The right of compensation to a hotel keeper, in the event of the loss of his license, cannot be said to be a burning question. Since however some hesitate to vote for Local Option, A. H. One is the desirability of the occuption, the other is the amount of risk involved in the investment. Now, according to Commissioner Starr, the basis on which the selling price of a license in Toronto is estimated is. that it is worth five times the net annual profits. On this calculation Mr Babcock expects from his outlay of $40000 to secure over and above all wages and expenses the sum of $8000 a year or a return of 20 per cent on his investment.
