IRISH MOB STOPS ORMOND HUNT.

CRISIS REACHED IN DISPUTE BETWEEN LEAGUE AND GRAZERS. Police Swept Aside—Crowd Armed With Sticks Gathered at Master's Residence—Hunted Members of the Hunt as They Came to the Assembly—A Threat to Lay Poison on Fourteen Farms.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Herald has received the following cable dispatch from Dublin: Matters have come to a crisis in connection with the dispute between the Ormond Hunt, King's County, and the local branch of the United Irish League.

The graziers are the chief obstacle. Certain graziers are members of the Ormond Hunt, and the league some time ago informed the Hunt Committee that if they were allowed to follow the hounds the hunt would be stopped.

More than five hundred people, all armed with heavy sticks, assembled, and headed by a band marched to Mr. Craddock's residence. Meanwhile, the followers of the hounds were beginning to assemble, about one hundred mounts turning up.

Mr. Hogan succeeded in inducing the crowd to withdraw. He was at one with the hounds, in stopping the hunt, but they should not resort to violent means.

Shortly after Mr. E. F. Saunders, Mrs. Saunders and Grant Saunders rode up and were met with books and hisses. A crowd declined to let them pass through the gates.

The master decided that in view of the threatening attitude of the crowd it was inadvisable to bring out the hounds, and those present rode off amid rounds of cheering by the crowd.
