Dromore.

The Sunday School entertainment held Monday night was well attended considering the stormy night. The children gave three choruses. Mr Kendall acted as chairman and gave an interesting talk on how Christmas was kept in England. The choir rendered some appropriate music and a number of recitations were given by the children. There was a small tree with presents for the Infant Class. Miss Ethel McWilliams, Mt. Forest, is home for the holidays. Mrs Mathews, Priceville, and Miss Phebe Moody, Proton, visited a few days this week at Mrs McMillan. Miss Maggie McLean, who has been living in Mt Forest the past couple of months is spending Christmas week at her home here. Our High School pupils, Lewis Renwick, Mt Forest, and Eva Renton and Wallace Findlay, Durham, are home for the holidays. Mr Adam Eccles, who is learning to be a machinist in Galt, arrived home last Saturday to spend the holiday week. Archie says he wishes some more of the young men would come out Sunday nights as all of the girls pile into his cutter and last Sunday night going through a deep drift in Dromore one of the tugs broke and Archie had some trouble getting things rigged up to get home. All the farmers Proton and Egremont are drawing brick for Colin McMillan. Beo on every day. Colin knows how to do things.

Hampden

Much sympathy is felt for Mrs Jas. Hanna and Mr Louis Kreller whose mother died quite recently in Ayt.n. Mrs Hanna attended her constantly during the last few weeks. Mr and Mrs L. Brusso left last week to attend the funeral of a relative down country. Mrs Little of Preston left Thursday for her home after a five week visit with her daughter Mrs Mich. Byers. Mr and Mrs Jake Yandt and master Seamon visited friends in Elmwood a few days last week. Miss Maggie Burns came up from Toronto, Saturday, to spend Christmas at home. A number of our young people look in the Christmas tree at No. 1 Normanby on Friday night while others went to Allan Park. All enjoyed the evening. Last week's Guild meeting was the best held for some time. The interest is growing.
