORN.

ALLES.—In Egremont, on Sunday, Sept 8th, 1907, to Mr and Mrs Val Alles, a son.

ISAAC.—In Owen Sound on Tuesday, 2nd Sept., to Mr and Mrs Wm Isaac a daughter.

THOMAS.—At North Bay, on 28th August to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas (nee Dora Banks) a daughter.

MARRIED.

In Artemesia Sept. 4 by the Rev. Mr. Stanley Maxwell, Miss Ethel Parliament of Mr Alex Hoy, son of Mr Rich. Hoy of Artemesia.

DIED.

ISAAC.—In Mt. Forest on Friday, 13th Sept., Mr James Isaac. Long resident on Concession 17, Egremont.

LENAHAN.—In Durham, on Thursday, 12th September, Marilyn, infant daughter of Mr and Mrs Jas Lennahan, aged 5 mos.

An exchange says:—The editors on the country paper take a great interest in and do more for the locality in which they live than any other class of business men, yet they are no more directly benefited by the results than are the merchants and property owners, who, perhaps neglect to have their names on the editor's subscription list, or fail to advertise in his paper.

Local Option does not appear to make headway in Wingham. At a recent meeting of the committee representing the eh rebs, opinion was about equally divided as to the wisdom of entering upon a local option campaign. A vote taken showed a majority of one in favor of having a by-law submitted.
