Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Day has been fixed for October 3I, and in yiew of this the Sun has the following timely remarks;

Tis the season of fruition—the season in which the faithful husband-man gathers the final reward for the planting, the pruning, and the cultivating of the period of growth. Partial failure there has been; the barns are not all as full as usual, and many cattle are feeling the pinch due to the drying up in midsummer of accustomed pastures. But even in this year there is much to be thankful for, and the comparative leaness of the main harvest already gathered is abundantly off-set by the ten fat years we have enjoyed. Let us enjoy the beauty of the closing days of the season of warmth, and give heartfelt thanks for the measure of good things vouchsafed
