Dornoch.

Mr John Johnston, a graduate of the N. B. C., Owen Sound, leaves this week for Chicago where he has secured a lucrative position in one of the wholesale houses of that city.

After a pleasant two months' holiday with friends in Dornoch and London, Mr. Johnston and Miss Margaret left on Thursday per S. S. Athabasca for their home in Sault Ste Marie.

The annual Thank Offering Meeting in connection with the W. F. M. S. was held in the Presbyterian church on Monday p. m. The large assemblage listened with profit to an instructive address delivered by Miss Dow Owen Sound.

Hopeville

On Sunday morning the 6th Oct., to Mr and Mrs Wm Scrimgeur a daughter. All doing well.

We send you an additional list of improvements in our neighborhood. Peter Fettes Jr. bricked veneered his frame house and built additional to it.

Robert Campbell raised his large barn with the additional parts attached to it, and built stone stables under all of them.

Quite a number from here took in Priceville Show last Friday and all report a good show.

Lenahan & McIntosh.

Life chilling, otherwise those parts which enter into the process of curing become sour and unfit for market.

In view however, of the large trade carried on in some parts of Canada, more particularly during the fall and winter, in dressed pork, as well as in other dressed meats, attention may be directed to one of the requirements of the regulations made under the new Meat Inspection Act, which is likely to have a considerable effect on the business referred to.

The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender by order.

CARD OF THANKS

After two years in business in Durham I thank heartily the many farmers and others who have favored me with their trade and have pleasure in announcing that I will in the future have my pleasure in meeting in more commodious quarters, all my old friends and I trust many new ones. Promptness and fair dealing will continue to be my motto.

Yours for business A. B. McLellan.
