BANK OF ENGLAND DISCOUNT NOW RAISED TO 7 PER CENT. Too Much Gold Going to the States, and Bank Needs It For Its Own Use.

London, Nov. 11.—The directors of the Bank of England this morning put up the minimum discount rate from 6 to 7 per cent. The only thing which could have averted this heavy rate would have been assurances from responsible quarters in New York that the situation there, which is recognized to be due to exceptional demands upon capital in consequence of the great commercial activity, would warrant the expectation of the gold drain on the market. In the absence of such an assurance the Bank of England utilized its only weapon at hand to protect its reserves. It is realized, however, that even this high rate may not prevent shipments of gold to New York, but it is hoped that it may attract the metal from abroad in sufficient quantities to bring the equilibrium.

GOATS' HAIR. Derailed an Engine and Six Cars on Illinois Traction System.

St. Louis, Nov. 11.—A special to the Republic from Carlinville, Ill., says: "A work train drawn by an electric engine on the Illinois traction system ran into a flock of forty-five Angora goats near here yesterday. The long goat hairs matted around the trucks and wheels in a way that derailed the engine and six cars. The track was torn up, the feet and traffic delayed for several hours.

DUTY ON PAPER. Roosevelt Will Recommend to Congress That it Be Abolished.

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Roosevelt to-day indicated to members of the committee on paper of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association that he will recommend to Congress the abolition of the tariff on press paper, wood pulp and the wood that goes into the manufacture of paper; also that he will make a recommendation to the Department of Justice that it take immediate steps to ascertain whether the anti-trust laws are being disobeyed by the manufacturers of paper.

CARRIED BLAZING DYNAMITE. Daring Act of Connecticut Man to Save His House.

New York, Nov. 11.—The Herald has received the following despatch from Winsted, Conn.: E. H. Wilcox, who resides on the Riverton road, a dealer in dynamite, risked his life last night when he entered a burning building on his premises and carried out burning sticks of dynamite weighing ten pounds. Wilcox said to-day that he did not consider he was taking very great chances.

FATALY BURNED. Boy Loses His Life in Chicago Fire—Others Burned.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Abraham Gellert, aged 16, was burned to death, six other persons were severely hurt and several more were rescued, during a fire that destroyed a three-story building at 399 west Fourteenth street, early to-day. The fine was what the court denominated an "intermediate penalty," the maximum which might have been assessed being $1,220,000, and the minimum, $66,000.

BUTTER FROM WHEY. WOODSTOCK CHEESEMAKERS DO NOT LIKE PROCESS.

The Labor Required to Extract the Small Quantity of Fat in Whey Worth as Much as the Product—Better Feed It to the Hogs. Woodstock, Nov. 11.—Local cheese men questioned to-day in regard to the practicability of the scheme which is being worked by some manufacturers of making butter from whey, were anything but enthusiastic as to the outcome of such an experiment. The consensus of opinion given was that the manufacture cannot be carried on profitably. On the question of the amount of butter fat in whey opinions were to differ.

TRICKY WOMAN. She Tries to Put St. Catharines Banker Off the Scent.

A St. Catharines despatch: The woman who is alleged to have swindled Leonard H. Collard, broker and private banker, yesterday out of $200 by giving him a forged cheque as security and making her departure from the city without the slightest clue as to her identity, sent the following wire to Mr. Collard afterwards: "Niagara Falls, N. Y., Nov. 6.—L. H. Collard, broker, Ontario street, will express two hundred dollars to me from Toronto, where I am going, or will call week from Monday. Made little mistake. (Signed) Lillian Hamilton."

JAPANESE FROM HONOLULU. Any Large Number Coming Liable to be Turned Back.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—The Federal Government has received no notice as yet confirming the press despatches from Honolulu, stating that United States Senator Chillingworth and others are arranging to send to British Columbia in the near future several shipments of Japanese, aggregating three or four thousand. If the despatches are correct, and an attempt is made to land these Japanese at Vancouver, it is not improbable that they will be turned back, in view of the fact that they will have passports from the Japanese Government.

RAILROAD BONDS STOLEN. Securities Valued at $14,000 Have Disappeared From New York Office.

New York, Nov. 11.—The theft of $14,000 worth of railroad bonds was announced to-day at the offices of Washburn Bros. brokers. The stolen securities included eight $1,000 Erie first consolidated general lien 4's, due in 1906, and six $1,000 Oregon Short Line Railroad Company refunding 4's, due in 1929. The particulars of the theft were not made public except that the bonds were stolen from one of the firm's customers.

HELVETIA DIVORCE DIDN'T GO. Helped a Little, However, and Sentence Was Suspended.

Wellington despatch.—The Swiss highway case was tried before Judge Barrett to-day. From the evidence it was adjudged that Switzer had violated the highway law and under bail to appear at any time within 12 months for sentence.
