Hopeville

It is now two weeks since a fire destroyed the dwelling house of Mrs. Fallister, widow, occupied by her and her son Alexander and his family but the son Alex is busy rebuilding a new house, the neighbors assisting him.

A wedding and sickness at the same time at the same house on Wednesday the 30th Oct., at the residence of Mr. George Russell by the Rev. Mr. Little of Holstein, Mr. Angus Ferguson, of Hopeville, to Miss E. J. Russell oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Russell. Just after the wedding, while the young people, were beginning to enjoy themselves. Mrs. Geo. Russell was taken ill, the Dromore doctor had to be sent for and as we write she is not out of danger.

"How small the space that does divide The bounds where good and ill reside." The Proton Council held a meeting last week at the Central Hotel, Dundalk, and reports said it was noisy. The difficulty was, some large accounts were brought in by officials that were reduced. One account the council got reduced over $18 also parties from the south of Proton complaining about Government drains. As the clerk had not the necessary papers at the meeting to enable the council to do anything in the matter, he was ordered to bring the papers at the next meeting.

Hampden

On Tuesday, Oct. 22, Miss Tillie Brentigan of this place was quietly married to Mr. Chas Metzger, of Dundalk. The wedding took place in Hanover. We extend hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Metzger.

On Monday last week Mr. Jas. Young got a severe shaking up by falling from a broken ladder while picking apples.

A number of the line gathered at the home of Mr. Dave Robinson one evening last week to pare apples and enjoy a social evening together.

Mr. Alister Anderson and his sister Miss Etta visited over the week end with Walkerton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Brusso have returned from New Ontario where they were visiting Mrs. Brusso's brother. The stork was around this way last week and left a little daughter for Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Snider on Tuesday.

Miss Anderson was quite ill all week. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Edge Hill.

The Edge Hill Sabbath School closed for the season on Sunday the 27th ult. The Social, held last Wednesday was favored with a large attendance. Mr. E. Edwards, Zion acted as chairman, and the children acquitted themselves well in choruses, solos and recitations.

We are pleased to have Mr. Thos Banks back on the farm again.

Mr. Wm. Edge, Edge Hill, paid a visit to Toronto last week.

Miss M. A. Firth, who has been visiting near Toronto during the summer, returned home last week looking hale and hearty.

Mr. Jos. W. Firth of the Collegiate Institute, St. Marys, spent Thanksgiving at home and returned Monday.

Miss Maggie Eator is visiting her sister in Greenock at present.

Quite a number from Durham and this neighborhood attended the funeral of Mrs. Jos Firth at Zion last week.

Miss May Spittal is visiting friends in Bussanah this week.

Dromore.

Thanksgiving day dawned fair and bright. Some of our people went to church, a few went hunting while others took advantage of the good day to take up their turnips.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble Wilson, Boothville, and Mrs. Hugh Wilson, Walter's Falls, visited friends in Dromore last Saturday.

Mrs. Fred Morrison visited in Toronto over the holidays.

Miss Emily Wilson spent Thanksgiving with her friend Eva Renton.

Miss Maggie McLean left for Mt. Forest on Wednesday where she intends staying a few months.

Miss Hattie Watt is spending this week in Dromore.

Our high school scholars, Lewis Renwick, Mt. Forest, and Eva Renton and Wallace Findlay, Durham, were home for the holidays.

There was a meeting last Thursday after service of Amos congregation to consider building a new manse. It was decided to build next summer; preparations are to be made this winter.

Mr. Will Dargavey arrived home from Toronto on Monday to have a few days' sport, hunting in our forests.

A very successful run, was held at Mt. Geo. Melchish on Thursday last. The handsome sum of $40 being made on twenty eight turkeys.

Quite a number of the people in this vicinity attended the concert given by the I. O. O. F. in the hall on Wednesday last and were highly pleased with the program. Mr. Drinnan of Glasgow made his first appearance here and seemed to be making a favorable impression as he was encored every time. Mr. Johnson of Durham well known to most of the people here entertained the audience by selections on the violin which he has usual successfully rendered. Miss Irwin very amiably acted as accompanist.

An address on Forestry by the High Court Organizer, Mr. Geo A Mitchell of Toronto. This address was concise and instructive and there is no doubt but by many will be convinced to become members of the I. O. O. F.

Mr. James Buchanan who is now working in Owen Sound spent Sunday at home.

Miss Colena Campbell of Toronto is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell.

Master Harry Caldwell, Williamsford is at present assisting our popular merchant, Mr. H. Becker.

Mrs. Wm. Smith, Sr., was called to Winnipeg to visit her daughter, Mrs. Grant, who at that time was very low, but since then we are pleased to say, she has greatly improved and was able to be taken to her home near Brandon.
