P. G. A. WEBSTER

Watchmaker, Jeweler, Optician. Opposite the Post Office

O,
our
Christmas tree
so bright
and green,
awaits Old
Santa Claus.
And the chimney place all swept and clean gaps wide
its ponderous jaws.
The little stockings are all hung up, and baby's just makes four. Won't old Santa Claus be surprised when he finds there is one more! There's an elegant place up in the tree to hang Johnny's gun, and a place for May and one for Kate to leave their dolls upon. But for little baby blue eyes a lower branch he must choose, where she may reach and find the place he's hung her first new shoes. Turn down the light a little now, so Old Santa Claus can see.
And baby and all must go to bed and be as good as can be, and tomorrow morn get up early after a long night's sleep,

and
come
softly
down
to the
Xmas
tree
see
Who will get the first peep.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING

Is a delight at this Store. We are showing on every side a great variety of useful and ornamental articles.

Gifts suitable for Everyone

A visit cannot fail to offer many suggestions of value. It is the early shopper who gets the pick.

GUN'S DRUG STORE

It almost is Christmas. We hardly can wait to hang up the stockings alongside the grate. A bustle and sparkle pervades all around; the fur trees are cut and there's snow on the ground. The children, excited and thrilled with delight, are dreaming of Santa Claus all through the night. They wake up and listen to sounds on the roof which is to their fancies a reindeer's wee hoof. The old folks more eager than even the totts are burning with secrets and brimming with plots.
Mince pies in the pantries delicious and sweet of mother's own making are ready to eat. It almost
is Christmas; St.
Nick in his sleigh
all loaded with treasures is coming this way. His reindeer are flying; a day or two more and down through the chimney he'll bound to the floor. And then if the stockings are not in their place, in sorrow he'll vanish and leave not a trace. So hang up the stockings by chimneys with care, the night before Christmas;
before St. Nick will be there.
